Acknowledgements

First of all, we would like to thank all the contributors, the most important resource for this edited book. We would like to thank also all the participants of the 2016 Wolpertinger Conference organized by the European Association of University Teachers of Banking and Finance in August–September 2016 for their invaluable comments about all the papers included in this volume and all the other referees. We would like to express our gratitude to Prof. Philip Molyneux (Professor of Banking and Finance and Dean of the College of Business, Law, Education and Social Sciences), Editor-in-Chief for the Palgrave Macmillan Studies in Banking and Financial Institution Series, for approving our proposal and for his support during the publication process. Finally, our thanks go to the Palgrave Macmillan team, Aimee Dibbens and Natasha Denby for their support during the process.
