

CONTENTS IN BRIEF

List of Figures and Tables	xv
Preface	xviii
About the Authors	xx
Guide to the Case Studies	xxiii
Publisher's Acknowledgments	xxx
Frameworks for this Book: Our Approach to the Study of International Business	xxxii
Part One THE WORLD OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
Chapter 1 An Introduction to International Business	3
Chapter 2 General Frameworks in International Business	40
Chapter 3 Multinational Enterprises, Innovation, and Competitiveness	90
Part Two THE ENVIRONMENT OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS
Chapter 4 International Politics	123
Chapter 5 International Culture	152
Chapter 6 International Trade	183
Chapter 7 International Financial Markets and Institutions	218
Part Three INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STRATEGIES
Chapter 8 Multinational Strategy	255
Chapter 9 Organizing Strategy	290
Chapter 10 Corporate Strategy and National Competitiveness	318
Chapter 11 Multinational Enterprises as Responsible Stakeholders	349
Part Four FUNCTIONAL AREA STRATEGIES
Chapter 12 Production Strategy	381
Chapter 13 Marketing Strategy	416
Chapter 14 Human Resource Management Strategy	447
Chapter 15 Political Risk and Negotiation Strategy	477
Chapter 16 International Financial Management	511
Part Five REGIONAL STRATEGIES
Chapter 17 European Union	549
Chapter 18 Japan	582
Chapter 19 North America	619
Chapter 20 Emerging Economies	648
Chapter 21 China	682
Glossary	713
Index	723

CONTENTS IN DETAIL

List of Figures and Tables	xv
Preface	xviii
About the Authors	xx
Guide to the Case Studies	xxiii
Publisher's Acknowledgments	xxx
Frameworks for this Book: Our Approach to the Study of International Business	xxxii

Part One

THE WORLD OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Chapter 1 An Introduction to International Business 3

Objectives of the chapter	3
Introduction	5
What is international business?	5
Globalization	6
The outcomes of globalization	6
Understanding interdependence in globalization	8
Regional integration	9
Mapping globalization	10
Technology and innovation	11
New technologies	12
The knowledge-intensive, multi-technology firm	13
Socio-political developments	13
What are institutions?	14
Institutions and supranational agreements	15
Globalization and liberalization	16
Multinational enterprises	17
Proto-globalization and the MNE in historical context	19
The industrial revolutions and the growth of private firms	20
Foreign direct investment	21
Measuring FDI and MNE activity	22
MNEs before World War II	22
The rise of the modern MNE	23
International business in the modern era	25
1950–90: the rise of the triad	25
1990–2014: the rise of new players and forms of activity	26

Modularization, outsourcing, and value chains	29
The continuing importance of the state-owned enterprise	29
Emerging economy MNEs—significant but exaggerated	30
Dominance of the triad continues	31
Small and medium-sized enterprises	32
The fragmented firm: global value chains and production networks	33
Key points	35
Key terms	36
Notes	36
Bibliography	37
Appendix: The largest importers and exporters	38

Chapter 2 General Frameworks in International Business 40

Objectives of the chapter	40
■ Active Learning Case Starbucks: a global “coffee culture”	42
Introduction	43
Firm-specific assets/ownership advantages	43
A classification of O advantages	44
Location advantages/country-specific assets	46
A classification of L advantages	47
■ International Business Strategy in Action US manufacturing: from China to Mexico	49
Internalization advantages	50
The eclectic paradigm: putting it all together	51
Strategic management of MNEs: an introduction	52
Steps in the strategic management process	52
A framework for global strategies: the FSA–CSA matrix	53
The FSA–CSA matrix	54
Why firms become MNEs	56
How do firms engage in international activities?	59
Entry modes	62
Non-equity entry modes	62
Equity entry modes	63
Collaborative agreements/strategic alliances	66
International new ventures and “born global” firms	68

