

Must we mean what we say?

A Book of Essays

STANLEY CAVELL

Professor of Philosophy

Harvard University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Foreword: An Audience for Philosophy	xvii
I Must We Mean What We Say?	1
II The Availability of Wittgenstein's Later Philosophy	44
III Aesthetic Problems of Modern Philosophy	73
IV Austin at Criticism	97
V Ending the Waiting Game: A Reading of Beckett's Endgame	115
VI Kierkegaard's On Authority and Revelation	163
VII Music Discomposed	180
VIII A Matter of Meaning It	213
IX Knowing and Acknowledging	238
X The Avoidance of Love: A Reading of King Lear	267
Thematic Index	357
Index of Names	363