

6th Edition

TOURISM MANAGEMENT

STEPHEN J. PAGE

Contents

List of case studies	xiii
List of innovations in sustainability	xiv
Preface	xv
Companion website information	xvii

1 Tourism today: Why is it a global phenomenon embracing all our lives? 1

Introduction	2
Travel and sustainability	3
Case Study 1.1 The Maldives, tourism and sea level change	4
Innovation in Sustainability 1.1 Sustainability as a philosophy to transform the impact of travel and tourism	7
Case Study 1.2 Water equity issues and sustainability in the developing world	8
Why study tourism? Is it just about enjoyment and holidays?	9
The leisure society	11
The internet and social media	14
Concepts: Tourism, the tourist and travel	15
An organizing framework for the analysis of tourism	17
The tour, holidays, leisure time and the destination	18
Measuring tourism	20
The growth of global tourism and volatility in demand	21
Case Study 1.3 Terrorism and its impact on global tourism: Managing for crises and destination resilience	22
New forces affecting tourism: Globalization, inequality and the developed and developing world	29
Case Study 1.4 Tourism and poverty alleviation	31
A framework for the book	32
Tourism and management as a focus for the book	32
Managing tourism demand and supply: The perennial management challenge for tourism organizations	34

- The tourism supply chain 36
 Managing the tourism sector 40
 Disruptive innovations and technologies in tourism: A game changer for consumers and businesses? 42

2 Tourism: Its origins, growth and future

47

- Introduction 48
Tourism in classical times 48
The Middle Ages 49
The Renaissance and Reformation 50
The European Grand Tour 52
Case Study 2.1 Changing patterns of spa development as a form of tourism 54
 Tourism and the coast: Transition from spas to the seaside resort 56
 Tourism in the Edwardian and inter-war years 60
 Post-war tourism: Towards international mass tourism 64
 The future of tourism 70
Case Study 2.2 Emerging outbound markets: The BRIC and MINT economies 71
 The future for tourism growth: Asia-Pacific as the powerhouse of global tourism? 72
 Space tourism 75
 Conclusion 76

3 Demand: Why do people engage in tourism?

79

- Introduction 80
 What is tourism demand? 82
 The motivation dichotomy: Why do people go on holiday? 82
 Intrinsic and extrinsic motivation 84
Case Study 3.1 Volunteer tourism 88
 Maslow's hierarchy model and tourist motivation 89
 The tourism tradition of motivation studies: Classifying and understanding tourist motives 91
 Consumer behaviour and tourism 95
Gender and ethnicity 96
Case Study 3.2 The emergence of ecotourism markets in Brazil 97
Psychographic segmentation 98

Purchasing a holiday 99

Case Study 3.3 Medical tourism – a new growth area for tourism? 100

The tourist image of products and places 102

Innovation in Sustainability 3.1 Repositioning a resort to address mass tourism demand – Calvià, Mallorca 106

The future of tourism demand 109

Case Study 3.4 Emergent forms of tourism demand – dementia and tourism 111

Conclusion 114

4 Transporting the tourist I: Surface transport

117

Introduction 118

Transport, tourism and the tour 120

Policy issues in tourist transport 123

Case Study 4.1 Innovation in coach travel – Stagecoach's megabus.com 126

Land-based transport 133

The car and tourist travel 133

Cycling 137

The UK's national cycle network 138

Innovation in Sustainability 4.1 Slow travel 141

Coach and bus travel 143

Rail travel 146

Water-based transport 149

Case Study 4.2 Tourist travel by rail – the Trans-Siberian Railway 150

Cruises 151

Ferries 154

Inland waterways 155

Managing land- and surface-based tourist transport 157

Innovation in Sustainability 4.2 Monitoring and reducing carbon consumption in tourism 158

5 Transporting the tourist II: The aviation sector

163

Introduction 164

The role of the airport as a tourist terminal facility 164

What is an airport and how is it operated? 168

The international airline industry 172

Trends in the airline industry in the new millennium	173
Managing the airline industry	175
Case Study 5.1 The use of taxation to limit travel behaviour: Air passenger duty in the UK	176
Case Study 5.2 The performance and competitiveness of Chinese airlines	178
Regulating international air transport	179
Airline marketing: Its role and recent innovations	183
How airlines use marketing functions	184
The low-cost carriers: Aligning service provision to demand	185
Case Study 5.3 The low-cost carrier: The Southwest phenomenon	186
Low-cost carriers in Europe	189
Airline marketing and developing client relationships: Frequent flyer programmes and alliances	193
In-flight catering: A marketing opportunity?	195
Future trends	197
Conclusion	199
The future of tourist travel and transport	199

6 Accommodation and hospitality services 205

Introduction	206
The hospitality sector	207
The accommodation sector	210
The accommodation sector as a global phenomenon and operational issues	211
The characteristics of the accommodation industry	213
The management and development of the accommodation sector	214
Types of tourist accommodation	216
Serviced accommodation sector: Hotels	216
Case Study 6.1 Spa hotel development in Australia	218
Case Study 6.2 The Chinese hotel sector	222
The boutique hotel	226
Budget accommodation and hotels	227
The non-serviced accommodation sector	229
The caravan and motor home sector	230
Other issues for the accommodation sector	231
Eating out	231
Food festivals	232
Environmental issues	234
Innovation in Sustainability 6.1 Scandic Hotels and environmental issues – a pioneer in sustainable business practices	237

