A Handbook for International Students

Fifth edition

Stephen Bailey

Contents

Acknowledgements

Introduction for Teachers

Introduction for Students

Academic Writing Quiz

Written British and American English – A Short Guide

Part 1 The Writing Process

1.1 Basics of Writing

The purpose of academic writing

Features of academic writing

Common types of academic writing

The format of short and long writing tasks

The components of academic writing

Some other common text components

Simple and longer sentences

Writing in paragraphs

Practice

1.2 Reading: Finding Suitable Sources

Academic texts

Types of text

Using reading lists

Using library catalogues

Using library websites to search electronic resources

1.3 Reading: Developing Critical Approaches

Reading methods

Titles, subtitles and text features

Reading abstracts

Fact and opinion

Assessing internet sources critically

Practice

Critical thinking

1.4 Avoiding Plagiarism

What is plagiarism?

Acknowledging sources

Degrees of plagiarism

Avoiding plagiarism by summarising and paraphrasing

Avoiding plagiarism by developing good study habits

Practice

Further practice

Research

1.5 From Understanding Essay Titles to Planning

The planning process

Analysing essay titles

Practice

Brainstorming

Essay length

Writing outlines

Practice

1.6 Finding Key Points and Note-making

Finding key points

Finding relevant points

Practice A

Why make notes?

Note-making methods

Effective note-making

Practice B

1.7 Summarising and Paraphrasing

What makes a good summary?

Stages of summarising

Practice A

Practice B

Practice C

Paraphrasing

Practice D

Techniques for paraphrasing

Practice E

Practice F

1.8 References and Quotations

Why use references?

Citations and references

Reference verbs

Reference systems

Using quotations

Practice

Abbreviations in citations

Secondary references

Organising the list of references

1.9 Combining Sources

Referring to sources

Taking a critical approach

	Combining three sources
	Practice
1.10	Organising Paragraphs
	Paragraph structure
	Practice A
	Practice B
	Introducing paragraphs and linking them together
	Practice C
	Practice D
1.11	Introductions and Conclusions
	Introduction components
	Introduction structure
	Opening sentences
	Conclusions
	Conclusion structure
	Practice
1.12	Rewriting and Proofreading
	Rewriting
	Practice A
	Practice B
	Proofreading
	Practice C

```
Practice D
      Practice E
      Progress check 1
Part 2
Elements of Writing
2.1 Argument and Discussion
      Discussion vocabulary
      Organisation
      Practice A
      The language of discussion
      Counter-arguments
      Providing evidence
      Practice B
2.2 Cause and Effect
      The language of cause and effect
      Practice A
      Practice B
      Practice C
      Practice D
2.3 Comparison
      Comparison structures
      Practice A
```

Forms of comparison Using superlatives Practice B Practice C Practice D 2.4 Definitions Simple definitions Category words Complex definitions Practice 2.5 Examples Using examples Phrases to introduce examples Practice A Practice B Restatement 2.6 Generalisations Using generalisations Structure Practice A Practice B

Building on generalisations

Practice C

2.7 Problems and Solutions

Paragraph structure

Alternative structure

Vocabulary

Practice A

Practice B

Practice C

2.8 Visual Information

Types of visuals

The language of change

Describing visuals

Labelling

Practice A

Practice B

Progress check 2

Part 3

Language Issues

3.1 Cohesion

Reference words

Practice A

Preventing confusion

Practice B

Implied language

Practice C

Practice D

3.2 Definite Articles

Use of articles

Using definite articles

Practice A

Practice B

3.3 Numbers

The language of numbers

Percentages

Simplification

Further numerical phrases

Practice

3.4 Passive and Active

Active and passive

Structure

Use of the passive

Adverbs with passives

Practice

3.5 Punctuation

```
Capital letters
      Full stops
      Commas
      Apostrophes
      Semicolons
      Colons
      Quotations marks/inverted commas
      Others
      Practice A
      Practice B
3.6 Singular or Plural?
      Five difficult areas
      Group phrases
      Uncountable nouns
      Practice A
      Practice B
3.7 Style
      Developing an academic style
      Guidelines
      Practice A
      Avoiding repetition and redundancy
      Varying sentence length
      The use of caution
```

Using modifiers Practice B 3.8 Time Markers How time markers are used Practice A Tenses Practice B Practice C Progress check 3 Part 4 Vocabulary for Writing 4.1 Approaches to Vocabulary Vocabulary issues Dealing with new vocabulary Language features Practice Confusing pairs Words and phrases from other languages 4.2 Abbreviations Types of abbreviation Common abbreviations

Punctuation

Duplicate abbreviations
Abbreviations in writing
Practice
4.3 Academic Vocabulary: Nouns and Adjectives
Introduction
Nouns
Nouns and adjectives
Confusing nouns and adjectives
Practice A
Similar adjectives
Academic adjectives
Practice B
Practice C
4.4 Academic Vocabulary: Verbs and Adverbs
Understanding main verbs
Using verbs of reference
Practice A
Further verbs of reference
Practice B
Using adverbs
Practice C
Practice D

4.5 Conjunctions

How conjunctions work

Types of conjunctions

Common conjunctions

Practice A

Practice B

Confusing conjunctions

Conjunctions of opposition

Practice C

4.6 Prefixes and Suffixes

How prefixes and suffixes work

Prefixes

Practice A

Suffixes

Practice B

Practice C

4.7 Prepositions

Using prepositions

Practice A

Prepositions and nouns

Prepositions in phrases

Prepositions of place and time

```
Practice B
      Verbs and prepositions
     Practice C
4.8 Synonyms
      How synonyms work
      Common synonyms in academic writing
      Practice A
      Practice B
      Practice C
      Progress check 4
Part 5
Writing Models
5.1 Case Studies
      Using case studies
      Model case study
5.2 Literature Reviews and Book Reviews
      Literature reviews
      Example literature review
      Book reviews
      Model book review
5.3 Writing Longer Papers
      Planning your work
```

```
Example essay
      Revision
5.4 Reports
      Writing reports
      Essays and reports
      Practice
      Scientific reports
      Example report: Student experience of part-time work
5.5 Writing Letters and Emails
      Letters
      Practice A
      Emails
      Practice B
      Practice C
5.6 Writing in Groups
      Why write in groups?
      Making group work successful
      Dealing with problems
      Points to remember
      Glossary
      Answers
        Part 1 – The Writing Process
```