

Human Communication

The Basic Course
Fourteenth Edition

Joseph A. DeVito

Hunter College of the City University of New York

Brief Contents ◦

Part One Foundations of Human Communication

1	Fundamentals of Human Communication	1
2	Culture and Communication	25
3	Perception of Self and Others	48
4	Listening in Human Communication	78
5	Verbal Messages	98
6	Nonverbal Messages	118

Part Two Interpersonal, Small Group, and Organizational Communication

7	Interpersonal Communication and Conversation	145
8	Interpersonal Relationship Stages and Theories	168
9	Friends, Lovers, and Families	190
10	Small Group Communication	208
11	Members and Leaders	227
12	Human Communication in the Workplace: Organizational Communication	243
13	Interpersonal, Group, and Workplace Conflict	263

Part Three Public Speaking

14	Public Speaking Topics, Audiences, and Research	282
15	Supporting and Organizing Your Speech	309
16	Style and Delivery in Public Speaking	342
17	The Informative Speech	364
18	The Persuasive Speech	379

Appendix of Speeches: Public Speaking Sample Assistants	403
Glossary	422
References	436
Index	456
Credits	475

Contents

Welcome to Human Communication: The Basic Course	xiv
Part One Foundations of Human Communication	1
1 Fundamentals of Human Communication	1
The Nature of Human Communication	2
The Forms of Human Communication	2
The Benefits of Studying Human Communication	4
The Myths of Human Communication	6
Elements of Human Communication	7
Communication Contexts	7
Source–Receiver	8
Messages	8
Channels	9
Noise	9
Effects	10
Principles of Human Communication	10
Communication is Purposeful	10
Communication is Transactional	11
Communication is a Package of Signals	13
Communication is a Process of Adjustment	13
Communication Involves Content and Relationship Dimensions	13
Communication is Ambiguous	14
Communication is Punctuated	16
Communication is Inevitable, Irreversible, and Unrepeatable	16
The Competent Communicator	17
The Competent Communicator Makes Reasoned Choices	18
The Competent Communicator Thinks Critically and Mindfully	18
The Competent Communicator is an Effective Code Switcher	18
The Competent Communicator is Culturally Sensitive	19
The Competent Communicator is Ethical	20
The Competent Communicator is an Effective Listener	20
The Competent Communicator is Media Literate	20
Summary 22 • Key Terms 23 • Exercises and Questions 23
2 Culture and Communication	25
The Nature of Culture	26
Sex and Gender	27
The Transmission of Culture	27
The Importance of Culture in Communication	27
The Aim of a Cultural Perspective	29
Cultural Differences	31
Individual and Collective Orientation	32
High- and Low-Context Cultures	32
High- and Low-Power-Distance Cultures	33
Masculine and Feminine Cultures	33
High- and Low-Ambiguity-Tolerant Cultures	34
Long- and Short-Term Orientation	35
Indulgence and Restraint	36
Intercultural Communication	36
The Nature and Forms of Intercultural Communication	37
Improving Intercultural Communication	39
Summary 45 • Key Terms 46 • Exercises and Questions 46
3 Perception of Self and Others	48
Self-Concept, Self-Awareness, and Self-Esteem	49
Self-Concept	49
Self-Awareness	50
Self-Esteem	52
Self-Disclosure	55
Factors Influencing Self-Disclosure	56
The Rewards and Dangers of Self-Disclosure	58
Guidelines for Self-Disclosure	59
Perception	60
Stage 1: Stimulation	61
Stage 2: Organization	61
Stage 3: Interpretation–Evaluation	62
Stage 4: Memory	63
Stage 5: Recall	63
Forming Impressions	64
Impression Formation Processes	64
Increasing Accuracy in Impression Formation	68
Managing Impressions	69
To Be Liked: Affinity-Seeking and Politeness Strategies	70
To Be Believed: Credibility Strategies	71
To Excuse Failure: Self-Handicapping Strategies	71

