About the author

Laurie Mullins was a principal lecturer in the Department of Business and Management, University of Portsmouth, where he specialised in teaching Managerial and Organisational Behaviour and Managing People at Work to Business and Hospitality Management students. He has been a regular contributor of numerous articles in a variety of professional journals and is also author of the best-selling Management and Organisational Behaviour, published by Financial Times Pitman Publishing.

Laurie has undertaken a range of consultancy work and acted as adviser and tutor for a number of professional and educational bodies. He also has considerable experience as an external examiner for university degree and postgraduate courses, and professional organisations.

Laurie completed a year's academic exchange as visiting professor in the Management Department, University of Wisconsin, USA, and has also given invited lectures to hospitality audiences in Holland and South Africa. Recently, Laurie was invited as a visiting fellow for a semester at the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology University, Australia.

In acknowledgement and appreciation

To my wife, Pamela

With a special mention for family and friends in America:
Brigitte; Helga: Lisa, Zac and Matt; Steve and Linda;
Joanne and Bill; Ivan and Carol

A very special tribute is due again to my wife Pamela, children and family for their continuing interest, encouragement and support. I also wish to record my gratitude and thanks to the following for their valuable contribution to this fourth edition:

- Gordon Oliver and colleagues at the Department of Business and Management, University of Portsmouth, with a particular acknowledgement to Derek Adam-Smith, Gary Akehurst, Gerry Banks and Karen Meudell.
- Martin Brunner, Independent Consultant.
- Xiangping Bo, International Business School of Hunan University, China.
- Nigel Maggs-Oosterhagen, Highbury College, Portsmouth.
- Nicky Hayward, Proprietor of The Seaview Hotel and Restaurant, Isle of Wight, for permission to reproduce extracts from the Business Excellence Model in small hotels.
- Sandra Jones, Director Higher Education General Programs, School of Management, RMIT University, Australia
- Hotel and Catering International Management Association.
- British Quality Foundation.
- Those hospitality managers who have kindly given permission to reproduce information from their own organisation, including Linda Astbury, Marilyn Harding-Brown, Tim Chudley, Tim Gates, Andrea McIntyre, Marie Pollock, Chis Kelsall, Janet Richardson, Jane Neil and Pat Perridge.
- Colleagues at Pearson Education – especially Jill Jones, Judith Harvey, Sonia Wilson and Eva Martinez – for their enthusiasm, encouragement and valued support for this fourth edition.

I am also grateful to those who gave permission to reproduce copyright material. Every effort has been made to give references for sources of work by other writers but I apologise to any concerned if acknowledgement has inadvertently not been recorded. Should there be any queries, errors or omissions, please contact the publisher.