The international activities of SMEs	69
The practical challenges for internationalizing SMEs	70
■ International Business Strategy in Action	71
Worrying times for Singapore's SMEs	71
How do SME managers know which markets to enter?	72
Modes of entry and adaptation for success in foreign markets	74
Key points	75
Key term	76
■ Real Cases	76
Toys "Я" Us	76
Tesco at home and abroad	78
Notes	79
Bibliography	81
Appendix: The largest global MNEs	82
Chapter 3
Multinational Enterprises, Innovation, and Competitiveness	90
Objectives of the chapter	90
■ Active Learning Case	91
GE Healthcare in India: locally driven innovation	91
Introduction	92
Trends in innovation at the firm and country level	93
The resource-based view (RBV) and the VRIO framework	97
Resources and capabilities	97
The VRIO framework	98
Dynamic capabilities	101
Quick learning/incremental learning	101
Integration of new assets/radical learning	102
Modification and transformation of new assets	102
Dynamic capabilities and small firms	102
■ International Business Strategy in Action	103
Spreadshirt: open innovation	103
Connecting FSAs to CSAs	104
Systems of innovation	105
International dimensions of innovation	107
The location of innovation activities in the MNE	109
■ International Business Strategy in Action	112
Innovation networks at IBM	112
The innovative MNE as a differentiated network	114
Key points	115
Key terms	115
■ Real Cases	115
Canon Group	115
R&D at Hewlett-Packard	117
Notes	118
Bibliography	119

Part Two

THE ENVIRONMENT OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Chapter 4
International Politics	123
Objectives of the chapter	123
■ Active Learning Case	124
How risky is foreign investment in Russia?	124
Introduction	125
Political ideologies and economics	126
Political systems	126
Economic systems	127
Government control of assets	128
Privatization in action	128
■ International Business Strategy in Action	129
Greece: third (bailout) time lucky	129
Government-business cooperation	130
Japan and EU assistance	130
US competitiveness	131
Economic integration	132
Trade creation and trade diversion	132
Levels of economic integration	133
Economic integration: an overall perspective	134
Ethics, environment, MNEs, and the civil society	135
■ International Business Strategy in Action	136
Non-governmental organizations and political power	136
The European Union (EU)	138
Other examples of economic integration	141
Economic integration and strategic management	142
Strategic alliances and acquisitions	142
Localization of business operations	143
Key points	145
Key terms	146
Review and discussion questions	146
■ Real Cases	147
How environmental regulations can be used as trade barriers	147
Embraer versus Bombardier	148
Notes	150
Bibliography	150
Chapter 5
International Culture	152
Objectives of the chapter	152
■ Active Learning Case	153
Cultures clash as big pharma gets bigger	153
Introduction	154

What is culture?	155	■ International Business Strategy in Action
The importance of culture in different business contexts	156	Microsoft shows the world is not flat	192
Culture has always been important	158	Barriers to trade	194
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Reasons for trade barriers	194
McDonald's	158	Commonly used barriers	194
National stereotypes and key dimensions of culture	159	Tariffs	196
Culture at two levels	159	■ International Business Strategy in Action
Hofstede's four dimensions of culture	160	Boeing versus Airbus	197
Trompenaars' seven dimensions of culture	161	US trade policy	199
The GLOBE project's nine dimensions of culture	163	Non-tariff barriers to trade	200
Applying the national culture frameworks	164	Quotas	200
"The way we do things here": the implications of cultural differences for organizations and managers	165	"Buy national" restrictions	201
Cross-cultural management	168	Customs valuation	201
Organization	168	Technical barriers	201
Leadership	168	Anti-dumping legislation, subsidies, and countervailing duties	201
Communication	169	Agricultural products	202
The corporate response	169	Export restraints	202
Multinational organization structures: imperialist or independent?	171	Other economic developments	202
Culture clash in cross-border M&A and joint ventures	172	Countertrade	203
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Trade in services	203
The collective culture of the John Lewis Partnership	173	Free trade zones	204
Culture embodied in national institutions	174	Key points	205
France: cultural and social characteristics that create a national distinctiveness	175	Key terms	206
Key points	176	Review and discussion questions	206
Key terms	177	■ Real Cases
Review and discussion questions	177	Job losses and offshoring to China	207
■ Real Cases		Dumping on trade complaints	208
Do not throw your meishi!	178	Notes	209
Sport can be local and global: Manchester United	179	Bibliography	210
Notes	180	Appendix: Balance of payments	211
Bibliography	181
Chapter 6		Chapter 7
International Trade	183	International Financial Markets and Institutions	218
Objectives of the chapter	183	Objectives of the chapter	218
■ Active Learning Case		■ Active Learning Case
Trade of the triad and China	184	Barclays Bank international financial dealings	219
Introduction	185	Introduction	220
International trade theory	186	Foreign exchange markets	221
Theory of absolute advantage	186	Foreign exchange markets in the United States	222
Theory of comparative advantage	187	Determination of the exchange rate	227
Factor endowment theory	189	Purchasing power parity	227
International product life cycle theory	189	International Fisher effect	228
Other important considerations	191	Combined equilibrium relationships	229
		Other factors determining exchange rates	230
		Protecting against exchange risk	230
		Alternatives to minimize exchange risk	231
		■ International Business Strategy in Action
		China 2015: the start of the next global economic meltdown?	231
		Foreign money and capital markets	235

