

second edition

GUEST SERVICE

~ in the ~
Hospitality Industry

Kendall Hunt
publishing company

PAUL BAGDAN

Brief Contents

Preface xiii

Acknowledgments xvii

SECTION I

Introduction and Essentials of Managing Guest Service 1

Chapter 1 The Basics of Managing Guest Service 3

Chapter 2 Defining Guest Service 33

Chapter 3 Problem-Solving for Guest Service 55

SECTION II

Relating Service to the Sectors of the Hospitality Industry:
How Service Relates 91

Chapter 4 The Guest Service of Food 93

Chapter 5 The Guest Service of Beverages 121

Chapter 6 The Guest Service of Lodging 141

Chapter 7 The Guest Service of Events 157

Chapter 8 The Guest Service of Travel and Tourism 179

Chapter 9 The Guest Service of Casinos 197

SECTION III

Assessments and Planning 215

Chapter 10 Strategic Planning for Service 217

Chapter 11 Quality Tools 243

Chapter 12 Systems, Ratings, and Awards 279

Chapter 13 Developing a Staff 299

Chapter 14 Marketing and Establishing an Image for Service 331

Index 359

Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xvii

SECTION I

Introduction and Essentials of Managing Guest Service	1
---	---

CHAPTER 1

The Basics of Managing Guest Service 3

Introduction	4
This Edition	4
A Science and an Art	4
Integration of Customer Service	4
Defining Quality Customer Service	5
Hospitality Is Customer Service	5
Why Accept Bad Service?	6
Excuses for Bad Service	6
Reasons Why Customers Do Not Complain	8
Good Service Can Make Up for Bad Food	8
Competitive Advantage of Service	10
Bad News Travels Fast	11
The Pickle Principle	13
The Value of a Returning Customer	13
Service Profit Chain	14
History of Service Management in the US	14
Background of Service	16
Management Influences	19
Four Management Functions	20
Legends in Service Management	22
Hospitality Service Pioneers	27
Conclusion	29
Case Studies	29
References	32

CHAPTER 2

Defining Guest Service 33

Defining Quality Guest Service	34
Aspects of Guest Service	34
Media Reports of Customer Service	35
Types of Service	36
Kano Model	37
Customer Participation—Involving the Guest	39
Unique Characteristics of Service	40
Tangibility of Service	40
Heterogeneity of Service	41
The Customer Ultimately Decides—A Different Perspective	42
Inseparability of the Service (aka simultaneity)	42
Perishability of Service	42
Meeting Guests' Expectations	43
Levels of Expectations	44
Order of Expectations	44
Inputs That Set Expectations	45
Issues with Exceeding Expectations	49
Delivering a Better Service	50
Conclusion—Quick Guest Service Advise	51
Chapter Review Questions	51
Case Studies	52

CHAPTER 3

Problem-Solving for Guest Service 55

Considering Different Points of Views	56
What Do People Really Want?	56
Listening to the Customer	57
Types of Customers	61
Level I—Handling Different Types of Customers—Requires Little Work	62
Level II—Handling Different Types of Customers—Requires Moderate Work	63
Level III—Handling Different Types of Customers—Requires Substantial Work	64
Four Chemicals That Determine Behavior	66
Handling Angry Customers	67
Staff Expectations	71
Another View: Problem Hosts	71
Is the Guest Always Right?	72
Can You Say No?	73
It's All the Little Things	74
Watching for Red Flags	75
Remembering Names	76

Related Psychological Theories	77
Transactional Analysis	78
Meyers-Briggs Type Indicator	79
Keirsey Temperament Sorter	79
Emotional Intelligence (EI)	79
DISC Assessment	81
Chapter Review Questions	82
Case Studies	82
Exercises	87
References	90

SECTION II

Relating Service to the Sectors of the Hospitality Industry: How Service Relates 91

