

Hospitality Management and Organisational Behaviour

Fifth edition

Laurie J. Mullins

Penny Dossor

PEARSON

Harlow, England • London • New York • Boston • San Francisco • Toronto • Sydney
Auckland • Singapore • Hong Kong • Tokyo • Seoul • Taipei • New Delhi
Cape Town • São Paulo • Mexico City • Madrid • Amsterdam • Munich • Paris • Milan

Contents

About the authors	x
Dedication	xi
In Acknowledgement and appreciation	xii
Acknowledgements	xiii
Publisher's acknowledgements	xiv
Preface	xv
1 Nature and scope of the hospitality industry	1
The scope and size of the hospitality industry	2
What is hospitality?	4
General management theory	9
Hospitality education and research	9
So is the hospitality industry unique?	10
The organisational setting	11
Common factors in organisations	11
Hotel operations and the hospitality industry	12
Organisational and staffing characteristics	15
Distinctive nature of the hotel industry	15
The nature of service industries	18
Service management	22
The open systems model of analysis	24
The customer as the major throughput	25
Environmental influences	28
Analysis of hospitality operations	31
Synopsis	33
Review and discussion questions	34
Assignments	35
Tasks	37
Case study	38
References	40
2 Understanding the nature of the workforce	44
The behaviour of people	45
Influences on behaviour	47
A behavioural science approach	48
The recognition of individuality	50
Personality	51
Emotional labour	53
Stress at work	54
Intelligence	55
Emotional intelligence	56

The process of perception	58
Attitudes	70
The nature of the workforce	73
Meaning of work in people's lives	74
The psychological contract	76
Frustration-induced behaviour	79
An understanding of human nature?	81
An understanding of human behaviour at work	81
Synopsis	82
Review and discussion questions	82
Assignments	83
Case studies	84
References	86
3 Diversity management	90
The impact of globalisation on the management of people in the hospitality industry	91
Managing diversity	91
Diversity and age	95
The importance of cultural influences	104
Cultural differences in communication	107
The communication process	107
Non-verbal communication and body language	110
Migrant workers	112
Culture shock and cultural adjustment	114
Acculturation, assimilation and retention of international workers	115
Improving cross-cultural skills	117
Working overseas	119
Synopsis	119
Review and discussion questions	120
Assignments	120
Case study	121
References	122
4 Organisational goals and structure	125
Purpose (goals)	126
Organisational ideologies and philosophy	127
Mission statements	128
Objectives and policy	129
Ethical aspects	132
General and sectional policy	133
The profit motive	134
Other considerations and motivations	134
Multiple performance objectives	135
Corporate social responsibility	136
Corporate social responsibility and the hospitality industry	139
Organisational structure	140
Scientific management	146
Bureaucracy	147

The human relations approach	150
The systems approach	152
The contingency approach	152
Mechanistic and organic organisations	155
Social action theory	158
The flexible organisation	158
Matrix structures	169
Synopsis	175
Review and discussion questions	175
Assignments	176
Case studies	177
Tasks	185
References	185
5 Defining management	188
The meaning of management	189
The principles and processes of management	192
Common activities of management	195
Managerial roles	197
Applications to the hotel manager	199
Behaviour patterns of managers	200
The differing styles and approaches of management	205
Blake and Mouton Managerial Grid	208
Management by objectives (MBO)	211
The balanced scorecard	213
The attributes and skills of hospitality managers	215
Basic managerial philosophies	218
Synopsis	226
Review and discussion questions	226
Assignments	227
Case study	228
References	232
6 Nature of leadership	235
The leadership process	239
The study of leadership	241
The qualities or traits theories	241
The functional or group approach	244
Leadership as a behavioural category	248
Styles of leadership	249
The situational approach and contingency models	254
Transformational leadership	260
Inspirational (or visionary) leadership	262
Transcendental (servant) leadership	266
Leadership effectiveness	268
Synopsis	274
Review and discussion questions	275
Assignments	275
Case study	277

Tasks	279
References	279
7 Workforce motivation and involvement	283
The nature of motivation	284
Needs and expectations at work	285
Motivation and job satisfaction	288
Theories of motivation	289
Maslow's hierarchy of needs	290
Alderfer's continuum of needs model	293
Herzberg's two-factor theory	294
McClelland's achievement motivation	297
Paying and motivating hourly workers	299
Process theories of motivation	299
Vroom's expectancy theory	301
The Porter and Lawler expectancy model	302
Practical applications of expectancy theory	304
Equity theory of motivation	305
Goal theory	306
Applications of motivational theories	307
The nature of hospitality work	308
Job satisfaction and job design	313
Restructuring of individual jobs	314
Job enrichment and core job dimensions	316
The concept of empowerment	319
Synopsis	330
Review and discussion questions	331
Assignment	331
Case study	332
References	333
8 Managing through groups and teams	337
The nature of work groups	338
Differences between groups and teams	338
Group values and norms of behaviour	342
Developing effective groups	343
Membership of the group	344
Groups in organisations	345
Group development and maturity	346
Formal and informal groups	348
The need for teamwork	351
Social identity theory	355
Potential disadvantages of cohesive groups	356
The performance of groups	358
Channels of communication in groups	360
Membership of successful teams	362
Role relationships	363
Role stress	369

Behaviour of individuals in groups	370
Skills of effective teamwork	372
Building successful teams	374
Virtual teams	378
Management and communication skills	379
Cultural diversity in teams	380
Synopsis	381
Review and discussion questions	382
Assignments	382
Case study	385
Appendix 1	388
References	392
9 Managing challenging situations	396
Conflict	397
Organisational stress	404
Managing challenging situations in the hospitality industry	411
Challenging issues	412
Bullying	414
Control	416
Synopsis	424
Review and discussion questions	425
Case studies	426
References	429
10 Managing the changing environment	432
Organisational effectiveness	433
Organisational development	434
Organisational culture	436
The importance of culture	443
Organisational performance	447
The management of change	458
Technology and change	460
Planned organisational change	461
Resistance to change	461
The future	468
Synopsis	468
Review and discussion questions	469
Assignments	470
Case studies	471
References	474
Index	477