MNEs and national money markets	236
MNEs and national capital markets	236
Regional money and capital markets	237
The eurocurrency market	237
Eurocurrency interest rates	238
Other market characteristics	239
Criticisms of the euromarkets	239
Eurobonds and euroequities	240
■ International Business Strategy in Action
AngloGold Ashanti	241
The IMF system	242
Unresolved problems with the IMF system	245
MNEs and international financial markets and institutions	246
Key points	246
Key terms	246
Review and discussion questions	247
■ Real Cases
HSBC	248
Rigging LIBOR	249
Notes	250
Bibliography	251

Part Three

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS STRATEGIES

Chapter 8
Multinational Strategy	255
Objectives of the chapter	255
■ Active Learning Case
Vodafone and the triad telecom market	256
Introduction	258
Strategic orientations	259
■ International Business Strategy in Action
The Big Four	261
Strategy formulation	262
External environmental assessment	262
Internal environmental assessment	266
Goal setting	270
Strategy implementation	270
Location	271
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Fuji Xerox and Xerox	271
Ownership	272
Functional strategies	274
Control and evaluation	274
Common methods of measurement	275
Key points	277

Key terms	277
Review and discussion questions	277
■ Real Cases
Mountain Equipment Co-op: a small business	278
Benetton	279
Notes	280
Bibliography	282
Appendix: Regional aspects of multinationality and performance	283

Chapter 9 Organizing Strategy 290

Objectives of the chapter	290
■ Active Learning Case
Procter & Gamble	291
Introduction	292
Organization structures	293
Early organization structures	293
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Sanofi-Aventis	295
The international division	296
Global organization structures	297
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Making the matrix work	302
Strategic management and organizing strategy	305
Analysis of key structural variables	305
Coordination	306
Key points	311
Key terms	311
Review and discussion questions	311
■ Real Cases
LVMH: organizing luxury products in the international arena	312
Command Alkon: small but increasingly global	313
Notes	314
Bibliography	315

Chapter 10 Corporate Strategy and National Competitiveness 318

Objectives of the chapter	318
■ Active Learning Case
Worldwide operations and local strategies of ABB	319
Introduction	320
The single diamond	320
Determinants and external variables	321
Critique and evaluation of the model	322
The double diamond	324
Canada and the double diamond	324

■ International Business Strategy in Action
Nokia and Ericsson: moving beyond mobiles	328
Mexico and the double diamond	329
Integration and responsiveness	332
Integration versus national responsiveness	333
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Renewed advantage through vertical integration at Floreal Knitwear	334
Balancing the trade-offs	335
Competitiveness in the triad	338
Key points	341
Key terms	341
Review and discussion questions	342
■ Real Cases
There is no global beer, only local	342
IBM	344
Notes	345
Bibliography	347
Chapter 11
Multinational Enterprises as Responsible Stakeholders	349
Objectives of the chapter	349
■ Active Learning Case
The environment, NGOs, and MNEs	350
Introduction	351
Developing effective strategies	352
Going where the action is	352
■ International Business Strategy in Action
3M	354
International business research frameworks	355
Theories of international business	355
Practical applications of the theory	356
The five partners business network framework	356
Forging new business networks	356
Coping with changing environments	358
Political environment	358
Economic environment	360
The trade and investment framework	362
Environment and MNEs	365
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Is The Body Shop an ethical business?	365
The pattern of MNE responses	368
Key points	370
Key terms	370
Review and discussion questions	371
■ Real Cases
Dell: B2C	371
Maersk Group	372
Notes	375
Bibliography	375

