

Urban Economics and Real Estate

Theory and Policy
Second Edition

John F. McDonald

Roosevelt University

Daniel P. McMillen

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

WILEY

John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

CONTENTS

Preface	v
Acknowledgments	vii
PART I ECONOMICS AND URBAN AREAS	1
1 Introduction to Urban Economics	3
2 World Urbanization	8
3 Schools of Thought in Urban Economics	30
4 Location Decisions, Agglomeration Economies, and the Origins of Cities	41
5 The Economic Functions of Cities	61
PART II LOCATION PATTERNS IN URBAN AREAS	77
6 Introduction to Urban Location Patterns: Static Analysis	79
7 Using the Monocentric City Model	98
8 Empirical Testing of the Monocentric City Model	120
PART III REAL ESTATE AND URBAN HOUSING	159
9 Real Estate Law and Institutions	161
10 Housing in Urban Areas	182
11 Housing Policy	215
12 Real Estate Markets	234
13 Real Estate Development and Investment	245
PART IV GOVERNMENT IN URBAN AREAS	261
14 The Public Sector in Urban Areas	263
15 Urban Infrastructure	296
16 Urban Transportation	316

PART V	URBAN SOCIAL PROBLEMS	349
17	Urban Social Problems: A Case Study of Urban Areas of the Northeastern U.S.	351
18	Urban Poverty and its Spatial Concentration in the U.S.	361
19	Urban Poverty in Developing Countries	388
20	Crime in Urban Areas	394
21	Education, Labor Markets, and Migration	405
PART VI	URBAN GROWTH	423
22	Models of Metropolitan Economic Growth	425
23	Agglomeration Economies, Technical Change, and Urban Growth	457
24	Economic Development Policies for Urban Areas	487
APPENDIX	A REVIEW OF SOME MATHEMATICS AND MICROECONOMIC THEORY	517
	Answers to Selected Exercises	529
	Index	537