To Secure Help: Self-Deprecating Strategies	72	6 Nonverbal Messages	118
To Hide Faults: Self-Monitoring Strategies	73	The Principles of Nonverbal Communication	119
To Be Followed: Influencing Strategies	73	Nonverbal Messages Interact with Verbal Messages	120
To Confirm Self-Image: Image-Confirming Strategies	73	Nonverbal Messages Help Manage Impressions	120
Summary 74 • Key Terms 75 • Exercises and Questions 75		Nonverbal Messages Help Form Relationships	121
4 Listening in Human Communication	78	Nonverbal Messages Help Structure Conversation	122
The Importance and Process of Listening	79	Nonverbal Messages Can Influence and Deceive	122
The Importance of Listening	79	Nonverbal Messages Are Crucial for Emotional Expression	123
The Process of Listening	80	Ten Channels of Nonverbal Communication	123
Listening Barriers	85	Body Communication	123
Physical and Mental Distractions	85	Facial Communication	124
Biases and Prejudices	85	Eye Communication	126
Lack of Appropriate Focus	85	Space Communication	127
Premature Judgement	85	Artifactual Communication	129
Hearing Impairment	87	Touch Communication	131
Styles of Effective Listening	87	Paralanguage	132
Empathic Listening	88	Silence	132
Polite Listening	88	Time Communication	133
Critical Listening	90	Smell Communication	135
Active Listening	90	Culture and Nonverbal Communication	136
Listening, Culture, and Gender	92	Gesture and Culture	136
Culture and Listening	92	Facial Expression and Culture	136
Gender and Listening	93	Eye Communication and Culture	137
Summary 95 • Key Terms 95 • Exercises and Questions 96		Colors and Culture	137
5 Verbal Messages	98	Touch and Culture	138
Principles of Verbal Messages	99	Paralanguage, Silence, and Culture	138
Meanings Are in People	99	Time and Culture	139
Meanings Are Both Denotative and Connotative	99	Nonverbal Communication Competence	139
Meanings Depend on Context	100	Encoding Skills	139
Messages Vary in Politeness	101	Decoding Skills	140
Messages Can Be Onymous or Anonymous	102	Summary 142 • Key Terms 143 • Exercises and Questions 143
Messages Vary in Assertiveness	102	Part Two Interpersonal, Small Group, and Organizational Communication	145
Messages Can Decieve	103	7 Interpersonal Communication and Conversation	145
Disconfirmation and Confirmation	106	The Nature of Interpersonal Communication and Conversation	146
Racism	106	Definition of Interpersonal Communication	146
Heterosexism	107	The Interpersonal Continuum	146
Ageism	108	The Stages of Conversation	147
Sexism	109	Principles of Conversation and Interpersonal Communication	148
Cultural Identifiers	109	The Principle of Turn-Taking	148
Using Verbal Messages Effectively	111	The Principle of Dialogue	149
Intensional Orientation	111	The Principle of Immediacy	150
Allness	112	The Principle of Flexibility	151
Fact–Inference Confusion	112
Static Evaluation	113
Indiscrimination	113
Polarization	114
Summary 115 • Key Terms 115 • Exercises and Questions 116

