

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

A CONTEMPORARY APPROACH

Eighth edition

Edited by

Julie Beardwell
and Amanda Thompson

De Montfort University, Leicester

Harlow, England • London • New York • Boston • San Francisco • Toronto • Sydney • Dubai • Singapore • Hong Kong
Tokyo • Seoul • Taipei • New Delhi • Cape Town • São Paulo • Mexico City • Madrid • Amsterdam • Munich • Paris • Milan

BRIEF CONTENTS

Guided tour	xii
Preface	xv
Plan of the book	xvi
How to use this book	xvii
Contributors	xix
Acknowledgements	xxii

PART 1 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND ITS ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Introduction to Part 1	2
1 An introduction to human resource management	3
2 Strategic human resource management	30
3 Contextualising HRM	67

PART 2 RESOURCING THE ORGANISATION

Introduction to Part 2	100
4 HRM and the labour market	101
5 Talent management	145
6 Managing equality and diversity	179

PART 3 DEVELOPING THE HUMAN RESOURCE

Introduction to Part 3	214
7 Learning and development	215
8 Leadership and management development	260
9 Organisational development	299

PART 4 THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

10 The employment relationship and employee rights at work	343
11 Employee engagement	389
12 Performance management	425
13 Employee reward	458
14 Employee voice	508

PART 5 COMPARATIVE HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

15 Comparative HRM in the context of financialisation, financial crisis and Brexit	545
16 Employment relations in emerging economies: China and India	588

Glossary of terms and abbreviations	625
Index	635

CONTENTS

Guided tour	xii
Preface	xv
Plan of the book	xvi
How to use this book	xvii
Contributors	xix
Acknowledgements	xxii

PART 1 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT AND ITS ORGANISATIONAL CONTEXT

Introduction to Part 1	2
1 An introduction to human resource management
Julie Beardwell	3
Objectives	3
Case study: Winning HRM practice: simply Business	4
Introduction	4
Definitions of HRM	5
The origins of HRM	7
Models of HRM	8
HRM and organisational performance	12
HRM in practice	17
The impact of HRM on the roles of HR professionals	20
HR competence	23
Concluding comments	24
Summary	25
Case study: The future of work: the journey to 2022	26
References and further reading	27
2 Strategic human resource management
Heather Connolly and Julie Beardwell	30
Objectives	30
Case study: Taking the 'low road' in big business	31

Introduction	32
Understanding the business context	33
Approaches to the strategy-making process	34
The rise of SHRM	38
Exploring the relationship between strategic management and SHRM: The best-fit school of SHRM	39
Limitations of the best-fit models of SHRM	45
The resource-based view of SHRM	47
Best-practice SHRM: high-commitment models	52
HRM and performance	54
SHRM and performance: The critique	57
Measuring the impact of SHRM on performance	58
Concluding comments	60
Summary	60
Case study: High road versus low road in the civil aviation industry	62
References and further reading	63
3 Contextualising HRM
Audrey Collin with Julie Beardwell	67
Objectives	67
Case study: Muddled language hides the effect of the gig economy	68
Introduction	69
The immediate context of HRM	72
The wider context of HRM	76
Wider contextual influences on HRM today	79
Ideas and theories in the wider context of HRM	80
Underlying assumptions	81
Alternative ways of thinking	82
Ethical issues in HRM	92
Concluding comments	93
Summary	94
Case study: BHS report lays bare failure and culpability: Parliamentary inquiry lambasts collapsed store chain's ex-owner, buyer and its 'directors, advisers and hangers-on'	95
References and further reading	96

