

Food Supply Chain Management

Issues for the hospitality and retail sectors

Edited by Jane F. Eastham, Liz Sharples and Stephen D. Ball

BUTTERWORTH
HEINEMANN

OXFORD AUCKLAND BOSTON JOHANNESBURG MELBOURNE NEW DELHI

Contents

List of contributors	ix
Foreword by Richard Lamming	xv
Preface	xvii
Part 1	The Supply Chain
Chapter 1	The catering and food retail industries: a contextual insight Jane F. Eastham, Stephen D. Ball, Liz Sharples	3
Chapter 2	Food and society Sean Beer	21
Chapter 3	The scope and structure of the food supply chain Kathryn Webster	37
Chapter 4	Concepts of collaboration: supply chain management in a global food industry Andrew Fearne, David Hughes, Rachel Duffy	55
Chapter 5	Current practice: inter-firm relationships in the food and drinks supply chain Colin Bamford	90
Chapter 6	Stakeholders, ethics and social responsibility in the food supply chain Jennifer A. Wade	111
Part 2	The Management of the Supply Chain
Chapter 7	Strategic supply and the management of relationships Paul D. Cousins	127

Perspective 9	The future of the food supply chain: a perspective looking up the chain Sean Beer	304
Perspective 10	E-shopping: the Peapod grocery experience Denis Towill	310
Perspective 11	Changes in supply chain structure: the impact of expanding consumer choice Stephen Allen	314
	Glossary	324
	Index	332