

SEVENTH EDITION

MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS

discovery, creation and conversations

CHRIS FILL AND SARAH TURNBULL

PEARSON

Harlow, England • London • New York • Boston • San Francisco • Toronto • Sydney • Auckland • Singapore • Hong Kong
Tokyo • Seoul • Taipei • New Delhi • Cape Town • São Paulo • Mexico City • Madrid • Amsterdam • Munich • Paris • Milan

Brief contents

Preface	xix
Acknowledgements	xxix
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxx
Part 1 Introduction to marketing communications	1
1 Introducing marketing communications	3
2 Communications: forms and conversations	37
3 Audience insight: information processing and behaviour	71
4 How marketing communications might work	113
Part 2 Managing marketing communications	147
5 Marketing communications: strategy and planning	149
6 Marketing communications: objectives and positioning	180
7 The communications industry: structure, operations and finance	211
8 Evaluation and metrics	252
9 Branding and marketing communications	287
10 Integrated marketing communications	323
Part 3 The marketing communications mix	353
11 Advertising: role, forms and strategy	355
12 Public relations: principles and practice	388
13 Sponsorship	422
14 Direct marketing and personal selling	450
15 Sales promotion, field marketing and brand experience	485
16 Brand placement, exhibitions, packaging and licensing	517
17 Messages and creativity	546
18 Media – principles and practice	587
19 Social, search and other interactive media	621
20 Media planning: reaching audiences	658
Author index	691
Subject index	703

Contents

Preface	xix
Acknowledgements	xxix
Publisher's acknowledgements	xxx

Part 1 Introduction to marketing communications 1

1	Introducing marketing communications	3
	Aims and learning objectives	3
	Case: Sensodyne Pronamel	4
	Introduction	7
	The concept of marketing as an exchange	8
	Marketing communications and the process of exchange	9
	The scope of marketing communications	10
	The role of marketing communications	13
	The tasks of marketing communications	16
	Defining marketing communications	19
	Environmental influences	22
	Internal influences	22
	Market influences	23
	External influences	23
	The marketing communications mix	25
	Criteria when devising a mix	27
	Control	28
	Financial resources	29
	Audience size and geographic dispersion	29
	Media behaviour and preferences	29
	Communications tasks	29
	Communications differences	30
	Message reception	30
	Number of decision-makers	30
	The balance of the communications mix	31
	Specificity and integration	31
	Variety of media	31
	Content	31
	Message origin	31
	Length of purchase decision time	31
	Negative communications	32
	Target marketing and research	32
	Measurement and evaluation	32
	Marketing communications goals	32

Key points	33
Review questions	34
References	35
2 Communications: forms and conversations	37
Aims and learning objectives	37
Case: British Heart Foundation: Vinnie – stayin’ alive!	38
An introduction to the process of communications	40
A linear model of communications	41
Source/encoding	42
Signal	42
Decoding/receiver	44
Feedback/response	44
Noise	45
Realms of understanding	45
Factors that influence the communications process	46
The influence of the media	46
The influence of people	47
The influencer model of communications	47
Interactional model of communications	48
Word-of-mouth communications	50
Definition and motives	51
Opinion leaders	54
Opinion formers	55
Opinion followers	56
Developing brands with word-of-mouth communications	56
Amplification	60
Relational approaches to communications	60
Network approaches to communications	62
Process of adoption	62
Process of diffusion	65
Key points	66
Review questions	67
References	68
3 Audience insight: information processing and behaviour	71
Aims and learning objectives	71
Case: The intellectual Alibi – or how the Dacia challenged conventional perceptions of value	72
Introduction	74
Information processing	77
Perception	77
Marketing and perception	80
Learning	83
Attitudes	88
Decision-making	90
Consumer purchase decision-making process	90
Organisational decision-making process	91
Fear and perceived risk	94
Involvement theory	96
Impact on communications	99