PART 2 RESOURCING THE ORGANISATION

Introduction to Part 2	100
4 HRM and the labour market
Amanda Thompson	101
Objectives	101
Case study: More than 100,000 legal roles to become automated	102
Introduction	102
The nature of labour markets	103
The supply of labour	105
Population	106
Workforce	112
Patterns of labour market participation	115
Labour demand	120
Changing patterns of demand	128
Changes in the occupational structure of employment	130
Changing forms of employment	132
Labour market outcomes: The quality of employment	133
Concluding comments	140
Summary	141
Case study: Companies struggle to fill quarter of skilled jobs vacancies	142
References and further reading	143
5 Talent management
Julie Beardwell	145
Objectives	145
Case study: Talent management in the Red Arrows	146
Introduction	146
Defining talent management	147
Strategic talent management	148
Attracting talent	149
Defining the talent required	152
Recruitment methods	153
Selecting talent	156
Retaining talent	164
Developing talent	167
Concluding comments	174
Summary	175
Case study: Staff retention and staying power: Nissan builds on loyalty at Sunderland plant	176
References and further reading	177

6 Managing equality and diversity

Mike Noon	179
Objectives	179
Case study: Women in the boardroom	180
Introduction	180
Discrimination and legal protection in the workplace	181
Why is inequality a problem and why should managers be concerned with it?	186
What are the embedded and deep-rooted causes of the problems of equality and diversity within an organisation?	191
Two problems with institutional discrimination	193
Using equality and diversity policies to deal with the problems	194
Devising equality and diversity policies	200
Sameness and difference	204
Long and short agendas	205
The process of discrimination in an organisation	205
Concluding comments	208
Summary	208
Case study: Employees of conscience?	210
References and further reading	211

PART 3 DEVELOPING THE HUMAN RESOURCE

Introduction to Part 3	214
7 Learning and development
Mairi Watson and Jim Stewart	215
Objectives	215
Case study: From business strategy to training plan	216
Introduction	216
The strategic importance of learning and development for organisations	217
Individual learning and development	218
Theories of learning	224
Theories of the process of development	229
Learning and development: The organisational context	231
Learning and development: The national perspective	249
Concluding comments	254
Summary	254
Case study: Learning IT systems	255
References and further reading	256

8 Leadership and management development

Mairi Watson and Deborah Price	260
Objectives	260
Case study: Saatchi chief's comments on 'unambitious' women come under fire from ad execs	261
Introduction	262
Defining leadership and management development (LMD)	262
The purposes of LMD	265
Developing an LMD strategy	267
International leadership and management development	284
The design of international leadership and management development programmes	287
LMD in different contexts	289
The future for LMD: The need for new thinking and new practices?	292
Concluding comments	292
Summary	293
Case study: In the NHS we Trust?	294
References and further reading	295

9 Organisational development

Mairi Watson	299
Objectives	299
Case study: World asks just how the Brits do it	300
Introduction	301
Definitions and development of OD	303
A brief history of OD	304
OD today: The last 10 years	310
The theories of OD	312
The techniques and practices of OD	315
OD: Strategy, structure and culture	328
Concluding comments	335
Summary	335
Case study: A whole system event for real-time strategic change; use of African-influenced facilitation through lekgotla	336
References and further reading	336

PART 4 THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP

Introduction to Part 4	342
------------------------	-----

10 The employment relationship and employee rights at work

Alan J. Ryan	343
--------------	-----

Objectives	343
Case study	344
Introduction	344
Distinguishing contractual and statutory employment rights	346
The importance of the contract of employment	348
Formation and the contract of employment	349
Continuation: Discrimination in employment	366
Termination of the employment contract	367
Enforcement of contractual and statutory employment rights	373
Contractual rights and wrongs?	378
Current issues	379
Conclusion	382
Summary	383
Case study: Age discrimination more widespread than sexism in the City	385
References and further reading	386

11 Employee engagement

Julia Pointon	389
Objectives	389
Case study: Alcoa Power and Propulsion	390
Introduction	391
Definitions from the practitioner literature	391
Definitions from the academic literature	392
Characteristics of engaged employees	393
Employee disengagement	395
Employee engagement and related concepts	396
Employee engagement as an exchange process	399
Employee engagement and psychological well-being	401
Organisational drivers of engagement	402
Organisational benefits of employee engagement	403
Employee engagement and the older worker	407
Measuring employee engagement	408
Organisational strategies for enhancing employee engagement	411
Governmental strategies for enhancing employee engagement	413
Patterns of engagement across the world	414
Summary	417
Case study: Engaging employees at Tasty Catering	418
References and further reading	422

