

COMFORT ZONE INVESTING

How to Tailor Your Portfolio for High Returns and Peace of Mind

Gillette Edmunds

THE CAREER PRESS, INC.
Franklin Lakes, NJ

Acknowledgments

Thanks to Kathleen, Jesse, Ellis, and Oliver for being there always and especially when I emerged exhausted from the office.

Thanks to Tom for support, encouragement, editing, and acceptance.

Thanks to Jim, Carol, Jeff, and Kathleen, who took the time to read and edit.

Thanks to Al, Chris, John, Dave, and innumerable anonymous others who hung in there with me during the early drafts and the dark daze of the lawsuit and the happy days that follow.

Thanks to Jim, Rachel, and Elaine, who got more than an earful about the first book and kept coming back for more.

Thanks to Charlie, Duke, Ed, Ted, Rich, Kathy, and my other business associates over the years.

Thanks to everyone who shared with me the truth about their investment fears.

Thanks to Ed Knappman, my agent, and everybody at Career Press.

Thanks to H.P.

CONTENTS

Chapter 1

The Problem: Bad Results in Good 9 and Bad Markets

Investing is a long-term relationship	10
Who owns your investments?	10
Investing triggers many emotions	13
Risk tolerance: The sales tool	14

Chapter 2

The Solution: Invest Within Your 17 Comfort Zone

Comfort zone investing is... ..	17
Investing is not about numbers	18
Intelligence does not determine investment results	20
A dysfunctional relationship between a person and an inanimate object?	22
A simple, commonsense solution	23
The 3 steps	24
The investment emotions inventory	25
Self-acceptance, not self-improvement	26
Investment bigamy is fine	26
True money addicts need additional help	27
The more difficult personal change process	28

STEP 1

LEARN HOW INVESTMENTS TRIGGER EMOTIONS 29

Chapter 3

Emotional Traps? What Emotional Traps? 33

The obstacle course overview	34
Comfort zone emotions	45
Look for your personality	45

Chapter 4

Savings 47

Saving as faith	48
Savings accounts, CDs, and money market funds	49
U.S. government notes and bonds	51
Municipal bonds	53
Insurance products	55
The saver personality	59
The family home	59

Chapter 5

Think Twice, Feel Twice, Before You Invest 63

Are you an investor?	63
Stocks	65
Real estate	93
Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs)	103
Corporate bonds	106
Oil and gas	111
Other investments	114

Chapter 6

Speculations	121
Speculators use magical belief systems	122
Options	122
Debt instruments	126
Hedge funds	131
Private businesses	133
Venture capital and private equity funds	134
Commodities	137
Collectibles	138
Junk real estate	140
Limited partnerships	144

Chapter 7

How to Build an Emotionally Safe Portfolio	145
Diversify or diworsify	146
Form can control the emotional substance of an investment	150
Is somebody standing between you and your money?	152
You are entitled to a comfort zone	154
Liquidity	156
Are you indebted to your investments?	157
Enough about them	159

STEP 2

LEARN WHO YOU ARE AS AN INVESTOR..... 161

Chapter 8

Write an Investment Inventory	163
Investment inventory	164
If there is no problem, then there is no solution	169

Chapter 8, cont.

4 stories 173
 Kathleen 174
 Todd 176
 Marcus 180
 Dillon 186
Suggestions about the process 189

STEP 3

MATCH YOURSELF WITH 203
COMPATIBLE INVESTMENTS

Chapter 9

Use Your Inventory and Knowledge to 205
Find Your Comfort Zone

Patterns 205
Pick compatible investments 208
Buy and sell to establish your comfort zone 215
Character flaws can be removed

Index 217

About the Author 223