

English for Banking & Finance

2

Course Book

Marjorie Rosenberg
Series editor David Bonamy

Contents

	Function	Language	Vocabulary
Unit 1 Money matters	Managing your finances p. 4	Explaining personal banking habits Using basic financial terms	Present simple Personal banking
	Finance and the economy p. 6	Discussing the economy	Present simple: revision Opposites
	Banks and building societies p. 8	Describing different types of financial organisations	Present simple with adverbs of frequency and time expressions Present continuous Functions of financial institutions
	Investment banks p. 10	Understanding how investment banks work	Articles Investment banking
	Review p. 11
Unit 2 Products in retail banking	Bank products p. 12	Finding out what a customer needs and giving advice	Modals for ability and possibility Making suggestions and recommendations Retail banking products
	Online banking p. 14	Explaining online bank accounts to new customers	Future possibility and ability: will and be able to The imperative Online banking
	Telephone helplines p. 16	Giving and checking instructions	Sequencers Future forms: will , present continuous and be going to Telephone helpline words
	Comparing products p. 18	Comparing product details	Comparative and superlative adjectives Product phrases
	Review p. 19
Unit 3 Personal loans and credit	Credit and debit cards p. 20	Talking about credit	Zero conditional Credit and debit cards
	Plastic money p. 22	Agreeing and disagreeing politely	First conditional Using credit cards
	Personal loans and overdrafts p. 24	Asking for and giving information	Modals for obligation, necessity and prohibition Borrowing money
	Mortgages p. 26	Explaining terms of mortgages	Modals for possibility and permission Mortgages
	Review p. 27
Unit 4 Islamic banking	The basics of Islamic banking p. 28	Explaining the regulations of Islamic banking	Past simple Word partnerships
	Islamic retail products p. 30	Talking about past habits	Used to Banking verbs
	Islamic corporate banking products p. 32	Explaining different Islamic banking products	Past continuous Islamic corporate banking terms
	The concepts of Islamic banking p. 34	Comparing Islamic and non-Islamic banking	Modals in the past Background of Islamic banks
	Review p. 35

	Function	Language	Vocabulary
Unit 5 The structure of a bank	Departments p. 36	Describing the work in different departments of a bank	Prepositions	Verb–noun partnerships
	The structure of the bank p. 38	Talking about banking jobs, responsibilities and tasks Explaining the hierarchy in a bank	Gerunds and infinitives after verbs	Job titles and departments
	Presentation skills p. 40	Giving a presentation	Future forms and past simple	Presentation words
	The changing world of banking p. 42	Talking about change	Present perfect	Historic banking
	Review p.43
Unit 6 Finance in companies	Cash flow p. 44	Discussing cash flow issues	Quantifiers	Cash flow words
	The balance sheet p. 46	Describing assets and liabilities	Passive forms	Large numbers
	The income statement p. 48	Understanding an income statement	Modals of speculation	Mathematical formulas
	The cash flow statement p. 50	Showing the cause of a problem and its effect	Cause and effect	Cash flow statement
	Review p. 51
Unit 7 Corporate banking	Taking care of corporate clients p. 52	Making suggestions to solve clients' problems	Second conditional	Corporate products
	Loans, credit lines and leasing p. 54	Discussing corporate product solutions	Second conditional with modals	Verb–noun partnerships
	Company restructuring and loan modification p. 56	Formulating a loan modification strategy	Making suggestions and recommendations	Word partnerships
	Bankruptcy p. 58	Discussing voluntary bankruptcy and legal proceedings	Past simple and present perfect	Debt
	Review p. 59
Unit 8 Central banks and banking regulations	National and central banks p. 60	Talking about central banks and their functions	Gerund as subject and object	Central banking
	Liquidity and the business cycle p. 62	Explaining the business cycle	Present perfect continuous	The business cycle and liquidity
	Regulations p. 64	Discussing regulations and risk	Defining relative clauses	Regulations
	Economic change p. 66	Describing graphs	Parts of speech	Adjectives and adverbs describing change
	Review p. 67

Partner files p. 68

Audio script p. 74