12 Performance management

Deborah Price	425
Objectives	425
Case study: Mouldaplas	426
Introduction	427
The history of performance management	427
The performance imperative: Why manage performance?	428

What is performance management?	430	Definitions	510
Performance management in practice	432	Employee involvement	511
Approaches to performance appraisal	435	Participation	512
Types of performance appraisal	436	The practice of voice in the workplace	514
Limitations of performance measurement	439	Downward communication	515
Performance management or surveillance?	441	Upward problem-solving and team-working	516
Collaborative performance management	442	From team-working to high-performance management	517
Green HRM and performance management	448	The impact of HPM on organisational performance	518
Concluding comments	451	Representative participation	518
Summary	452	Trade union representation	519
Case study: Performance improvement at TRW	453	Voice and the demise of collective bargaining	519
References and further reading	454	Trade union decline: Rationale	521
13 Employee reward		Opportunities for renaissance? Trade union voice under New Labour (1997–2010): ‘Fairness, not favours’	521
Amanda Thompson and Alan J. Ryan	458	Statutory trade union recognition: A critique	523
Objectives	458	Trade union voice under the Coalition (2010–15) and Conservative (2015–) governments	523
Case study: City leaders urge radical reforms of ‘unfair’ executive pay	459	Trade union voice and membership loss: Strategies for renewal	524
Introduction	459	Boosting trade union voice: Servicing and organising	524
The historical and theoretical foundations of employee reward	460	Enter partnership	525
The development of reward systems	461	Non-union systems of employee voice: A unitary approach to collective representation?	527
The design of reward systems and persistent debates	463	Works councils and consultation in the European Union	531
Employee reward in the contemporary era	467	The European Works Council Directive	531
Components of reward	468	The Information and Consultation Directive	533
Reward management and the emergence of strategic approaches to reward	474	Concluding comments	535
Strategic reward in practice	476	Summary	536
Factors influencing organisational approaches to reward practice and pay determination	479	Case study: ‘Voice’ issues in a retail fashion organisation	537
Gender pay reporting	482	References and further reading	538
The Equality Act 2010 (EqA), ss. 64–80	483
National Minimum Wage Regulations 1999	484
Working Time Regulations 1998	486
Internal/organisational factors and the influence of sector	487
Pay determination – internal or external focus?	490
Devising pay structures	491
Pay progression	497
Concluding comments	502
Summary	502
Case study: Zizzi cuts staff perks as minimum wage increases	504
References and further reading	505
14 Employee voice
Peter Butler	508
Objectives	508
Case study: Junior doctors reject call to maintain paediatrics during strike	509
Introduction	509
		PART 5
		COMPARATIVE HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
		Introduction to Part 5	544
		15 Comparative HRM in the context of financialisation, financial crisis and Brexit
		Ian Clark	545
		Objectives	545
		Case study: The varied reaction of multinational car producers to Brexit?	546
		Introduction	546

Comparative and international HRM: The field of scholarship	547	Introduction	590
Contemporary contexts for comparative HRM: Financialisation, financial crisis, 'rule making' and 'Brexit'	553	Comparative capitalism in Asia	591
National patterns of employment and HRM: The USA, Japan and Germany	558	China: State-led capitalist model	593
Summary	583	India: State-guided capitalist model	605
Case study: Toyota committed to Japan	584	China and India: A comparative assessment	616
Case study: Mercedes-Benz in Alabama	584	Summary	620
References and further reading	585	Case study: Organising informal workers in India: Failures and opportunities	621
		References and further reading	622
16 Employment relations in emerging economies: China and India		Glossary of terms and abbreviations	625
Anita Hammer	588	Index	635
Objectives	588
Case study: New skills policy, patterns of skill formation and firms' strategies in India	589

Lecturer Resources

For password-protected online resources tailored to support the use of this textbook in teaching, please visit www.pearsoned.co.uk/beardwell