Other approaches	101
Hedonic consumption	101
Tribal consumption	102
Behavioural economics	104
Key points	108
Review questions	109
References	110
4 How marketing communications might work	113
Aims and learning objectives	113
Case: McCain – Ready Baked Jackets	114
Introduction	116
The strategic context	116
Engagement and the role of marketing communications	117
How does marketing communications work?	119
HMCW Interpretation 1: Sequential models	120
HMCW Interpretation 2: Changing attitudes	122
HMCW Interpretation 3: Shaping relationships	125
HMCW Interpretation 4: Developing significant value	133
HMCW Interpretation 5: Cognitive processing	137
Conclusion	140
Key points	141
Review questions	142
References	143
Part 2 Managing marketing communications	147
5 Marketing communications: strategy and planning	149
Aims and learning objectives	149
Case: The London Olympics – a strategic success	150
Introduction	152
Marketing communications strategies	153
MC strategy interpretation 1: Positioning strategies	154
MC strategy interpretation 2: Audience strategies	159
MC strategy interpretation 3: Platform strategies	164
MC strategy interpretation 4: Configuration strategies	166
Planning marketing communications	168
The marketing communications planning framework	169
Elements of the plan	172
Context analysis	172
Communications objectives	173
Marketing communications strategy	174
Coordinated communications mix	174
Resources	175
Scheduling and implementation	175
Evaluation and control	175
Feedback	175
Links and essential points	176

Key points	177
Review questions	178
References	178
6 Marketing communications: objectives and positioning	180
Aims and learning objectives	180
Case: Petplan	181
Introduction	184
The role of objectives in corporate strategy	185
The role of brand communications objectives and plans	186
The sales school	188
The communications school	189
Derivation of campaign objectives	194
Setting realistic marketing communications objectives	195
Business objectives	196
Behavioural objectives	196
Intermediate objectives	197
SMART objectives	197
Positioning	198
The positioning concept	199
Managing positions	201
Perceptual mapping	201
Positioning strategies	203
Product features	203
Price/quality	203
Use	204
Product class dissociation	204
User	204
Competitor	205
Benefit	205
Heritage or cultural symbol	205
Repositioning	205
Key points	207
Review questions	209
References	209
7 The communications industry: structure, operations and finance	211
Aims and learning objectives	211
Case: The Kasiisi Project	212
Introduction	214
Dimensions of the UK marketing communications industry	216
Structure and development of the UK marketing communications industry	218
Agency types and structures	220
Full-service or integrated agencies	221
Creative agencies	221
Media agencies	221
Digital agencies	222
Search agencies	222
Social media agencies	222
Direct marketing agencies	222

Branded content agencies	222
Experiential marketing agencies	223
Healthcare agencies	223
Outdoor agencies/out-of-home	223
Other communications agencies	223
Selecting an agency	225
Agency operations	227
Relationships	231
Client/agency relationships	231
Agency remuneration	232
Budgeting for communications	234
Trends in communications expenditure	237
The role of the communications budget	238
Benefits of budgeting	238
Difficulties associated with budgeting for communications	239
Budgeting – techniques and approaches	239
Which methods are most used?	243
Budgeting for the other elements of the communications mix	245
Key points	247
Review questions	248
References	248
8 Evaluation and metrics	252
Aims and learning objectives	252
Case: Millward Brown – optimising a dramatic performance	253
Introduction	255
The role of evaluation in planned communications	256
Advertising	257
Pre-testing unfinished ads	257
Pre-testing finished ads	260
Physiological measures	263
Post-testing	264
Inquiry tests	265
Recall tests	265
Recognition tests	266
Sales tests	267
Other methods of evaluation	268
Tracking studies	268
Financial analysis	268
Likeability	269
Marketing mix modelling	269
Public relations	271
Corporate image	274
Recruitment	274
Crisis management	275
Measuring the fulfilment of brand promises	276
Online communications	277
Mobile	279
Social media	279
Key points	282
Review questions	283
References	284

