

Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli • Mara Del Baldo •
Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva

Environmental Accounting and Reporting

Theory and Practice

 Springer

Contents

1	New Challenges for the Enterprise in the Age of “Sustainable Modernity” . . . . .	1
	Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli, Antonio Maticena, and Ludmila Pascari
1.1	The Subject We Are Dealing With: MGA Model of the Enterprise . . . . .	1
1.2	Emerging Threats and Opportunities for the Enterprise in the Era of Sustainable Modernity . . . . .	13
1.3	Some Orientations to Reply to Sustainable Modernity . . . . .	16
1.4	Eco-Entrepreneurship: A Strong Promise for Safe Environment . . . . .	17
1.4.1	Typologies of Ecopreneurs . . . . .	19
1.4.2	Determinations of the Barriers to Ecopreneurship . . . . .	22
1.4.3	Strategies to Foster Ecopreneurship . . . . .	25
1.4.4	Conclusion . . . . .	27
1.5	The Scheme of Analysis . . . . .	28
	References . . . . .	32
2	Environmental Accounting: Conceptual Framework . . . . .	35
	Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli and Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva
2.1	Emergence of Environmental Accounting and Reporting . . . . .	35
2.1.1	European Commission for the Approaches and the Future of Environmental Accounting . . . . .	36
2.1.2	Basic Theoretical and Research Characteristic: Institutional Framework of Environmental Accounting and the Problem of Social Cost . . . . .	37
2.1.3	Types of Academic Study . . . . .	38
2.1.4	Why Is It Important to Conduct Environmental Accounting? . . . . .	40
2.2	Environmental Accounting and Social Accounting Relationships . . . . .	41
2.3	The Historical Development of Institutional Factors Influencing Environmental Accounting in Italy . . . . .	43

- 2.4 The Historical Development of Institutional Factors Influencing Environmental Accounting in Bulgaria . . . . . 47
  - 2.4.1 Institutional Policies of Governments for the Transformation of State Property into Private Property and the Protection of Property Rights: The Privatization of State Assets—The Greatest Externality . . . . . 52
- 2.5 Public Attitudes . . . . . 61
- References . . . . . 65
- 3 Measurement and Communication of Environmental Variable . . . . . 69
  - Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli
  - 3.1 Financial Crisis and Measurement: New Challenges . . . . . 69
  - 3.2 Environmental Accounting Tools: Meaning and Classification . . . . . 70
  - 3.3 Environmental Costs: Meaning, Measurement, and Classification . . . . . 78
  - 3.4 Environmental Accountability: An Overview of Meaning and Models . . . . . 83
  - References . . . . . 88
- 4 Toward the Future Perspectives of Business Integrated Measurement and Communication . . . . . 91
  - Mara Del Baldo and Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva
  - 4.1 The IR: Integrated Report and Integrated Reporting . . . . . 91
  - 4.2 The Theoretical Framework: Financial and Non-Financial Information . . . . . 95
  - 4.3 Premises, Origins, and Strengths of Integrated Reporting . . . . . 101
    - 4.3.1 From Historical Accounting to Sustainability Reporting and Intangibles Reporting . . . . . 105
  - 4.4 The IIRC Vision of Integrated Reporting . . . . . 113
    - 4.4.1 Objective of the Framework . . . . . 115
    - 4.4.2 Interaction with Other Reports and Communications . . . . . 115
    - 4.4.3 Integrated Thinking . . . . . 116
    - 4.4.4 The Capitals . . . . . 116
    - 4.4.5 The Business Model . . . . . 118
    - 4.4.6 Creating Value (Value Creation) . . . . . 118
    - 4.4.7 The Guiding Principles . . . . . 119
    - 4.4.8 Content Elements . . . . . 119
    - 4.4.9 Structure and Content of the Integrated Report . . . . . 121
    - 4.4.10 KPIs and KRIs . . . . . 122
    - 4.4.11 The Assurance of the Integrated Report . . . . . 124
    - 4.4.12 Leading Examples of IR and International Updates . . . . . 125
  - 4.5 Integrated Reporting for SMEs? . . . . . 125
  - 4.6 World Intellectual Capital Initiative (WICI) . . . . . 129
    - 4.6.1 WICI and IIRC: Common Approach and Elements . . . . . 132
  - 4.7 Final Remarks and Conclusions About IR . . . . . 133

4.7.1	Objections, Advantages, and Benefits of IR . . . . .	133
4.7.2	Future Direction and Open Issues with IReporting Disclosure . . . . .	139
4.8	Other Economic Measures of Environmental Issues: Material Flow Cost Accounting . . . . .	143
4.9	Emergence of the Method “Material Flow Cost Accounting” . . . .	143
4.9.1	Characteristics of the Method Material Flow Cost Accounting . . . . .	143
4.9.2	Matter and Benefit of MFCA . . . . .	144
	References . . . . .	150
5	Some Tools and Standards for Reporting . . . . .	161
	Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli, Mara Del Baldo, and Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva
5.1	The Report Following GBS Standard (Italy) . . . . .	161
5.1.1	Introduction . . . . .	161
5.1.2	Origins and Diffusion of Social Reporting in Italy . . . . .	166
5.1.3	Objects and Aims of the Social Report . . . . .	168
5.1.4	The GBS Basic Standard (2013) . . . . .	171
5.1.5	The Social Report Sections: The Socio-environmental Report . . . . .	178
5.1.6	The Chart of Environmental Accounts . . . . .	187
5.1.7	The GBS Research Document No. 2: The Performance Indicators for the Sustainability Reporting and the Sustainability Rating . . . . .	191
5.1.8	The GBS Research Document No. 3: Environmental Reporting and Value Added . . . . .	196
5.1.9	Final Remarks and Insights . . . . .	206
5.2	GRI Standard Presentation . . . . .	207
5.3	Energy Saving and OIC (Organismo Italiano di Contabilità/Italian Accounting Committee) Standard 7 and 8 in Italy . . . . .	209
5.3.1	OIC 7 Accounting Principle: “The Green Certificates” . . .	210
5.3.2	OIC 8 Accounting Principle: “Greenhouse Gas Emissions Quotas” . . . . .	221
5.4	Eco-management and Audit Scheme . . . . .	228
5.4.1	Environmental Statement (Declaration) . . . . .	234
5.5	UNI ISO 26000 . . . . .	244
5.5.1	The ISO International Standards . . . . .	244
5.5.2	Origins and Aims of the “Standard” for Social Responsibility: ISO 26000 . . . . .	246
5.5.3	Spheres of Application . . . . .	247
5.5.4	The Contents and Structure of ISO 26000 . . . . .	250
5.5.5	The Seven Principles of Social Responsibility . . . . .	254
5.5.6	The Seven Core Subjects of ISO 26000 . . . . .	254
5.5.7	Benefits and Criticalities Deriving from the Implementation of ISO 26000 . . . . .	262

