

Business Law

4TH EDITION

Nickolas James

WILEY

CONTENTS

Preface ix
About the author xiii
How to use this text xiv
Abbreviations xvii
Cases xxi
Statutes xxvii

PART 1

Foundations 1

CHAPTER 1

Business and the law 2

Introduction 3

1.1 Law and the business person 4

Law and personal life 4
Law and business 4
Law in the media 5
Law in popular culture 5

1.2 The nature of law 6

Defining law 6
The purpose of law 9
The categories of law 13
The changing law 17

1.3 Justice, ethics and politics 18

Law and justice 18
Law and ethics 22
Law and politics 24
Too much law? 25

In conclusion 27

Quiz 28
Exercises 29
Key terms 30
Acknowledgements 31

CHAPTER 2

The Australian legal system 32

Introduction 33

2.1 The Australian legal system 34

Key characteristics of the system 34
The history of the system 43

2.2 The Australian Constitution 50

Structure of the Constitution 51
Constitutional conventions 52
Federal and State relations 52

Regulating the Territories 58

Changing the Constitution 59

2.3 The executive government 60

The Governor-General and the State
Governors 61

The Executive Council and the Cabinet 63

Challenging the executive government 64

Delegated legislation 68

In conclusion 70

Quiz 72
Exercises 73
Key terms 74
Acknowledgements 76

CHAPTER 3

Politicians and judges 77

Introduction 79

3.1 The legislature 79

The nature of parliament 79

3.2 Parliament in operation 84

How laws are made 84
Resolving deadlocks 88
Types of legislation 90

3.3 The judiciary 92

The Australian court system 92
Court processes 102

3.4 The doctrine of precedent 114

Do judges make law? 114
Precedent 115
Common law and equity 118

3.5 Alternative dispute resolution 119

In conclusion 120

Quiz 122
Exercises 123
Key terms 124
Acknowledgements 127

CHAPTER 4

How to find, understand and use the law 128

Introduction 129

4.1 Finding the law 130

Legal research 130
Primary legal materials 131
Secondary legal materials 135

- 4.2 Reading the law 136
 - The relevant elements 136
 - Interpreting the law 143
- 4.3 Thinking like a lawyer 159
 - Inductive and deductive reasoning 160
 - How to solve a legal problem 160
- 4.4 Writing like a lawyer 164
 - Legal writing 164
 - Drafting a letter 165
 - Drafting a simple contract 167
- In conclusion 170
 - Quiz 171
 - Exercises 172
 - Key terms 173
 - Acknowledgements 175

PART 2

Legal consequences 176

CHAPTER 5

Deliberately causing harm 177

- Introduction 178
- 5.1 Causing harm 178
 - Criminal liability 179
 - Tortious liability 180
 - Contractual liability 180
 - Statutory liability 181
 - Vicarious liability 181
- 5.2 Deliberately causing harm to person or property 182
 - Criminal liability 182
 - The tort of trespass 185
 - The tort of nuisance 190
 - The tort of defamation 194
- 5.3 Deliberately causing financial harm 199
 - Criminal liability 199
 - The tort of deceit 203
 - The tort of passing off 204
 - The tort of intimidation 204
 - The tort of interference with contractual relations 205
- 5.4 The consequences of causing harm 206
 - Criminal consequences 206
 - Civil consequences 206
- In conclusion 209
 - Quiz 211
 - Exercises 212
 - Key terms 213
 - Acknowledgements 215

CHAPTER 6

Carelessly causing harm 216

- Introduction 217
- 6.1 Carelessly causing harm to person or property 217
 - The tort of negligence 218
- 6.2 Carelessly causing financial harm 244
 - Harm to the person or property of a third party 244
 - Defective products 245
 - Negligent misstatement 245
- In conclusion 248
 - Quiz 250
 - Exercises 250
 - Key terms 252
 - Acknowledgements 253

CHAPTER 7

Contract law: formation of the contract 254

- Introduction 255
- 7.1 Contracts 256
- 7.2 Requirement 1: agreement 257
 - Offer 257
 - Acceptance 262
 - Conditional agreements 266
- 7.3 Requirement 2: intention 266
 - Presumptions 267
 - Preliminary agreements 269
 - 'Mere puff' 269
- 7.4 Requirement 3: consideration 270
 - Consideration need not be adequate 271
 - Consideration must be sufficient 272
 - Deeds 275
 - Practical benefits test 275
 - Promissory estoppel 276
- 7.5 Formalities 278
- 7.6 Capacity to contract 279
 - Minors 280
 - Persons lacking intellectual capacity 282
- 7.7 Legality 283
 - Illegality under common law 283
 - Statutory illegality 283
- In conclusion 284
 - Quiz 287
 - Exercises 288
 - Key terms 289
 - Acknowledgements 290

