

FINANCIAL INNOVATION, REGULATION AND CRISES IN HISTORY

EDITED BY

Piet Clement, Harold James and Herman Van der Wee

PICKERING & CHATTO
2014

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
List of Contributors	ix
List of Figures and Tables	xv
Note on the Text	xvi
Part I: Introduction
Foreword: Financial Crises – Will it be Different Next Time? – Ivo Maes	1
1 Financial Innovation, Regulation and Crises: A Historical View – Piet Clement, Harold James and Herman Van der Wee	5
Part II: Episodes of Financial Innovation, Regulation and Crisis in History
2 Contract Enforcement on the World's First Stock Exchange – Lodewijk Petram	13
3 Co-operative Banking in the Netherlands in pre-Second World War Crises – Joke Mooij	37
4 The Discreet Charm of Hidden Reserves: How Swiss Re Survived the Great Depression – Tobias Straumann	55
5 The Redesign of the Bank–Industry–Financial Market Ties in the US Glass–Steagall and the 1936 Italian Banking Acts – Federico Barbiellini Amidei and Claire Giordano	65
6 Regulation and Deregulation in a Time of Stagflation: Siegmund Warburg and the City of London in the 1970s – Niall Ferguson	85
7 Financial Market Integration: An Insurmountable Challenge to Modern Trade Policy? – Welf Werner	107
Part III: Innovation, Regulation and the Current Financial Crisis
8 Something Old and Something New: Novel and Familiar Drivers of the Latest Crisis – Adair Turner	127
9 To Regulate or Not to Regulate: No Easy Fixes for the Financial System – William R. White	139
Notes	143
Index	169