The Principle of Politeness: Conversation is (Usually) Polite	151	Virtual Groups and Teams	210
Everyday Conversations	153	Advantages and Disadvantages of Groups	210
Making Small Talk	153	Small Group Apprehension	212
Introducing People	155	Small Group Stages, Formats, Culture, and Power	212
Making Excuses	157	Small Group Stages	212
Apologizing	158	Small Group Formats	213
Giving and Receiving Compliments	160	Small Group Culture	214
Giving and Receiving Advice	162	Small Group Power	216
Summary 165 • Key Terms 165 • Exercises and Questions 166		Brainstorming and Focus Groups	218
8 Interpersonal Relationship Stages and Theories	168	Brainstorming Groups	218
Interpersonal Relationships	169	Focus Groups	219
Advantages and Disadvantages of Interpersonal Relationships	169	Problem-Solving Groups	219
Relationship Stages	171	The Problem-Solving Sequence	220
Contact	171	Problem-Solving Groups at Work	223
Relationship Theories	176	Summary 225 • Key Terms 226 • Exercises and Questions 226
Attraction Theory	176	11 Members and Leaders	227
Relationship Rules Theory	178	Membership in Small Group Communication	228
Relationship Dialectics Theory	180	Member Roles	228
Social Exchange Theory	181	Interaction Process Analysis	230
Equity Theory	182	Member Functions and Skills	230
The Dark Side of Interpersonal Relationships	184	Leadership in Small Group Communication	232
Jealousy	184	Myths About Leadership	233
Relationship Violence	185	Approaches to Leadership	233
Summary 187 • Key Terms 188 • Exercises and Questions 188		Functions and Skills of Leadership	236
9 Friends, Lovers, and Families	190	Membership, Leadership, and Culture	238
Friendships	191	Individualism and Collectivism	238
Friendship Types	191	Member Roles	239
Friends with Benefits	191	Belief Systems	239
Friendship and Communication	192	Leadership Style	239
Friendships, Culture, Gender, and Technology	194	Summary 241 • Key Terms 241 • Exercises and Questions 242
Romantic Relationships	195	12 Human Communication in the Workplace: Organizational Communication	243
Love Types	195	Organizations	244
Love and Communication	197	The Importance of Organizational Communication	244
Love, Culture, Gender, and Technology	197	The Nature of an Organization	244
Families	199	Characteristics of Organizations	245
Couple and Family Types	200	Organizational Messages	249
Family Characteristics	202	Formal Communication	249
Families and Communication	203	Informal Organizational Communication: The Grapevine	251
Families, Culture, Gender, and Technology	203	Communication Channels in Organizations	252
Summary 205 • Key Terms 206 • Exercises and Questions 206		Communication Networks	252
10 Small Group Communication	208	Information Overload	253
Preliminaries to Small Group Communication	209	Information Isolation	253
The Small Group	209	Organizational Message Competence	254
The Team	209	Organizational Relationships	254
		Mentoring	254

Networking 255
 Romance in the Workplace 256
 Bullying 256
 Sexual Harassment 257
 Organizational Relationship Competence 258
 Summary 260 • Key Terms 261 • Exercises and Questions 261

13 Interpersonal, Group, and Workplace Conflict 263

Interpersonal, Group, and Workplace Conflict 264
 The Nature of Interpersonal Conflict 264
 Online and Workplace Conflicts 265
 Myths About Conflict 266
 Principles of Conflict 266
 Conflict Can Center on Content and Relationship Issues 266
 Conflict Can be Negative or Positive 268
 Conflict Takes Place in a Context 269
 Conflict Styles have Consequences 269
 Preliminaries to Conflict Management 271
 Before the Conflict 272
 After the Conflict 272
 Influences on Your Choice of Conflict Strategies 272
 The Stages of Conflict Management 273
 Ten Conflict Management Strategies 274
 Win-Lose and Win-Win Strategies 275
 Avoidance and Active Fighting 275
 Force and Talk 275
 Blame and Empathy 276
 Gunnysacking and Present Focus 276
 Manipulation and Spontaneity 276
 Personal Rejection and Acceptance 277
 Fighting Below and Above the Belt 277
 Face-Detracting and Face-Enhancing Strategies 278
 Aggressiveness and Argumentativeness 278
 Summary 280 • Key Terms 280 • Exercises and Questions 281

Part Three Public Speaking 282

14 Public Speaking Topics, Audiences, and Research 282

Introducing Public Speaking 283
 The Benefits of Public Speaking 284
 Managing Your Apprehension 285
 Step 1: Select Your Topic, Purposes, and Thesis 289
 Your Topic 289
 Finding Topics 289
 Limiting Topics 290
 Your Purposes 291
 Your Thesis 292

Step 2: Analyze Your Audience 295
 Analyzing the Sociology of the Audience 295
 Analyzing the Psychology of the Audience 296
 Analyzing and Adapting During the Speech 298
 Step 3: Research Your Topic 298
 Sources of Information 299
 Integrating and Citing Research 303
 Summary 307 • Key Terms 307 • Exercises and Questions 308

