

ASPECTS OF TOURISM 33

Series Editors: Chris Cooper (University of Queensland, Australia),
C. Michael Hall (University of Canterbury New Zealand)
and Dallen Timothy (Arizona State University, USA)

Codes of Ethics in Tourism Practice, Theory, Synthesis

David A. Fennell and David C. Malloy

CHANNEL VIEW PUBLICATIONS
Clevedon • Buffalo • Toronto

Contents

Part 1: Context

Preface	3
Setting the Stage: Epistemology and Morality	3
The Problem.	6

Part 2: Calculative Thinking

1 Organisational Expressions of Ethics	13
Introduction	13
Codes of Ethics	16
Conclusion	26
2 Surveying the Tourism Landscape.	27
Introduction	27
Ethics in Tourism	27
The Emergence of Codes of Ethics in Tourism.	28
Non-Voluntary and Voluntary Mechanisms.	35
Codes by Whom and for Whom.	42
Other Tools in the Search for Tourism Sustainability	46
3 Code Development and Compliance	56
Introduction	56
Code Development in General.	56
The Language of Codes.	61
Code Development in Practice: Tourism Examples	68
Compliance	77
Conclusion	88

Part 3: Meditative Thinking

4 Mapping the Theoretical Terrain of Ethics	91
Introduction	91
The Nature of Morality	91
Ethics: What Should We Do?	99
Moral Development	107
Values	108
Applied Ethics	110
Conclusion	117

Part 4: Synthesis

5	Codes-in-Action: Theory and Practice	121
	Introduction	121
	Commitment to a Code: The Individual and the Organisation .	121
	International Codes and Integrative Social Contract Theory . .	131
	WTO's Global Code of Ethics for Tourism	135
	Conclusion	138
6	Conclusion	140
	Sources for Further Guidance	150
	Glossary	152
	Appendix 1: San Martin de los Andes	157
	Appendix 2: UNWTO Global Code of Ethics for Tourism	161
	Bibliography	167
	Index	181