

MARKETING MANAGEMENT FOR NON-MARKETING MANAGERS

Improving returns on marketing investments

Heather Fitzpatrick, CPA, CGMA

CONTENTS

SECTION 1: WHAT IS MARKETING?	1
1 A MARKET LEADER'S DEFINITION OF MARKETING	3
How Market Leaders Define Marketing	4
Marketing, the Discipline, Versus Marketing, the Function	5
Marketing in Your Organisation—and in This Book	7
Chapter 1 Summary	8
SECTION 2: MANAGING THE DISCIPLINE OF MARKETING	11
2 THE DISCIPLINE OF MARKETING: THE FOUNDATION FOR BUSINESS STRATEGY	13
Why the Discipline of Marketing Produces the Crystal Ball Effect	14
Leveraging Market Insight	15
Opportunities: Identifying Unmet, Untapped or Underserved Market Needs	16
Threats: Understanding the Competition	17
Opportunities and Threats: Your Company's Reputation	18
The Other Half of Marketing: Meeting Market Needs	19
Choosing a Market: The Challenge of Serving Many Masters	20
The Cost of Market Diversity	21
The Benefits of Market Focus	22
Focus Made the Difference	23
Choosing a Market	24
Translating Value Proposition Into Products and Services	25
Aligning Your Business Activities	27
The Point C Principle	27
The Importance of Vision	29
Developing Vision	29
Gap Analysis	30

Setting Business and Financial Objectives	30
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About the Discipline of Marketing	31
Chapter 2 Summary	32
3 BRAND MANAGEMENT FUNDAMENTALS	35
The Definition of Brand	35
The Building Blocks of a Strong Brand	36
Strong Brands Reflect the Company's Value Proposition	37
Strong Brands Are Based on Truth	38
Companies With Strong Brands Are Good Corporate Citizens	38
Strong Brands Reflect the Image of the Merchant With Whom Their Customer Would Like to Do Business	39
The Value of a Strong Brand	40
Sources of Added Value Attributed to Brand	41
Increased Customer Preference	41
Reduced Promotional Cost	41
Reduced Price Sensitivity	41
Ability to Recruit and Retain Top Talent	42
Easier Access to Capital and Financial Markets	42
Public Benefit of the Doubt	42
Best Practices and Tools of the Brand Trade	43
Graphics Standards	43
Key Messages	46
Talking Points	48
Brand Audits	48
Brand Architecture	49
Mitigating and Addressing Brand Damage	50
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Brand Management	51
Chapter 3 Summary	52

SECTION 3: EVALUATING PROPOSED INVESTMENTS IN THE MARKETING FUNCTION 57

4 EVALUATING MARKETING PLAN ALIGNMENT 59

What Drives Returns on Marketing Investments 59

The Marketing Alignment Map 61

Targeted Business and Financial Objectives 62

Desired Brand Reputation 63

Influencing Factors 63

Marketing Strategies 64

Marketing Tactics 64

Expected Tactical Outcomes 66

Expected Marketing Outcomes 66

Expected Financial Returns 67

Evaluating Marketing Alignment 67

The Benefits of Alignment 68

Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Evaluating Marketing Plan Alignment 68

Chapter 4 Summary 69

5 UNDERSTANDING WHAT INFLUENCES MARKET BEHAVIOUR 73

Do You Know Why Your Customer Chooses Your Company—and Why Non-Customers Don't? 73

