

Sandra Jeppesen · Paola Sartoretto
Editors

Media Activist Research Ethics

Global Approaches to Negotiating Power in Social Justice Research

palgrave macmillan

CONTENTS

1	Introduction: Mapping Questions of Power and Ethics in Media Activist Research Practices	1
	Sandra Jeppesen and Paola Sartoretto
Part I Practice-Based Perspectives on the Ethics of Research Activism
2	Research Ethics: Critical Reflections on Horizontal Media Activism Research Practices	27
	Sandra Jeppesen
3	Dealing with Ethical Dilemmas in Activist Research on Social Movement Media	51
	Paola Sartoretto and Leonardo Custódio
4	Challenges for Social Movement Research in Contexts of Inequality: The MST in Brazil	67
	Mayrá S. Lima and Solange I. Engelmann

Part II Decolonizing Methodologies and Negotiating Community Learning

- 5 Denaturalizing Research Practices: (Re)Signifying Subject Positions Through Decolonial Theories 89
Vera Martins and Rosane Rosa
- 6 Disrupting Settler Colonialism and Oppression in Media and Policy-Making: A View from the Community Media Advocacy Centre 109
Gretchen King and the Community Media Advocacy
Centre (CMAC)
- 7 Wearing Multiple Reflexive Hats: The Ethical Complexities of Media-Oriented Community Engaged Learning 131
Sandra Smeltzer

Part III Negotiating Power Dynamics Between Researcher and Activist Positionalities

- 8 The Ethics of Reciprocal Communication 157
Julia Velkova
- 9 Researcher Ethics: Between Axiological Reasoning and Scientific Discussion 175
Gökçe Tuncel
- 10 Difficult Choices: Application of Feminist Ethics of Care in Action Research 193
Ekaterina Kalinina

Part IV Media Activist Research in the Context of Global Crises

11 The Ethics of Media Research with Refugees	221
Eugenia Siapera and Sara Creta
12 Challenges of Ongoing Conflict Research: Dialogic Autoethnography in Studies of Post-2014 Ukraine	249
Yuliya Yurchuk and Liudmila Voronova
Index	269