CHAPTER 4

The Guest Service of Food 93

Introduction: About the Service of Food	94
Positions	95
Front of House	96
Back of House	97
BOH Staff Comparison	98
FOH Service Staff	99
Wares and Their Uses	100
Place Settings	100
Mise en Place	103
Service Styles	104
American Dinner Service	104
Service Style Overview	108
American Service Style	108
Buffet Service Style	108
Butler Service Style	109
Counter Service Style	109
Cafeteria Service Style	110
DIM SUM Service Style	111
English Service Style	111
French Service Style	112
Russian Service Style	113
Related Points	115
Volume	115
Technology	115
Chapter Review Questions	116
Case Studies	117
Exercise	120

CHAPTER 5

The Guest Service of Beverages 121

Introduction	122
Beverage Positions	122
Barback	123
Cocktail Waitress	123
Sommelier	123
Specialty Manager	123
Beverage Manager	123
Wares	124
Beverages and Their Service	126
Knowing Wines	126
Knowing Cocktails	129
Cocktail Ordering Terminology	132
Knowing Beer	133
Knowing Coffees and Teas	134
Corkage Fee	135
Conclusion	136
Chapter Review Questions	136
Case Studies	136

CHAPTER 6

The Guest Service of Lodging 141

Service Positions	142
Bellman	142
Back Office	143
Concierge	143
Housekeeping	143
Front Desk	145
Checking in a Guest	146
Checking Out	147
Dealing With Front Desk Issues	149
Technological Changes	152
Changing Delivery of Services	152
Changing Communications	153
Changing Guest Experiences	153
Case Studies	155
References	156

CHAPTER 7

The Guest Service of Events 157

Introduction: Special Pressure From Events	158
Pre-Event Services: Setting up the Event	159
Assess the Environment	159
Types of Room Setups	161

Types of Attendees	162
Managing Touch Points	162
What Are You Offering?	163
Predict the Outcomes	165
Risk Management	165
Plan Success	166
Setting the Expectations	166
Promotions Marketing	168
Establishing Job Descriptions	169
Crisis Management Plan	170
Event Services	171
Monitoring the Weaknesses	171
Attendee Needs	171
Working With Volunteers	171
Post-Event Services	172
Assessing the Quality	173
Surveying the Event	173
Chapter Review Questions	175
Case Studies	175

CHAPTER 8

The Guest Service of Travel and Tourism 179

Introduction	180
Definition of Tourism: The World	180
Step 1: Know the Product	181
Types of Travel and Tourism	182
Qualities of Travel and Tourism	184
Changes in Travel and Tourism	185
The External Environment	185
Step 2: Know the Client—Understanding the Guest	186
Develop Relationships	186
Learn Their Motivations	187
Step 3: Know Yourself—The Travel Professional	189
Essential Qualities of Travel Professionals	189
Step 4: Blend the Goals to Best Meet the Desired Goals of All	191
Whose Goals Are We Meeting?	191
Customers' Goals	192
Organizational Goals	192
Personal Goals	192
Industry Goals	193
Environmental Goals	193
Online Travel Agents (OTAs)	194
Chapter Review Questions	194
Case Studies	195

CHAPTER 9

The Guest Service of Casinos 197

Introduction	198
Types of Casinos	199
From Criminal to Respectable	200
Complex Entities	200
Floor Positions	201
Unique Environmental Characteristics	203
Main Goal	203
High-Tech Trends	203
Free Drinks	204
Food and Beverage	204
Rooms	205
VIPs	205
Atmosphere	206
Other Activities	206
Security	206
Meetings and Events	207
Out-of-Town Gamblers versus Local Gamblers	208
Chapter Review Questions	208
Case Studies	209

SECTION III

Assessments and Planning 215

CHAPTER 10

Strategic Planning for Service 217

Introduction to Service Strategy	218
Strategy Defined	218
Strategy Is Natural	219
Importance of Strategy	219
Lack of Strategy	220
Strategy Applied to the Customer Mindset	220
Continuous Improvement	220
Analyzing Position and Market	223
SWOT Analysis	224
Identifying Your Competition	226
Integration: Implementing a Service Strategy	228
The Strategic Service System: Purpose, Product, Plan, People	228
Waiting Systems	234
Resource Viewpoint	236
Chapter Review Questions	237
Case Studies	237
Exercises	240