The Danger of Assumptions 74

What Your Marketing Function Needs to Know 75

Purchasing Decision Criteria 77

Clip-Level and Competitive Criteria 77

Market Segments 79

Understanding Relative Market Positions 80

Other Influencing Factors 81

Prioritising Influencing Factors 82

The Connection Between Influencing Factors, Marketing Strategies and Results	84
The Relative Importance of Price	85
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Factors Influencing Purchasing Behaviour	86
Chapter 5 Summary	87
6 ALIGNING MARKETING TACTICS WITH INFLUENCING FACTORS	91
Tactics Are Not Strategies	91
Well-Crafted Marketing Strategies Provide Specific Guidance	93
Align Attributes to Pick the Right Tactic	94
Market Size	95
Market Demographics	96
Business-to-Business Versus Business-to-Consumer	96
Potential Impact on Influencing Factors	96
Brand Impact	96
The Competitive Environment	97
Cost-Benefit Analysis	97
Return Timeline	97
Complimentary Marketing Mixes	98
'How' Is as Important as 'What'	98
Special Considerations for International and Multi-Cultural Markets	99
Special Considerations for Not-for-Profits	100
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Aligning Marketing Tactics With Influencing Factors	102
Chapter 6 Summary	102
7 PRODUCTS AND SERVICES: THE FIRST 'P' OF TACTICAL MARKETING	107
Product Management and Innovation	108
The Alternative to Innovation Is Death	110
If Innovation Is Critical to Survival, Why Don't Companies Do It?	111
Key Principles in Product Management	115

How the Product Life Cycle Affects Other Aspects of Marketing	115
The Impact of New Product or Service Introductions on Existing Products or Services	116
Discontinuing or Changing a Product or Service	117
Brand Considerations	118
Beyond the Product or Service	119
Outsourcing Products or Expertise	120
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Products and Services	121
Chapter 7 Summary	122

8 PLACEMENT OR DISTRIBUTION: THE SECOND 'P' OF TACTICAL MARKETING	125
Go Where the Market Looks for Solutions	125
Balance Cost With Benefits	126
Consider the Impact on Brand	126
An Introduction to Channel Management	126
Direct Distribution	127
Indirect, or Channel, Distribution	132
Cutting Out the Middleman	135
Vertical Integration	135
Franchising and Licensing	136
Disintermediation	137
Creative Partnerships	137
Strategic Partnerships	137
Value Added Resellers	138
Joint Ventures	138
Multi-Channel Distribution	138
Channel Conflict	139
How Channel Decisions Impact Product and Service Innovation	140
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Place or Distribution	140

Chapter 8 Summary	141
9 PRICING: THE THIRD 'P' OF TACTICAL MARKETING	145
The Impact of a Dollar (or Pound, or Yen or Rupee)	145
Common Approaches to Evaluating Price	147
Cost-Based Pricing	147
Competition-Based Pricing	149
Value-Based Pricing	149
Price and the Product Life Cycle	151
Incentive Pricing Approaches	152
Loss Leaders	152
Freemiums	153
Coupons, Groupons, Rebates, Sales and Other Short-Term Price Reductions	154
Fixed Fees or Fixed Prices	155
Retainers	155
Package Prices	156
Contingency Pricing	156
Bulk Pricing	156
Multiple Unit Pricing	156
Push Money/Prize Money Allowances	157
Other Pricing Approaches	157
Price Discrimination	157
Dynamic Pricing	158
Terms	158
Guarantees, Warrantees and Return Policies	159
Advertising and Promotional Allowances	159
Psychological Pricing	160
The Connection Between Price, Product or Service, Distribution Systems and Operations	160
The Impact of Brand on Price	161
Market Realities	161

Legal Issues	162
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Price	163
Chapter 9 Summary	163
10 PROMOTIONS: THE FOURTH 'P' OF TACTICAL MARKETING	167
Understanding the Two Functional Purposes of Promotions	168
Delegate, but Don't Abdicate	170
Why Following the Leader Is Risky	171
Communicate So the Market Hears What You Say	172
Pick the Right Tool for the Purpose	173
A Guide to Common Promotional Tactics	173
Advertising	173
Direct Marketing	178
Websites	180
Social Media	183
Collateral Materials and Related Marketing Communications	187
Media Relations	189
Public Relations (Other Than Media Relations and Social Media)	191
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Promotions	193
Chapter 10 Summary	193
11 EVALUATING RETURNS ON MARKETING INVESTMENTS	197
Debunking the Measurement Myth	197
The Benefits of Measurement	200
Measuring Results in Anticipation of Funding	200
Measuring Returns During and After Execution	202
Determining the Appropriate Level of Accuracy	202
Measurement Models: Simple to Complex	203
Case Study #1: Evaluating the Potential Impact of a Website Overhaul	204

