

Open Forum

ACADEMIC LISTENING AND SPEAKING

2

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgements	iii
Introduction	vi

Chapter 1 Environmental Studies page 1	Topic: City planning Lecture about city planning 3 Interview about planning public parks 6
Chapter 2 Psychology page 10	Topics: Leisure activities; quality of life Radio program about the concept of “flow” 11 Personal interviews 14
Chapter 3 Food Science page 18	Topics: Food; changes in habits Lecture about taste in food 20 Interview with a food scientist 23
Chapter 4 Visual Art page 27	Topic: Visual art Radio interview about Aboriginal art 28 Lecture in an art museum 32
Chapter 5 Life Science page 37	Topics: Ocean research; condor preservation Radio program on ocean research 38 Informational talk at a ranger station 42
Chapter 6 Social Studies page 46	Topic: Work Lecture about European and U.S. work habits 47 Radio program about freelancing 51
Chapter 7 Language and Communication page 56	Topics: Different languages in the United States; endangered languages Lecture about other languages in the United States 57 Student presentation 61
Chapter 8 Technology page 64	Topic: Inventors and inventions Conversation with a writer 65 Talk at a technology museum 69
Chapter 9 Marketing and Advertising page 73	Topic: Marketing and advertising Listeners’ responses to a documentary 74 Information conversation 78
Chapter 10 Education page 83	Topic: Education Conversation about college credit for life experience 84 Personal experiences of college 88
Chapter 11 Astronomy page 93	Topics: Moon facts; amateur astronomers Radio call-in program 94 Interview about amateur astronomers 97
Chapter 12 International Studies page 101	Topic: Cultural differences Book excerpt about an American living in another country 102 Lecture about culture shock 106