

RICS professional guidance, UK

Health and safety for residential property managers

1st edition, January 2016

Contents

Acknowledgments	ii
RICS professional guidance	1
1 Introduction	3
1.1 Guidance note structure	3
1.2 Fundamental matters for consideration	4
1.3 Contractual reasons for visiting the property	4
1.4 Occupancy agreements	4
1.5 The demise and what constitutes ‘common areas’	5
1.6 Assets	5
1.7 Effective date and jurisdiction	6
2 General arrangements	7
2.1 Regulations and the duty of care	7
2.2 Non-standard property types	9
3 Assessment of health, safety and environmental risks	10
3.1 Hazard + Likelihood = Risk	10
3.2 Dynamic risk assessment	10
3.3 Evaluating risk	10
3.4 The ‘responsible person’	11
3.5 Responsibility for risk assessment	11
3.6 Landlords’ employees/agents on site	12
4 The management and reporting of accidents in the UK	13
4.1 Accident prevention	13
4.2 Reporting accidents	13
5 Housing Health and Safety Rating System (HHSRS)	14
5.1 Description	14
5.2 Duties and responsibilities	14
5.3 Scope and enforcement	14
6 Sales and acquisitions	15
6.1 Description	15
6.2 Duties and responsibilities	15

6.3	Terms and conditions	15
6.4	Development sites	17
6.5	Acquisitions	18
6.6	Buying agents	18
6.7	Consultants and contractors	18
6.8	Site sales and staff	19
7	Letting agents	20
7.1	Description	20
7.2	Duties and responsibilities	20
7.3	Arrangements	20
8	Lettings property management	22
8.1	Description	22
8.2	Duties and responsibilities	22
9	Houses in multiple occupation (HMO) and selective licensing	23
9.1	Description	23
9.2	Duties and responsibilities	23
9.3	Enforcement	23
9.4	Selective licensing	23
10	Estate/block management (including retirement housing)	24
10.1	Description	24
10.2	Duties and responsibilities	24
11	Build to rent	27
11.1	Description	27
11.2	Duties and responsibilities	27
11.3	Maintenance of the property	27
12	Contractor management	28
12.1	Who or what is a contractor?	28
12.2	Why contract work?	28
12.3	Principles of good contractor management	29
12.4	Construction Design and Management (CDM) Regulations	33
12.5	Tenants' contractors	33
12.6	Common challenges in residential properties	33
13	Guidance by topic	36
13.1	Access provisions	36
13.2	Asbestos management	37
13.3	Car/bicycle parking, clamping and disabled vehicle access	39

13.4	The Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Alarm (England) Regulations 2015	40
13.5	Communication and the provision of information	41
13.6	Control of substances hazardous to health	42
13.7	Electrical safety	43
13.8	Emergency preparation and property resilience	45
13.9	Fire safety and management	47
13.10	First aid and fire wardens	50
13.11	Food safety	51
13.12	Gas safety	52
13.13	Housekeeping	54
13.14	Lifts and lifting equipment	55
13.15	Lighting	56
13.16	Lone working	58
13.17	Responsibility for people with disabilities	60
13.18	R22 'F' gases and ozone-depleting substances	62
13.19	Radiation	62
13.20	Security and CCTV	63
13.21	Signage	64
13.22	Smoking	65
13.23	Statutory energy and air conditioning	66
13.24	Waste management	68
13.25	Water hygiene management	69
13.26	Safety and use of solid/multi fuel burners and wood pellets	71
13.27	Work at height/falls from height	72
	Appendix A: Glossary	76
	Appendix B: Sources of further information	79