CHAPTER 8

Contract law: terms of the contract 291

Introduction 292

8.1 Express terms 293

- In writing and signed 293
- Reasonable notice 295

8.2 Terms implied by the court 298

8.3 Statutory terms 300

- Contracts for the sale of goods 301
- Terms that protect the buyer 301
- Ownership, delivery, payment and acceptance 306

8.4 Disclaimers 310

- Do disclaimers work? 310

8.5 Unenforceable terms 312

- Terms limiting the court's jurisdiction 313
- Terms imposing an unreasonable restraint of trade 313

8.6 Non-contractual representations and promises 314

- Parol evidence rule 315
- Breach of collateral contract 316
- Misrepresentation 316
- Breach of the ACL 317
- Unenforceable promises 318

In conclusion 318

- Quiz 320
- Exercises 321
- Key terms 322
- Acknowledgements 323

CHAPTER 9

Contract law: enforcement of the contract 324

Introduction 325

9.1 Entitlement to enforce 325

- Privity of contract 326
- Time limits 327

9.2 Unenforceable contracts: lack of consent 328

- Mistake 329
- Duress 331
- Undue influence 333
- Unconscionability 335

9.3 Remedies 338

- Rescission 338
- Damages 342
- Equitable remedies 344
- Statutory remedies 346

9.4 The end of the contract 347

- Agreement 347
- Frustration 347

In conclusion 349

- Quiz 351
- Exercises 352
- Key terms 353
- Acknowledgements 355

CHAPTER 10

Contract law: working with agents 356

Introduction 357

10.1 Getting someone else to do it 358

10.2 Scope of authority 361

- Express actual authority 361
- Implied actual authority 362
- Apparent authority 363
- Agency of necessity 366
- Authority by ratification 366

10.3 The agent's duties 367

- Duty to follow instructions 368
- Duty to communicate information 368
- Duty to act personally 369
- Duty of care 369
- Duty to act in the best interests of the principal 370
- Duty of confidentiality 371
- Duty to account 371

10.4 The agent's entitlements 372

- Remuneration 372
- Indemnity 373
- Lien 373

10.5 Liability of agent and principal 373

- Personal liability of agent 374
- Vicarious liability of principal 375

10.6 Concluding the agency 376

- Termination by the parties 376
- Automatic termination 376

In conclusion 377

- Quiz 379
- Exercises 381
- Key terms 382
- Acknowledgements 384

CHAPTER 11

Dealing with consumers 385

Introduction 386

11.1 Protecting consumers 386

- 11.2 Dealing with consumers 389
 - Consumer protection regulation 389
 - General protections 392
 - Specific protections 404
- 11.3 Consequences of contravention 417
 - Offences and penalties 417
 - Defences 418
 - Enforcement 418
 - General remedies 418
 - Consumer guarantees 419
 - Codes of conduct 421
 - Industry ombudsman 421
- 11.4 Consumer privacy 422
 - What is information privacy? 422
 - Information privacy protection 423
- In conclusion 430
 - Quiz 431
 - Exercises 432
 - Key terms 433
 - Acknowledgements 435

CHAPTER 12

Dealing with competitors 436

- Introduction 437
- 12.1 Protecting competition 437
- 12.2 Dealing with competitors 438
 - Competition regulation 438
 - Key concepts 440
- 12.3 Prohibited conduct 443
 - Cartel conduct 443
 - Other prohibitions 447
- 12.4 Consequences of breach 456
 - Remedies 456
 - Penalties 456
 - Authorisations and notifications 457
- In conclusion 459
 - Quiz 461
 - Exercises 462
 - Key terms 463
 - Acknowledgements 464

CHAPTER 13

Protecting IP 465

- Introduction 467
- 13.1 Intellectual property law 467
 - Rationale for protection 468
 - Commercialising IP 468
- 13.2 Copyright 469
 - What is copyright? 469
 - Requirements for copyright protection 470

