

50

Proven
Ways to Build
Restaurant
Sales & Profit

A pink piggy bank is the central visual element. The number '50' is positioned at the top, above the words 'Proven Ways to Build Restaurant Sales & Profit'. The piggy bank is shown in profile, facing left, and has a smooth, glossy finish.

Edited by

William R. Marvin

Hospitality Masters Press

PO Box 280 • Gig Harbor, WA 98335

Table of Contents

About the Hospitality Masters Series	11
Introduction	12

PART 1

Build Sales

1. Marketing: keep it in the neighborhood	15
Tom Feltenstein
2. Get flexible, get cozy, get wealthy!	17
Phyllis Ann Marshall
3. Expectations: the key to guest satisfaction	19
Susan Clarke
4. Pre-shift sales briefing	21
Bill Main
5. Build sales through environmental enhancement	24
Gloria Boileau
6. Start a late night menu	27
Bill Marvin
7. Change your menu to spark customer traffic	29
Tom Feltenstein
8. "WOW" your sales: the ZORK interview	31
Barry Cohen
9. Wine sales for dummies	33
Howard Cutson
10. Pick a signature item and grow for it!	35
Phyllis Ann Marshall
11. Making discounts work	37
Tom Feltenstein
12. Your uniforms leave a lasting impression	39
Gloria Boileau
13. The specialty drink menu	41
Howard Cutson
14. Tap the power of sampling	43
Bill Main
15. Build sales by creating more value	45
Susan Clarke

50 Proven Ways to Build Restaurant Sales & Profit

16. Stop wasting ... people!	47
Phyllis Ann Marshall
17. Be #1 without being #1	49
Tom Feltenstein
18. Sales mix: a tool for creating profit	51
Ron Yudd
19. Alcohol-free alternatives	53
Howard Cutson
20. Lunch on the Fast Track	55
Jim Laube
21. Put empty space to use	56
Phyllis Ann Marshall
22. Color influences buyers	58
Gloria Boileau
23. Scripting and role play	60
Bill Main
24. Zone merchandising	62
Tom Feltenstein
25. Build loyalty, not the check average	64
Bill Marvin

PART 2

Control Costs

26. Beat the clock to raise productivity	68
Jim Laube
27. Position descriptions that improve productivity	69
Bill Marvin
28. Checklist for a profitable purveyor relationship	72
Ron Yudd
29. Garbage – a blinding flash of the obvious	74
Bill Main
30. Improve beverage controls	76
Howard Cutson
31. Lower Worker's Comp premiums	78
Jim Laube
32. Purchasing for profit	80
Ron Yudd
33. Change your work week	82
Bill Marvin
34. Avoid the great bartender rip-off	84
Howard Cutson
35. Develop inventory statistics	86
Jim Laube

50 Proven Ways to Build Restaurant Sales & Profit

PART 3

Adopt Profitable Ideas

36. Screen applicants, not applications!	89
Peter Good
37. “WOW” your staff: create psychological ownership	91
Barry Cohen
38. Open your books to maximize performance!	93
Rudy Miick
39. 24-hour recruiting	95
Peter Good
40. The power of presence	97
Bill Marvin
41. “WOW” your community	99
Barry Cohen
42. Hire your way to profit!	101
Rudy Miick
43. Just say charge it!	103
Jim Laube
44. “WOW” management: just TEAM it!	104
Barry Cohen
45. The wrong trainer	107
Peter Good
46. Hiring a bartender	109
Howard Cutson
47. The menu gauntlet: only the strong survive	111
Ron Yudd
48. Employee evaluations in 10 minutes or less	113
Peter Good
49. Higher motivation = lower turnover + more profit	115
Susan Clarke
50. Art & Science	117
Rudy Miick

Contributing Authors

Background and contact information	121
--	-----