9 Branding and marketing communications	287
Aims and learning objectives	287
Case: Branding at the Colruyt Group	288
Introduction	290
Brand characteristics	292
The task of marketing communications in branding	295
Associations and personalities	295
Brand ambassadors	298
Delivering the brand associations	300
Brand delivery: above -the-line communications	301
Brand delivery: through -the-line communications	302
Brand delivery: below -the-line communications	302
Brand delivery: on -the-line communications	303
Brand delivery: around -the-line communications	303
Building brands with marketing communications	305
Business-to-business branding	306
Branding in an interactive environment	308
Employee branding	311
External communications	311
Internal communications	312
Intellectual and emotional aspects	314
Brand equity	315
Key points	318
Review questions	318
References	319
10 Integrated marketing communications	323
Aims and learning objectives	323
Case: Oreo cookies	324
Introduction	326
The development of IMC	326
Reasons for the developing interest in IMC	328
What is to be integrated?	331
Communications tools	331
Messages	332
Marketing mix	332
Branding	332
Strategy	333
Employees	333
Technology	333
Agencies	334
Definitions of IMC	336
Interpretations of IMC	338
Interpretation 1: IMC as harmonisation	338
Interpretation 2: IMC as a plan	339
Interpretation 3: IMC as a perspective	341
Interpretation 4: IMC as a portfolio	343
Interpretation 5: Relational IMC	346
Structuring for IMC	348

Key points	350
Review questions	350
References	351

Part 3 The marketing communications mix 353

11 Advertising: role, forms and strategy	355
Aims and learning objectives	355
Case: IWM London – ‘Flight of the Stories’	356
Introduction	358
The role of advertising	358
Defining advertising	362
Selling propositions	363
The use of emotion in advertising	364
Types of advertising	367
Advertising models and concepts	370
The elaboration likelihood model	370
Eclectic models of advertising	373
The Strong and the Weak theories of advertising	375
Using advertising strategically	377
The FCB matrix	377
The Rossiter–Percy grid	379
Consumer-generated advertising	381
Key points	383
Review questions	384
References	385
12 Public relations: principles and practice	388
Aims and learning objectives	388
Case: ‘Pestaurant’ – the world’s first pop-up pest-only restaurant	389
Introduction	391
Which publics?	392
Characteristics of public relations	393
A framework of public relations	396
The press agency/publicity model	397
The public information model	397
The two-way asymmetric model	397
The two-way symmetric model	397
Public relations and relationship management	398
Objectives of public relations	399
Cause-related marketing	399
Public relations: methods and techniques	402
Media relations	402
Press releases	403
Press conferences	404
Interviews	404
Publicity and events	404

Media catching	404
Media and public relations	406
Forms of public relations	406
Lobbying	406
Investor relations	407
Corporate advertising	409
Crisis communications	410
Key points	417
Review questions	418
References	418
13 Sponsorship	422
Aims and learning objectives	422
Case: Emirates Lions	423
Introduction	424
The growth and development of sponsorship	428
Sponsorship objectives	429
How sponsorship might work	430
Theoretical aspects of sponsorship	431
Types of sponsorship	433
Sports sponsorship	433
Broadcast sponsorship	435
Arts sponsorship	436
Other forms of sponsorship	438
The role of sponsorship in the communications mix	443
Key points	445
Review questions	446
References	447
14 Direct marketing and personal selling	450
Aims and objectives	450
Case: Everest – growing the number of appointments through marginal gain	451
Introduction	453
The role of direct marketing	454
Types of direct brand	455
Type 1: complementary tool	456
Type 2: primary differentiator	456
Type 3: sales channel	456
Type 4: brand vehicle	456
The growth of direct marketing	456
Growth driver 1: technology	456
Growth driver 2: changing market context	457
Growth driver 3: changing organisational expectations	458
The role of data	458
Permission marketing	459
Direct-response media	460
Direct mail	460
Telemarketing	462
Carelines	464
Inserts	464
Print	465