Case Study #2: Evaluating the Impact of Changes in Products, Channels and Promotions	206
Case Study #3: Increasing Precision Through Analytics	210
Risk Adjustment	212
Return on Marketing Investment	214
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Measurement and Returns	216
Chapter 11 Summary	216
SECTION 4: MANAGING MARKETING OPERATIONS	219
12 WHY DO GOOD PLANS FAIL?	221
The Tortoise Law	222
Why Companies Voluntarily Abandon Their Plans	222
Lack of Executive Commitment	223
Leadership Changes	223
Failure to Plan for Change	224
No Evidence of Progress	224
Executive Distrust	225
Why Companies Drift Away From Their Plans	225
Lack of Executive Commitment	225
Poor Accountability	226
Incremental Changes	227
Why Companies Involuntarily Abandon Their Plans	228
Inadequate Staffing	228
Failure to Anticipate Significant Changes	229
Failure to Anticipate Opportunities	230
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Keeping a Plan on Track	230
Chapter 12 Summary	231

13 STAFFING THE MARKETING DEPARTMENT	233
Estimating Human Resources Requirements	233
Acceptance of Responsibilities	236
Assessing the Required Skills	237
Using External Resources to Address Skill Gaps	238
The Benefits of External Resources	238
How to Decide When to Use External Marketing Resources	239
Selecting a Resource	240
Overseeing External Resources	243
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Staffing the Marketing Department	245
Chapter 13 Summary	245
14 MANAGING MEASUREMENT	249
Addressing the Language Barrier	249
Agreeing on Metrics	251
Building Processes and Systems to Measure Performance	253
Don't Forget the Investment Side of the ROI Equation	254
Remaining Focused	255
Coordinating Efforts	256
The CEO's Role in Measurement	257
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Managing the Measurement of Marketing Performance	258
Chapter 14 Summary	258
15 CULTIVATING SYSTEMATIC LISTENING	261
Modelling the Way: The Executive's Role in Building the Crystal Ball Effect	261
Building a Listening Culture	263
Validating Internal Information With Third-Party Research	265
Why Market Research Reduces Risk	265

Effective Research Keeps the End in Mind	266
Identify Assumptions and Define Risks	266
Assess the Appropriate Investment	267
Start With the End	268
Key Market Research Tools and Concepts	268
Types of Research	269
Bias Risk in Research	270
Research Design	271
The Art of Interpretation in Research	271
Questions for Non-Marketing Managers to Ask About Cultivating Systematic Listening	272
Chapter 15 Summary	273
SECTION 5: CONCLUSION	275
16 FOUR TESTS TO RUN BEFORE FUNDING	277
The Alignment Test	277
How the Test Works	277
Case Study: The Alignment Test in Action	280
The Assignment Test	283
How the Test Works	284
Case Study: The Assignment Test in Action	285
The Risk Assessment Test	286
How the Test Works	286
Case Study: The Risk Assessment Test in Action	287
The Anticipated Returns Test	289
How the Test Works	290
Case Study: The Anticipated Returns Test in Action	291
Chapter 16 Summary	296

17 NOW WHAT?	297
Marketing Performance Evaluation: How Does Your Company Compare?	298
Section I: The Discipline of Marketing	298
Section II: Evaluating Marketing Plans	299
Section III: Managing the Marketing Function	301
Now, Take It Again	304
Share Your Answers	304
Ask Questions	304
GLOSSARY	305
APPENDIX A: REFERENCES AND RESOURCES	317