

394.2068
LUN-T

Event Sponsorship and Fundraising

An advanced guide

Tom Lunt and Eva Nicotra

CONTENTS

Figures and tables xiii
Case studies and insights xv
About the authors xvii
Foreword xix
Preface xxi
Acknowledgements xxvii

01 Introduction to event sponsorship, fundraising, partnerships and relationship development 1

Learning objectives 1
Defining sponsorship 2
The growth of sponsorship 4
Sponsorship by sector 9
Case study 1: grants for the arts – Arts Council England 13
Professional insight 1: financing live music – interview with Andy Macleod, founder and director of Club Fandango 15
Conclusion 20
Discussion questions and activities 21
Further reading 21
References 22

02 Event sponsorship at the centre of the integrated marketing communications mix 27

Learning objectives 27
Defining integrated marketing communications 27
Event sponsorship and experiential marketing 30
Sponsorship insight 1: don't overlook the local connection... 35
Event sponsorship and authenticity 36
Research insight 1: authenticity – perception is everything... 38
Sponsorship insight 2: what's in the goody bag? 40
Conclusion 41

Discussion questions and activities 42

Further reading 42

References 43

03 Delivering event sponsorship campaigns 47

Learning objectives 47

Stage 1: consider the brand's personality 49

Stage 2: developing an emotional connection between a brand and its target audience 50

Stage 3: two-way interaction 51

Stage 4: exponential element and reach 51

Case study 2: Christian Aid and the Greenbelt Arts and Music Festival – making the ask 52

Professional insight 2: interview with Nick Adams, founder of Sense London 55

Research insight 2: brand experiences and the two roads to happiness 62

Conclusion 62

Discussion questions and activities 62

Further reading 63

References 64

04 Identifying and securing sponsors and funding opportunities 65

Learning objectives 65

Developing the correct 'fit' between sponsors and events 66

Aligning audiences with sponsors 68

Identifying sponsor motivations 71

Getting an event 'sponsor ready': layers of sponsorship 73

Applying sponsorship layers 74

Research insight 3: be careful which portfolio you get into... 76

Identifying a sponsor or grant-maker 'universe' 76

Fragmentation of audiences and the rise of postmodern marketing 77

Consumption communities, brand communities and brand tribes – powerful, double-edged phenomena for sponsors 80

Research insight 4: festivals – where does the money come from? 82

- Conclusion 83
- Discussion questions and activities 83
- Further reading 84
- References 85

- 05 Prospecting for grant funding and sponsorship: case studies from Scottish cycling events 89
 - Learning objectives 89
 - Introduction 89
 - Case study 3: identifying sources of funding in Scotland 90
 - Professional insight 3: the Nocturne cycle event and the Rapha cycling brand – interview with James Pearce, Head of Commercial at the Face Partnership 93
 - Conclusion 103
 - Discussion questions and activities 104
 - Further reading 105
 - References 106

- 06 Preparing and delivering a sponsorship pitch 107
 - Learning objectives 107
 - Introduction 107
 - The sponsorship proposal 108
 - Types of proposals 111
 - The sponsorship development process 113
 - Conclusion 129
 - Discussion questions and activities 130
 - Further reading 131
 - References 131

- 07 Managing relationships with sponsors and funding bodies 135
 - Learning objectives 135
 - Introduction 135
 - Sponsorship agreements 136
 - Contracts 137
 - Checklist for preparing a sponsorship contract 140
 - Checklist for preparing a contract – EventScotland 143
 - Managing the sponsorship relationship 144

Research insight 5: sponsoring a festival – it's not just a contract, it's a networked relationship...	145
Ethical knowledge – the central event management competence	146
Sponsorship insight 3: where did you get that T-shirt?	149
Research insight 6: corporate social responsibility – moving beyond the checklist	150
Conclusion	152
Discussion questions and activities	152
Further reading	153
References	153

08 Legal issues in event sponsorship and fundraising 157

Learning objectives	157
Introduction	157
Professional insight 4: managing relationships with sponsors – interview with James Tibbetts, Chief Operations Officer, Female Sports Group	159
Conclusion	168
Discussion questions and activities	168
Further reading	169
References	170

