Acknowledgements

There are several people who assisted in the preparation and publication of this book. I am very grateful to all of them. I would like to thank Professor John Usher, Ms Barbara Powell and Mr Patrick Overy of Exeter University; Professor Damian Chalmers, London School of Economics; Professor Hilary Delaney, Professor Gerry Whyte and Dr Eoin O'Dell of Trinity College, Dublin; Professor Gerrit Betlem, Southampton University; Dr Alan Dignam, Queen Mary, University of London; and Dr Adam McAuley, Dublin City University – who first suggested this topic as a research area. I am particularly grateful to Dr David Tomkin for meticulously reading through drafts and proofs and making numerous suggestions. His influence and expertise have greatly improved this book. My wife Siofra, my children Rían, Cathal and Donncha, and my parents Mícheal and Josephine, have all been most supportive and encouraging throughout. I would like to thank all at Hart Publishing for making the authorship process so enjoyable. Inevitably no text can be error-free, and any errors or omissions that remain are solely attributable to the author who invites comments and suggestions, and can be contacted by email at macmaolc@tcd.ie.