Part Four

FUNCTIONAL AREA STRATEGIES

Chapter 12
Production Strategy	381
Objectives of the chapter	381
■ Active Learning Case
GE production: from Six Sigma to the GE Store	382
Introduction	383
Research, development, and innovation	384
Speed-to-market	386
Generation of goods and services	388
Global sourcing	388
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Gap Inc.: a successful "hollow corporation"	389
Manufacturing of goods	391
■ International Business Strategy in Action
End of an era: the Goodyear plant closure	391
Developing a strong service orientation	396
International logistics	398
Transportation	398
Packaging	400
Storage	401
Different kinds of global production systems	401
Strategic management and production strategy	402
Technology and production design	402
Continuous improvement	403
Alliances and acquisitions	403
Key points	409
Key terms	410
Review and discussion questions	410
■ Real Cases
Flextronics	411
Nike	413
Notes	414
Bibliography	414
Chapter 13
Marketing Strategy	416
Objectives of the chapter	416
■ Active Learning Case
Adidas: promoting a global sports brand	417
Introduction	419
International market assessment	420
Initial screening: basic need and potential	420
Second screening: financial and economic conditions	420
Third screening: political and legal forces	421

Fourth screening: socio-cultural forces	421	Common elements in an international compensation package	457
Fifth screening: competitive environment	422	Compensation trends and comparisons	459
Final selection	422	Labor relations	460
Product strategies	423	Labor relations practices	462
Little or no modification	423	■ International Business Strategy in Action
Moderate to high modification	423	Primark: putting global stakeholders first	463
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Industrial democracy	465
Weeby buys Tappy	426	Industrial democracy in action	465
Promotion	427	Strategic management and IHRM strategies	466
Nature of the product	427	Language training	466
Advertising	428	Cultural adaptation	468
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Competitive compensation	468
IKEA in international markets	428	Specially designed HRM programs	469
Personal selling	430	Key points	470
Pricing	431	Key terms	471
Government controls	431	Review and discussion questions	471
Market diversity	431	■ Real Cases
Currency fluctuations	432	Offshoring to India	472
Price escalation forces	432	Executive search firms	473
Place	433	Notes	474
Different distribution systems	433	Bibliography	475
Choosing the best distribution system	434	Chapter 15
Strategic management and marketing strategy	434	Political Risk and Negotiation Strategy	477
Ongoing market assessment	434	Objectives of the chapter	477
Internet marketing and “open innovation”	438	■ Active Learning Case
Key points	439	Nestlé in Nigeria	478
Key terms	440	Introduction	479
Review and discussion questions	440	Generic PEST analysis	479
■ Real Cases		Political risk	481
Bang & Olufsen	441	Deregulation and political risk	482
Mirum—never lose your sense of wonder!	443	The nature of political risk	483
Notes	444	Sources of political risk	484
Bibliography	444	Country analysis and political risk assessment	485
Chapter 14		Online risk information resources	485
Human Resource Management Strategy	447	Quantifying risk vulnerability	486
Objectives of the chapter	447	Accounting for country risk	489
■ Active Learning Case		Negotiation strategies	490
The Coca-Cola Company thinks local	448	Behavioral characteristics of the participants in negotiations	492
Introduction	449	■ International Business Strategy in Action
Selection and repatriation	450	Political risk for De Beers	493
International screening criteria and selection procedures	450	■ International Business Strategy in Action
Repatriation of expats	452	Intel effect	494
Training and development	454	Transparency and corruption: politically sensitive political risk	497
Types of training	454	Strategic management and political risk	500
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Use of integrative and protective/defensive techniques	500
The glass ceiling	455
Compensation	457

Key points	503
Key terms	504
Review and discussion questions	504
■ Real Cases
Yukos and the Russian oligarchs	505
Problems with ports	506
Notes	508
Bibliography	509
www resources	510

Chapter 16 International Financial Management 511

Objectives of the chapter	511
■ Active Learning Case
Financial transparency at Siemens	512
Introduction	513
Determining parent–subsidiary relationships	515
Polycentric solution	515
Ethnocentric solution	515
Geocentric solution	515
Managing global cash flows	516
Internal funds flows	516
Funds positioning techniques	517
Multilateral netting	520
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Worldwide tax havens	522
Managing cash	524
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Sovereign wealth funds	525
Exchange risk management	527
Transaction risk	527
Translation risk	527
Economic risk	528
An example of exchange risk management	529
Developing forecasting and reporting systems	531
Capital budgeting in the MNE	532
Use of NPV	534
Institutional features	535
International financing in the MNE	536
Financial structure	537
Control: identifying objectives, evaluating affiliate performance, and making performance consistent with goals	538
Strategic international finance	539
Establishing overseas operations	539
Reducing financial risk	540
Key points	540
Key terms	541
Review and discussion questions	541

