Financial Accounting

A concepts-based introduction

David Kolitz

Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

Contents

Preface ix
Outline xi
Supplements xiv

PART I
A conceptual overview 1

1 The accounting environment 3
2 Fundamental accounting concepts 23
3 The accounting equation and the analysis of transactions 67

PART II
The accounting process 101

4 Recording external transactions 103
5 Recording internal transactions 144
6 Preparation and presentation of financial statements 166
7 Closing entries 193

PART III
The accounting process expanded 215

8 Purchase and sale transactions 217
9 Analysis journals 259

PART IV
Recognition and measurement of the elements of financial statements 285

10 Property, plant and equipment 287
11 Inventory and cost of sales 333

12 Accounts receivable 368

13 Cash and bank 385

14 Accounts payable 409

15 Owner's equity and non-current liabilities 420

PART V
Entity forms 431

16 Partnerships 433

17 Companies 477

PART VI
Sundry topics 519

18 Statement of cash flows 521

19 Analysis of financial statements 552

20 Non-business entities 583

21 Incomplete records 601

Index 614