- Extent of copyright protection 474
- Infringement 479
- 13.3 Trade marks 486
 - What is a trade mark? 486
 - Requirements for trade mark protection 487
 - Extent of trade mark protection 491
 - Infringement 492
 - Unregistered trade marks 494

13.4 Patents 496

- What is a patent? 496
- Requirements for patent protection 497
- Extent of patent protection 501
- Infringement 503

13.5 Designs 503

- What is a design? 504
- Requirements for design protection 504
- Extent of design protection 505
- Infringement 506

13.6 Breach of confidence 507

In conclusion 508

- Quiz 511
- Exercises 512
- Key terms 513
- Acknowledgements 514

PART 3

Managing a business 515

CHAPTER 14

Managing a business: start-up 516

- Introduction 517
- 14.1 Preparation 518
 - Do some research 518
 - Protect the IP 519
 - Prepare a plan 519
 - Select a business structure 519
 - Raise some money 521
 - Take out insurance 522
- 14.2 Licences and registration 523
 - Registering the business name 523
 - Complying with licensing requirements 524
- 14.3 Renting or buying the premises 525
 - Property concepts 525
 - Buying and owning real property 528
 - Leases 534
- 14.4 Opening for business 539
 - Shop trading hours 539
 - Setting up a website 540

In conclusion 542
Quiz 544
Exercises 545
Key terms 545
Acknowledgements 549

CHAPTER 15

Managing a business: business ownership 550

Introduction 551

15.1 The sole trader 551

15.2 The partnership 552

Forming a partnership 553

Authority of partners 559

Liability of partners 563

Rights and duties of partners 565

Partnership property 569

15.3 The trust 571

Types of trust 572

Trustees and beneficiaries 573

15.4 The franchise 575

What is a franchise? 575

The Franchising Code of Conduct 578

In conclusion 582

Quiz 583

Exercises 584

Key terms 585

Acknowledgements 587

CHAPTER 16

Managing a business: companies and corporate governance 588

Introduction 589

16.1 The company 590

Key features of the company 591

Types of companies 592

How to form a company 594

16.2 Corporate finance 595

Borrowing by companies 595

Share capital 596

Issuing shares 597

Disclosure documents 597

Equity capital maintenance 598

Listing the company 599

16.3 Corporate governance 600

Company constitution 601

Company directors 602

Board meetings 604

Corporate contracting 604

Directors' duties 606

Shareholders 611

In conclusion 616

Quiz 617

Exercises 619

Key terms 620

Acknowledgements 622

CHAPTER 17

Managing a business: making payments and recovering debts 623

Introduction 624

17.1 Making payments 624

Cash payments 625

Cheques and bills of exchange 626

Credit and debit cards 630

Electronic funds transfer 631

17.2 Recovering debts 634

The debt recovery process 635

Secured debts 638

Consumer credit 644

In conclusion 650

Quiz 652

Exercises 653

Key terms 654

Acknowledgements 656

CHAPTER 18

Managing a business: insurance and taxes 657

Introduction 658

18.1 Taking out insurance 658

Types of insurance 659

Insurance regulation 660

Insurance contracts 661

Dispute resolution 667

18.2 Paying tax 668

Forms of tax 669

Tax administration 673

Tax implications of different business structures 674

In conclusion 676

Quiz 677

Exercises 678

Key terms 678

Acknowledgements 679

CHAPTER 19Managing a business:
employing workers 680

Introduction 681

19.1 Employee or independent contractor? 684

19.2 Employer obligations 687

Common law duties 687

Statutory entitlements and obligations 688

Fair Work Ombudsman 691

Tax and superannuation 691

19.3 Workplace conditions 692

Workplace health and safety 692

Workers compensation 695

Discrimination, harassment and equal opportunity 696

19.4 Termination of employment 700

Unfair dismissal 701

Unlawful termination 702

In conclusion 703

Quiz 704

Exercises 705

Key terms 705

Acknowledgements 706

CHAPTER 20Managing a business:
closing down 707

Introduction 708

20.1 Financial difficulty 708

Receivership 709

20.2 Personal insolvency 710

Bankruptcy 710

Alternatives to bankruptcy 719

20.3 Corporate insolvency 722

Liquidation 722

Administration 729

20.4 Closing the business 731

Dissolving the business structure 731

Selling the business 735

In conclusion 737

Quiz 739

Exercises 740

Key terms 741

Acknowledgements 743