■ Real Cases
Skandia	542
Ford and Volvo	543
Notes	545
Bibliography	545

Part Five REGIONAL STRATEGIES

Chapter 17 European Union 549

Objectives of the chapter	549
■ Active Learning Case
The future is Orange	550
The EU environment	551
Emergence of a Single European Market	553
The competitive status of the EU	556
Conducting a strategic analysis	559
Using competitive intelligence	559
■ International Business Strategy in Action
VW scandal	560
Evaluating locations	562
Strategy issues	562
Overall strategic analysis for the EU	564
Exporting	565
Strategic acquisitions and alliances	567
Marketing considerations	568
■ International Business Strategy in Action
Deutsche Bahn: more than a railroad	568
Manufacturing considerations	570
Management considerations	572
Barriers to EU market access	573
Key points	574
Key terms	575
Review and discussion questions	575
■ Real Cases
Accor budget hotels	576
Carrefour	578
Notes	579
Bibliography	580

Chapter 18 Japan 582

Objectives of the chapter	582
■ Active Learning Case
Doing business in Japan	583
Introduction	585
Political, social, and cultural characteristics	585

A traditionally strong government role in the economy	585	Business opportunities in Canada	632
Distinctive cultural characteristics	586	Franchising	634
Economic characteristics	587	Mexico	634
Japan and China: the new Asian powerhouse?	592	Mexico's economy	634
Business characteristics	593	Mexico and NAFTA	635
Manufacturing strengths	593	Regional trade agreements	636
Strong applied R&D	593	Doing business in Mexico	636
Keiretsu	594	■ International Business Strategy in Action
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Mexico and NAFTA	637
Kirin Beer goes international	597	Key points	641
Distribution, retailing, and customer orientation	598	Key terms	642
Japanese corporations	598	Review and discussion questions	642
A changing nation	601	■ Real Cases
Restructuring capital markets	601	Jumex of Mexico	643
Deregulation, increased M&A, and inward FDI	602	GlaxoSmithKline in the United States	644
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Notes	645
Wal-Mart takes Seiyu	604	Bibliography	646
Restructuring corporations	605	Chapter 20
The decline of manufacturing and distribution		Emerging Economies	648
keiretsu	606	Objectives of the chapter	648
The growth of outward FDI and offshore manufacturing	606	■ Active Learning Case
The decline of lifetime employment and changing HRM practices	607	Acer Taiwan goes international	649
Diversification strategies	607	Introduction	650
Conclusions	608	Triad firms and emerging economy firms: why the mutual interest?	651
Key points	609	An overview of emerging economies, by region	652
Key terms	610	Asia–Pacific and the Middle East	655
Review and discussion questions	610	Central and eastern Europe	659
■ Real Cases		Latin America and the Caribbean	659
Renault and Nissan: no pain, no gain	610	Africa	660
Sony: diversifying into the automobile industry?	613	■ International Business Strategy in Action
Notes	615	From Oserian to Tesco: the Kenyan cut flower industry	661
Bibliography	616	Shifting patterns of comparative and competitive advantage	663
www resources	618	Flying Geese model	664
Chapter 19		Emerging economies as sources of innovation	667
North America	619	Market access to the triad	669
Objectives of the chapter	619	■ International Business Strategy in Action
■ Active Learning Case		Korean chaebols: Hyundai and Samsung	669
NAFTA	620	Key points	672
Introduction	622	Key terms	673
Canada	622	Review and discussion questions	673
Canada's economy	623	■ Real Cases
Differences in the business environment	624	The Indian IT, software, and services industry	673
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Bumrungrad International in Thailand	676
Bombardier	625	Notes	678
Canada's multinationals	630	Bibliography	679
Multilateral agreement on investment (MAI)	631	www resources	681

Chapter 21 China

Objectives of the chapter	682	■ International Business Strategy in Action	701
■ Active Learning Case		Haier goes global	704
Oxford Instruments in China	683	Key points	704
Introduction	684	Key terms	704
Unprecedented scale, scope, and speed of growth	685	Review and discussion questions	705
The role of government	688	■ Real Cases
MNE investment into China	689	Citigroup in China	705
■ International Business Strategy in Action		Nanjing Auto makes the MG	707
Airbus in China	690	Notes	708
Foreign R&D investment	693	Bibliography	710
Getting into China	695	www resources	712
Outward investment and the new multinationals from China	698	Glossary	713
		Index	723

Supporting resources

Visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/rugman to find valuable online resources

For instructors

- Instructor's Manual
- PowerPoints

For more information please contact your local Pearson Education sales representative or visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/rugman