09 Evaluating sponsorship and grant-making relationships 171

Learning objectives	171
Introduction	171
Why sponsorship evaluation?	172
Measuring the return on sponsorship	175
Traditional types of measurements	178
Research insight 7: media exposure and sponsorship awareness – a critique	180
Other metrics	183
Research insight 8: online brand recommendations as a measure of the effect of sponsorship	185
Third party evaluation	186
Conclusion	186
Discussion questions and activities	186
Further reading	187
References	188

- 10 Where next for event sponsorship and fundraising? 191
Focus on translation opportunities through brand activation 193
Authenticity – the sponsors’ Holy Grail? 194
Physical/virtual (dis)embodied – the role of social media and digital platforms 195
New sponsorship opportunities: e-sports – the final frontier? 197
It’s not about personalities (is it?) 199
Fundraising insight 1: keep on networking... 200
Ethics – is there a skeleton in the closet? 200
Creativity 201
Conclusion 203
References 204

11 Practical templates to kick-start your event sponsorship and fundraising 207

- Developing a sponsorship campaign 207
Example of information required by a corporate sponsor 213
Example of information required by a grant funder 216

Afterword – building your career in sponsorship and fundraising 221

- Organizations involved in sponsorship 221
Roles and responsibilities in sponsorship 222

Glossary 225

References 229

Further reading 245

Index 253

Online resources

To support teaching and learning on this module, the following downloadable material is available at www.koganpage.com/event-sponsorship:

- lecture slides;
- seminar and activity sheets;
- sample lesson plans.

FIGURES AND TABLES

Figures

- 1.1 The exchange relationship in event sponsorship 3
- 2.1 Integrated marketing communications' relationship to marketing channels 29
- 2.2 The relationship between events/experiential marketing, and traditional and new media marketing disciplines 29
- 2.3 Event-led experiential marketing and integrated marketing communications 35
- 2.4 Brand experiences as rituals 39
- 3.1 Top-line concept using the BETTER model 50
- 3.2 Inside the Christian Aid tent at Greenbelt Festival, themed activities for children and adults that communicate key messages (in this case global warming) to festival goers are central to maximizing sponsorship benefits 53
- 3.3 Designing live experiences that incorporate social media effectively is vital to the success of brand activations for sponsors 60
- 4.1 The potential benefits of congruence/fit between sponsor and event property 67
- 5.1 The start of the Brompton race at the Nocturne – Rapha trackside branding is clearly visible 94
- 5.2 Alongside the elite cycling races at the Nocturne, different features such as the penny-farthing and Brompton races broaden the event's appeal 97
- 6.1 Benefits valued by sponsors 119
- 7.1 The components required for a valid contract, and factors that will invalidate a contract 138
- 8.1 Ambush and counter-ambush marketing strategies 158

Tables

- 6.1 Variables that impact price 121
- 6.2 Key content areas in a sponsorship proposal 123

CASE STUDIES AND INSIGHTS

Case studies

- 1 Grants for the arts – Arts Council England 13
- 2 Christian Aid and the Greenbelt Arts and Music Festival – making the ask 52
- 3 Identifying sources of funding in Scotland 90

Fundraising insights

- 1 Keep on networking... 200

Professional insights

- 1 Financing live music – interview with Andy Macleod, founder and director of Club Fandango 15
- 2 Interview with Nick Adams, founder of Sense London 55
- 3 The Nocturne cycle event and the Rapha cycling brand – interview with James Pearce, Head of Commercial at the Face Partnership 93
- 4 Managing relationships with sponsors – interview with James Tibbetts, Chief Operations Officer, Female Sports Group 159

Research insights

- 1 Authenticity – perception is everything... 38
- 2 Brand experiences and the two roads to happiness 62
- 3 Be careful which portfolio you get into... 76
- 4 Festivals – where does the money come from? 82
- 5 Sponsoring a festival – it's not just a contract, it's a networked relationship... 145
- 6 Corporate social responsibility – moving beyond the checklist 150
- 7 Media exposure and sponsorship awareness – a critique 180
- 8 Online brand recommendations as a measure of the effect of sponsorship 185

Sponsorship insights

- 1 Don't overlook the local connection... 35
- 2 What's in the goody bag? 40
- 3 Where did you get that T-shirt? 149