

Negotiation Analysis

The Science and Art of Collaborative Decision Making

Howard Raiffa

with

John Richardson

David Metcalfe

THE BELKNAP PRESS OF HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England

Contents

PREFACE xi

Part I. Fundamentals 1

1. Decision Perspectives 3
On four approaches to decision making
2. Decision Analysis 14
On how individuals should and could decide
3. Behavioral Decision Theory 33
On the psychology of decisions; on how real people do decide
4. Game Theory 53
On how rational beings should decide separately in interactive situations
5. Negotiation Analysis 81
On how you should and could collaborate with others

Part II. Two-Party Distributive (Win-Lose) Negotiations 97

6. Elmtree House 99
On setting the stage for adversarial bargaining
7. Distributive Negotiations: The Basic Problem 109
On the essence of noncooperative, win-lose negotiations
8. Introducing Complexities: Uncertainty 129
On deciding to settle out of court and other problems of choice under uncertainty

- 9. Introducing Complexities: Time 149
*On entrapments and downward escalation;
on real and virtual strikes*
- 10. Auctions and Bids 165
On comparing different auction and competitive bidding procedures

Part III. Two-Party Integrative (Win-Win) Negotiations 191

- 11. Template Design 195
On brainstorming alone and together; on deciding what must be decided
- 12. Template Evaluation 213
On deciding what you need and want
- 13. Template Analysis (I) 226
On finding a joint compromise for a special simple case
- 14. Template Analysis (II) 249
On finding a joint compromise for the general case
- 15. Behavioral Realities 269
On learning how people do negotiate in the laboratory and the real world
- 16. Noncooperative Others 288
On how to tackle noncooperative adversaries

Part IV. External Help 307

- 17. Mostly Facilitation and Mediation 311
On helping with people problems
- 18. Arbitration: Conventional and Nonconventional 328
On how a neutral joint analyst might help
- 19. What Is Fair? 348
On principles for deciding joint outcomes
- 20. Parallel Negotiations 365
On negotiating without Negotiating

Part V. Many Parties 385

- 21. Group Decisions 389
On organizing and managing groups

22. Consensus 407
On how to achieve a shared agreement for all
23. Coalitions 430
On the dynamics of splitting and joining subgroups
24. Voting 450
On anomalies of collective action based on voting schemes
25. Pluralistic Parties 465
On dealing with parties fractured by internal conflict
26. Multiparty Interventions 484
On the role of external helpers in multiparty negotiations
27. Social Dilemmas 507
On the conflict between self-interest and group interest

REFERENCES 523

NOTE ON SOURCES 531

INDEX 535