Human resources issues 239
 Conclusion 241

7 Tour operating and travel retailing 245

Introduction 246
 The tour operator 250
 Economics of tour operation: Managing for profit 253
 Tour operating business performance 254
 Regulating tour operating 256
 The European holiday market 257
 ATOL trends 257
 How do these companies compete for business? 259
 Consumer trends affecting the future of tour operating 261
Innovation in Sustainability 7.1 Corporate Social Responsibility and tour operators 262
 Demographic factors 265
 Consumer issues in tour operating 265
 Case Study 7.1 New technology and the holiday rep 269
 Marketing and planning the holiday: The holiday brochure 270
 Case Study 7.2 Thomas Cook's Let's Go! integrated marketing campaign in 2013/2014 274
 Travel agents 276
 The evolution of travel agents 276
 Characteristics of travel agents 277
 The organization of travel agents 278
 Business travel 280
 Travel agents and information communication technology 282
 Social networking and tourism 283
 The future of travel retailing 286
 Case Study 7.3 TripAdvisor, eWoM and the rise of internet ratings of tourism products and services 288
 Conclusion 291

8 Visitor attractions and events 293

Introduction 294
 Case Study 8.1 Events as attractions 294

Attractions, events and tourism: A symbiotic relationship?	298
Case Study 8.2 When management and planning fail: The tourism impact and legacy of the Rio Olympiad	300
Classifying visitor attractions	302
The events industry classified	309
Visitor attractions in the UK: Recent trends and patterns	309
Visitor attractions: Product considerations	312
Attractions as a leisure product	314
Visitor attractions and the product life cycle	314
Visitor attractions and the visitor experience	316
The visitor experience at attractions: Key influences	317
Managing the visitor experience: Potential and prospects	319
Innovation in Sustainability 8.1 The greening of meetings and events	321
The future for visitor attraction management	323
Product development and innovation	324
Marketing and promotion	324
Revenue generation and funding	325
Education and training	325
Community and public sector intervention	326
Conclusion	326

9 The management of tourism

331

Introduction	332
Managing tourism businesses: Key principles	332
The purpose of management in tourism organizations	333
What do tourism managers manage?	336
Marketing tourism as a management function	337
The marketing mix	338
Managing operational issues in tourism businesses	339
Managing seasonality	339
Managing service provision: Human resource issues and service delivery	342
Service provision in tourism: A perennial management challenge?	346
Case Study 9.1 The evolution of research on services marketing	348
Developing and managing tourism ventures in the small business sector	350
Case Study 9.2 The Disney model of customer care	351
Tourism and innovation	356
Challenges for tourism managers	356
How and why does innovation occur and what is its significance in tourism?	357

Tourism management in action: Designing and developing a visitor attraction 362

Case Study 9.3 A feasibility study for a new tourism attraction: The scope and range of issues 364

Conclusion 365

10 The public sector and tourism

371

Introduction 372

Governments and tourism 372

Why governments intervene in the tourism sector 374

Government intervention and tourism performance 377

Tourism policy 383

Case Study 10.1 Destination Management Organizations and tourism 386

How government organizations influence tourism 391

Planning and tourism 391

Does tourism planning exist? 392

Innovation in Sustainability 10.1 Championing sustainability in practice – the Global Sustainable Tourism Council (GSTC) 393

The planning process for tourism 394

Government tourism strategies 395

The public sector marketing of tourism 396

Innovation in Sustainability 10.2 Developing a country-based approach to sustainable tourism management 400

The future of the public sector in the management of tourism 403

11 Managing the visitor and their impacts

409

Introduction 410

The geography of tourism: Its application to impact analysis 410

European tourism: Trends and patterns 411

The geography of European tourism based on air transport: Key trends and impacts 411

Analysing the impact of tourism 414

The economic impact of tourism 417

Constructing the economic impact of tourism 423

Social and cultural impacts of tourism	425
Tourism and the environment	428
The tourism industry response	431
Visitor management	432
Innovation in Sustainability 11.1 Getting tourists out of their cars onto public transport – the experience of New Forest National Park, UK	434
Case Study 11.1 The challenge of managing tourism growth: The case of Vietnam	438
Case Study 11.2 Managing the tourist impact in Venice	440
Future issues for visitor management	447

12 The future of tourism: Post tourism? 455

Introduction	456
The spread of tourism	456
The snowball and amoeba concepts in tourism	459
Case Study 12.1 The tourism strategy of Turkey to 2023	461
Understanding the future of tourism	463
Case Study 12.2 BREXIT and tourism	465
The pressures for tourism to change	468
An ageing travelling public	469
New social trends	469
New outbound markets	469
Crises and disasters in tourism	470
Crises in tourism and business response: A management challenge?	470
Technology and tourism	472
Climate change, tourism and the environment: Its impact on future tourism trends	473
New business trends	475
Limiting tourism: The beginning of the end?	476
Towards a new tourism management concept: Managed tourism	483

Index	493
--------------	-----