Door-to-door	466
Radio and television	466
Interactive media	467
Personal Selling	467
The tasks of personal selling	467
The role of personal selling	469
When personal selling should be a major part of the communications mix	471
Complexity	472
Buyer significance	472
Communications effectiveness	472
Channel network factors	473
The role of social media in personal selling	473
Strategic account management	476
Key account management	476
Global account management	480
Key points	481
Review questions	482
References	483
15 Sales promotion, field marketing and brand experience	485
Aims and learning objectives	485
Case: Lucozade Sport Conditions Zone	486
Introduction	488
Understanding the value of sales promotions	488
The role of sales promotion	492
Short termism	492
Managerial accountability	492
Brand performance	492
Brand expansion	493
Competition for shelf space	493
Sales promotion plans: the objectives	494
An overview of how sales promotions work	495
Retention programmes	499
Sales promotions: methods and techniques	503
Field marketing	507
Range of FM activities	507
Brand experience and events	510
Key points	513
Review questions	514
References	514
16 Brand placement, exhibitions, packaging and licensing	517
Aims and learning objectives	517
Case: Beyoncé – how brand licensing influences popular music acts	518
Introduction	521
Brand placement	522
Characteristics of brand placement	523
Placement issues	525
Trade shows and exhibitions	527
Reasons to use exhibitions	528
Characteristics of exhibitions and trade fairs	529

Exhibitions as a form of marketing communications	530
Multimedia and trade shows	531
Marketing management of exhibitions	532
Hospitality and Events	532
Packaging	534
The communications dimensions of packaging	535
Licensing	538
Key points	541
Review questions	542
References	543
17 Messages and creativity	546
Aims and learning objectives	546
Case: John Lewis – ‘Monty’s Christmas’	547
Introduction	549
Message source	550
Establishing credibility	550
Credibility established by the initiator	551
Credibility established by a spokesperson	552
Sleeper effects	554
Structural elements in a message	554
Message balance	554
Conclusion drawing	555
One-and two-sided messages	556
Order of presentation	556
Message appeals	556
Information-based appeals	557
Emotions- and feelings-based appeals	559
Copycat messaging	565
Advertising tactics	565
Informational motives	565
Transformational motives	565
Creativity	570
Creativity and attention	571
The importance of context	572
The creative process	572
The creative code	574
Message framing	574
Storytelling	576
User-generated content (UGC)	579
Sourcing content	580
Key points	581
Review questions	582
References	583
18 Media – principles and practice	587
Aims and learning objectives	587
Case: Foster’s – ‘Good Call’	588
Introduction	590
Media classification – by form	591

Media classification – by source	591
Media classification – by function	593
Linear media	594
Print media	594
Broadcast media	597
Outdoor media	598
In-store media	601
Cinema	602
Ambient media	602
Guerrilla tactics	603
Interactive media	603
So, what are interactive media?	603
Core technologies	604
Characteristics of interactive media	604
Multichannel campaigns	611
Retailing in a multichannel environment	612
What interactive media enable users to do	614
Direct-response media	615
Key differences between linear and interactive media	615
Key points	617
Review questions	617
References	618
19 Social, search and other interactive media	621
Aims and learning objectives	621
Case: Greater Manchester Police	622
Introduction	624
Interactive media advertising	625
Banner ads	626
Behavioural targeting	627
Native advertising	628
Pop-ups	628
Microsites	629
Rich-media ads	629
Online video	629
Online gaming	629
Search engine marketing	631
Search engine optimisation	631
Pay-per-click searches	634
Social media	634
Social networks	639
Web logs	640
Microblogging	642
Viral marketing	644
Podcasting	646
Online communities	646
Other forms of interactive media	649
Email marketing	649
Short message service (SMS)	650
Apps	651
Affiliate marketing	651
Augmented reality	652

Key points	653
Review questions	654
References	654
20 Media planning: reaching audiences	658
Aims and learning objectives	658
Case: Kärcher: Window Vac	659
Introduction	661
Clutter	662
Media planning and the media mix	662
Media switching behaviour	666
Influential factors for media selection	668
Switching behaviour	668
Vehicle selection	669
Media planning concepts	670
Reach and coverage	670
Frequency	671
Gross rating point	671
Effective frequency	673
Recency planning	675
Media usage and attitudes	676
Efficiency	677
Media buying: the block plan and automation	679
The block plan	679
Automation – programmatic	680
The cross-media mix	682
Media source effects	684
Scheduling	684
Timing of placements	684
Key points	685
Review questions	687
References	688
Author index	691
Subject index	703

Companion Website

For open-access student resources specifically written to complement this textbook and support your learning, please visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/fill

ON THE WEBSITE

Lecturer Resources

For password-protected online resources tailored to support the use of this textbook in teaching, please visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/fill