

Practical Research Methods

A user-friendly guide to mastering research techniques and projects

DR CATHERINE DAWSON

howtobooks

Contents

---

Preface	ix
1 How to Define Your Project	1
Asking questions	1
The five ‘Ws’	4
Summary	13
2 How to Decide Upon a Methodology	14
Understanding the difference between qualitative and quantitative research	14
Summary	22
Further reading	23
3 How to Choose Your Research Methods	27
Interviewing	27
Focus groups	29
Questionnaires	30
Participant observation	32
Choosing your methods	33
Summary	37
Further reading	38
4 How to Conduct Background Research	40
Primary research and secondary research	40
Summary	45
Further reading	46
5 How to Choose Your Participants	47
Sampling	47
Sample size	49
Summary	53
Further reading	54
6 How to Prepare a Research Proposal	55
The contents of a proposal	56

---

What makes a good proposal?	60
Reasons why research proposals fail	61
Summary	62
Further reading	63
7 How to Conduct Interviews	64
Methods of recording	64
The interview schedule	67
Establishing rapport	70
Asking questions and probing for information	71
Summary	73
Further reading	75
8 How to Conduct Focus Groups	76
The role of the moderator	77
Recording equipment	80
Choosing a venue	81
Recruiting your participants	82
Summary	84
Further reading	85
9 How to Construct Questionnaires	87
Deciding which questionnaire to use	87
Wording and structure of questions	89
Length and ordering of questions	93
Piloting the questionnaire	95
Obtaining a high response	97
Summary	99
Further reading	100
10 How to Carry Out Participant Observation	101
Gaining access	102
Ethics	103
Collecting and analysing information	105
Withdrawal from the field	107
Summary	107
Further reading	108
11 How to Analyse Your Data	110
Deciding which approach to use	110

---

Qualitative data analysis	111
Quantitative data analysis	121
Measuring data	126
Summary	128
Further reading	129
12 How to Report Your Findings	131
Written reports	131
Written report format	134
Journal articles	140
Oral presentations	142
Summary	143
Further reading	144
13 How to be an Ethical Researcher	146
Treating participants with respect	146
Overt and covert research	147
Code of ethics	150
Summary	154
Further reading	155
Index	157

---