

GET SOCIAL

Social media strategy and tactics for leaders

MICHELLE CARVILL

KoganPage

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements xi

Introduction: Not sure if this book is for you? 1

01 Leading a business in a socially connected world 7

How digital is transforming business 9

Why does being social as a leader matter for you? 12

Fake social 13

Getting social really means getting social 15

Barometer, microphone and scout 16

The age of the co-creating, belief-driven all-important customer 18

Reconnecting the disconnect 19

Belief-driven buyers 20

Beyond broadcast media 22

Seeing around corners 23

Leading from the front 24

Focus on the human experience 27

References 28

02 The social landscape 30

Navigating the social landscape 31

A world gone mobile 33

The changing face of communication 35

The age of the audience 36

A quick look at social channel demographics 39

Talking with versus talking at 43

Someone is listening... 45

Social media is part of the job 46

Straight from the top 48

References 51

03 The leader's social toolkit 53

- How do you show up? 55
- What could you be doing to influence what's out there? 56
- Social media outlets and what they can do for you 59
 - Twitter 60
 - LinkedIn 61
 - LinkedIn Pulse 62
 - Facebook 63
 - Instagram 64
 - Snapchat 65
 - Google+ 66
 - WhatsApp 67
 - YouTube 67
 - Social media channel 'tips' 68
 - To dashboard or not to dashboard – that is the question 76
 - Your digital brand 78
 - Stop calling it social media 80
 - References 82

04 Content 84

- Everything is content 86
- Beware the curse of knowledge 87
- Know you, like you, trust you 88
- Be brave, be bold, be true 89
- Quality over quantity 93
- Content rhythms that work for you 93
- Understanding your 'why' assists with steering your 'what' 96
- Striking a balance 96
- Fear of saying the wrong thing 99
- Be yourself 101
- Content planning 101
- Food for thought on thought leadership 102
- Developing your content plan 103
- Strive to make content a habit 107
- References 110

05 Your personal social media strategy 111

- Nothing has changed, yet everything has changed 113
- Changing habits, mindsets, belief systems and fears 114
- Be objectively driven 114
- Social media is not an island 115
- Plan 118
- Listen 126
- Analyse 130
- Engage 131
- How to strike a work and personal balance 133
- No man is an island 136
- Social media training 137
- Measure 138
- Reference 142

06 The social business 143

- How is social media organized across your organization? 145
- Organizational social media – external facing 146
- Organizational social media – internal facing 149
- Bringing this back to you, the leader 154
- Determining social media literacy 155
- Strategic focus for you and your leadership team 156
- How is social currently working in your C-suite? 158
- To wrap up 159
- References 160

07 90-day plan 162

- Creating your 90-day personal social media strategy and plan 162
- What your 90-day programme covers 164
- Accountability and progress check-ins 165
- Let's start 166
- Weeks 1–3: Getting fit for purpose 168
- Weeks 4–9: Getting social 173
- Week 9 assessment: Getting fit for purpose checklist 181
- Weeks 10–12: Getting results 181
- Reference 183

08 Learning from others 184

The CEOs and leaders interviewed 186

Summary of key findings 193

Reference 199

Afterword 201

Appendix: Interviews 203

Index 235