15 Supporting and Organizing your Speech 309

Step 4: Collect Supporting Materials 310
 Examples, Illustrations, and Narratives 310
 Analogies 311
 Definitions 311
 Testimony 312
 Numerical Data 313
 Presentation Aids 314
 Step 5: Develop Your Main Points 322
 Step 6: Organize Your Speech Materials 323
 Time Pattern 324
 Spatial Pattern 324
 Topical Pattern 324
 Problem-Solution Pattern 324
 Cause-Effect / Effect-Cause Pattern 325
 Structure-Function Pattern 325
 Comparison and Contrast Pattern 325
 Pro and Con Pattern 326
 Claim-and-Proof Pattern 326
 Multiple-Definition Pattern 326
 Who? What? Why? Where? When? Pattern 326
 Fiction-Fact Pattern 326
 Step 7: Construct Your Introduction, Conclusion, and Transitions 327
 Introduction 327
 Conclusion 329
 Transitions 332
 Pitfalls in Introductions, Conclusions, and Transitions 332
 Outlining Your Speech 333
 Constructing the Outline 333
 Sample Outlines 334
 Summary 340 • Key Terms 340 • Exercises and Questions 341

16 Style and Delivery in Public Speaking 342

Step 8: Style Your Speech 343
 Choosing Words 343
 Phrasing Sentences 348
 Step 9: Rehearse Your Speech 348
 Rehearse Your Speech as a Whole 349

Time Your Speech	349	The Speech of Presentation or Acceptance	375
Approximate Your Actual Speech Situation	349	The Toast	376
See Yourself as a Speaker	349	Summary 377 • Key Terms 377 • Exercises and Questions 377
Incorporate Changes and Make Delivery Notes	349
Rehearse Often	350	18 The Persuasive Speech	379
Undertake a Long-Term Delivery Improvement Program	350	Principles for Effective Persuasive Speaking	380
Step 10: Present Your Speech	350	Know Your Specific Goals	380
Methods of Presentation	351	Focus on Your Audience	380
Strategies of Presentation	352	Identify with Your Audience	381
Voice	353	Secure a Yes Response	381
Body Action	354	Anticipate Selective Exposure	381
Handling Audience Questions	355	Use Positive Labeling	381
Speech Criticism	357	Ask for Reasonable Amounts of Change	381
The Nature of Criticism	357	Provide Social Proof	382
Culture and Criticism	357	Follow a Motivated Sequence	382
Guidelines for Criticizing More Effectively	359	The Three Persuasive Proofs	386
Summary 361 • Key Terms 362 • Exercises and Questions 362		Logical Proof ( Logos )	386
		Emotional Proof ( Pathos )	388
		Credibility Proof ( Ethos )	390
17 The Informative Speech	364	Persuasive Speeches on Questions of Fact	394
Principles for Effective Informative Speaking	365	Thesis and Main Points	394
Focus on Your Audience	365	Support	394
Stress Relevance and Usefulness	365	Organization	395
Limit the Information	365	Persuasive Speeches on Questions of Value	395
Adjust the Level of Complexity	365	Thesis and Main Points	396
Relate New Information to Old	366	Support	397
Vary the Levels of Abstraction	367	Organization	397
Make Your Speech Easy to Remember	367	Persuasive Speeches on Questions of Policy	397
Speeches of Description	369	Thesis and Main Points	397
Thesis and Main Points	369	Support	398
Support	369	Organization	398
Organization	369	Special Occasion Speeches (Mainly Persuasive)	398
Speeches of Definition	371	The Speech to Secure Goodwill	398
Thesis and Main Points	371	The Commencement Speech	399
Support	372	The Speech of Inspiration	399
Organization	372	Summary 401 • Key Terms 402 • Exercises and Questions 402
Speeches of Demonstration	373	Appendix of Speeches: Public Speaking Sample
Thesis and Main Points	373	Assistants	403
Support	373	Glossary	422
Organization	374	References	436
Special Occasion Speeches (Mainly Informative)	375	Index	456
The Speech of Introduction	375	Credits	475
The Eulogy	375		