CHAPTER 11

Quality Tools 243

Introduction	244
Setting up for Research	244
Why: Collect Background Information	244
What: Determine What to Measure	245
Who: Choose the Population	245
How: Choose the Method and Measurement	246
Tools and Techniques	246
Affinity Diagram	248
Benchmarking	250
Brainstorming	251
Check Sheets	251
Control Chart	252
Cost-Benefit Analysis	253
Cost of Error	254
Delphi Method	255
Fishbone Analysis	256
Flowcharts Diagram	258
Focus Group	259
Force Field Analysis	260
Gantt Chart	261
Kano Model	262
Multi-Voting	263
Net Promoter Score (NPS)	264
Pareto Chart	264
Poka-Yoke	265
Process Reengineering	266
Pros-Cons Sheet	267
Risk Matrix	267
Root Cause Analysis/5 Why's	268
Scatter Diagram	269
Secret Shoppers	270
SERVQUAL	272
Six Sigma	273
Surveys	274
Chapter Review Questions	277
Exercises	278

CHAPTER 12

Systems, Ratings, and Awards 279

Introduction	280
Kaizen	280
Project Management	280
Steps of Project Management	281
Project Manager Areas of Responsibility	282

Project Manager Skill Sets	282
A Comparison of Systems	282
Team Project Charters	284
Six Sigma	285
Lean Approach	288
Lean Thinking	288
Deming: 14 Points	290
External Awards, Certifications, and Recognitions	290
J.D. Power Award	291
Malcolm Baldrige Quality Award	291
International Standards Organization (ISO)	291
Forbes–Mobil Guide Ratings	292
AAA Ratings	293
Quality Around the World	294
Chapter Review Questions	295
Case Studies	295
Exercise	298

CHAPTER 13

Developing a Staff 299

Introduction	300
Hiring	300
What Do Hospitality Companies Look for in a New Hire?	301
Communication	304
Visual	305
Body Language	306
Vocal	307
Answering the Telephone	309
Training, Managing, and Developing	310
Demonstrate Personal and Procedural Expectations	311
Integrate and Initiate Into Culture	312
Demonstrate Service Standards	314
Monitor, Assess, Support, Reward	315
Team Management	317
Types of Teams	319
Team Stages of Development	321
Types of Team Members	322
How to Make Teams Work	323
Conclusion	324
Chapter Review Questions	324
Case Studies	324
Exercises	327

CHAPTER 14

Marketing and Establishing an Image for Service 331

Introduction to Service Marketing	332
Marketing and Customer Service	332
Everyone Has Customer Service	332
Marketing Defined	332
Themes in Marketing	333
The Four Steps of Marketing for Quality Guest Service	334
Step 1: Analysis and Identification of Wants and Needs	335
1.1 Define the Profile	336
1.2 Define Best-In-Class	336
1.3 Define the Customers	336
1.4 Research Customer Information	340
Step 2: Establishment of a Marketing Plan	340
2.1 Realization of Possibilities	341
2.2 Select a Goal or Objective	341
2.3 Segment Your Markets	341
2.4 Select a Strategy	341
Step 3: Implementation of Controls to Position—The 4, 5, or 8 Ps	342
Place	343
Servicescape	343
Promotion	344
Product	344
Price	345
People	345
The Four Steps to Orchestrating Internal Marketing to Employees	347
Consumer Decision-Making Process	348
Step 4: Follow-Up—Service after the Sale	348
What Is the Post-Purchase Behavior of the Customers?	348
Customer Relationship Management (CRM)	349
What Is the Post-Purchase Behavior of the Customer?	348
Technology and Its Influences	349
Influences Purchase Decisions	350
Integrated Marketing Communications	352
Augmented Reality (AR)	353
Chapter Review Questions	354
Case Studies	354
Exercises	357
References	358

Index 359