5.5.8	Some of the Actors' Comments on ISO 26000: A Brief Look . . . . .	265
5.5.9	Some Concrete Examples of Applications . . . . .	266
5.5.10	Final Remarks . . . . .	268
	References . . . . .	270
6	Case Studies and Best Practices . . . . .	277
	Mara Del Baldo
6.1	The Case of ENI: Sustainability and Integrated Report . . . . .	277
6.1.1	Introduction . . . . .	277
6.1.2	Methodology . . . . .	277
6.1.3	Company Profile . . . . .	278
6.1.4	Eni's Sustainability Path . . . . .	282
6.1.5	The Concept of Environment in ENI . . . . .	283
6.1.6	ENI's Environmental Management System . . . . .	286
6.1.7	ENI's Commitment to Local Development . . . . .	286
6.1.8	Reporting Principles and Criteria . . . . .	287
6.1.9	Eni's Materiality Definition Process . . . . .	287
6.1.10	ENI's Journey Toward the Integrated Reporting . . . . .	289
6.1.11	Final Remarks . . . . .	291
6.2	BoxMarche's Global Report . . . . .	294
6.2.1	Introduction . . . . .	294
6.2.2	Methodology . . . . .	295
6.2.3	BoxMarche's Profile . . . . .	296
6.2.4	BoxMarche's Global and Living Report . . . . .	300
6.2.5	Final Remarks . . . . .	303
	References . . . . .	305
7	Case Studies and Best Practices: Reading the SGR Sustainability Reporting in Italy and in Bulgaria Using Institutional Theory . . . . .	309
	Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli, Mara Del Baldo, and Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva
7.1	Reading the Sustainability Reporting Using Institutional Theory: Conceptual Network . . . . .	309
7.2	The Case Study of SGR Group Italy . . . . .	324
7.3	Institutional Structures and Sustainability in SGR Group Italy . . . . .	334
7.4	Sustainability Dimensions, Institutional Theory in the Case Study of SGR Group Bulgaria . . . . .	339
7.4.1	External Institutional Factors . . . . .	342
7.4.2	External Regulation of Consumption and Gas Sales in Italy and Bulgaria . . . . .	343
7.4.3	The Investment Risk of Companies in the Gas Sector (the Importance of Institutional Factor) . . . . .	343
7.4.4	Direct Financial and Currency Risks . . . . .	345
7.4.5	Direct Production Risks Associated with Delivery of Natural Gas for the CityGas Activity . . . . .	346

7.4.6	Ecological Risks . . . . .	347
7.4.7	Cultural, Social, and Demographics Risks . . . . .	347
7.4.8	Internal Institution Factors Like “Rules of the Game” . . .	348
7.4.9	The Tools for CityGas’s SAR . . . . .	351
7.5	Final Remarks . . . . .	354
	References . . . . .	357
8	Case Studies and Best Practices: VERSO Project Model and Implementation to Small Quality Hotels, Rimini, Italy . . . . .	363
	Maria-Gabriella Baldarelli
8.1	The Model of VERSO Project . . . . .	363
8.1.1	Section 1 of VERSO Model: Presentation to the Enterprises That Are Involved . . . . .	364
8.1.2	Section 2 of VERSO Model: Questionnaire Concerning CSR . . . . .	366
8.1.3	Section 3 of VERSO Model: Self-Evaluation Documents (by the Entrepreneur) . . . . .	370
8.2	VERSO Project Implementation in Small Quality Hotels, Rimini, Italy . . . . .	371
8.2.1	The Consortium of Small Quality Hotels, Rimini: Network of Values in Mission and Governance . . . . .	371
8.2.2	The Consortium of Small Quality Hotels, Rimini, Accountability . . . . .	379
	Bibliography . . . . .	382
9	Case Studies and Best Practices: The Case of Casio Computer Co. Ltd . . . . .	387
	Ninel Nesheva-Kiosseva
9.1	A Brief Description of Japanese Environmental Accounting and Reporting . . . . .	387
9.2	The “Casio” Case . . . . .	390
9.3	Calculation of Consumer Economic Benefit . . . . .	392
9.3.1	Environmental Impact and Environmental Conservation Effect . . . . .	395
9.3.2	Economic Effects from Environmental Conservation Measures . . . . .	397
9.3.3	Economic and Environmental Efficiency of Environmental Costs and Environmental Efficiency . . . . .	397
9.3.4	Reporting “Economic Benefits of Environmental Conservation” . . . . .	398
	References . . . . .	399