

Event Sponsorship

Ian McDonnell and Malcolm Moir

Contents

List of illustrations	x
Foreword	xii
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 What is sponsorship?	1
Learning outcomes	1
Introduction	2
What is the marketing mix?	2
What are integrated marketing communications?	4
What is sponsorship?	6
Trends in sponsorship	8
A short history of sponsorship	9
Summary	11
Discussion questions	11
References	14
2 Sponsorship as a marketing medium	16
Learning outcomes	16
Introduction	17
Sponsorship as marketing communication channel	21
Conclusion	26
Discussion questions	26
References	28
3 The marketing benefits to the sponsor	30
Learning outcomes	30
Introduction	31
Brand awareness	35
Brand image	35
Target market specific audiences	36
Media coverage	38
Hospitality and entertainment for clients	39

Contents

Client data base additions	40
Sales promotion	40
Product exposure	41
Conclusion	42
Discussion questions	42
References	44
4 The 'fit' between sponsor and sponsee	46
Learning outcomes	46
Introduction	47
What is 'fit'?	47
Criteria for fit	53
Expectancy	53
Relevancy	54
Dimensions of fit	54
Target market	54
Image	55
Geography	55
Typicality	55
Complementarity	55
Clash	56
Conclusion: fit in a sponsorship proposal	56
Discussion questions	57
References	58
5 Integrated marketing communication	60
Learning outcomes	60
Introduction	61
Background	61
Levels of integration	61
Benefits of IMC	62
Sponsorship and IMC	63
Social media and impact on IMC	63
Barriers to IMC	63
Communications theory	64
Attention, Interest, Desire and Action – AIDA	65
Principles of IMC	66
Sponsorship and IMC	67
Summary	70
Discussion questions	71
Bibliography	71

6	The sponsorship proposal	73
	Learning outcomes	73
	Introduction	74
	Two approaches	74
	Sponsorship prospectus	74
	Sponsorship proposal	75
	Target markets	75
	Delivery of benefits	75
	Sponsorship package	75
	Preparation	76
	Staff resources	76
	Marketing plan	76
	Audience profile	77
	Organisation audit	77
	Developing the benefits package	77
	Sponsorship 'hierarchy'	77
	Establishing value	78
	The dilemma of contra	78
	Carrying it off	78
	Step 1 – creating a hit list	78
	Step 2 – developing the proposal	79
	Step 3 – selling the sponsorship	79
	Step 4 – servicing the sponsorship	80
	Looking at the event marketing plan from a sponsor's perspective	80
	Benefits inventory	81
	Sponsorship proposal template	82
	Executive summary	82
	Background on company	82
	Background on event	82
	Market research	82
	The pitch	82
	The benefits	82
	Marketing plan	83
	Organisation inventory	83
	Audience	83
	Membership	83
	Mailing list	83
	Current/past sponsors	83
	Government support	83
	Board/patrons	83
	Sister/linked organisations	83
	Image	84
	Sponsorship targets	84
	Benefits	84
	Partnerships/cross promotions	84

Contents

Marketing and advertising	84
On-site	84
Useful printed information for preparing the proposal	84
Sponsorship servicing plan	85
Summary	85
Bibliography	86
7 Managing the sponsorship	87
Learning outcomes	87
Introduction	88
Sponsorship agreements	88
Breach of contract	88
Contract	89
Contents of a contract	90
Term of contract	90
Publicity	92
Corporate entertainment	92
Ambush marketing	93
Protecting the event	94
Trademark	94
Legislation	94
Sponsorship management plan	96
Maintain long-term relationships between sponsor and the event producer	97
Effective resource management	98
Summary	100
Discussion questions	100
Bibliography	100
8 Measuring ROI (return on investment)	102
Learning outcomes	102
Introduction	103
Valuing sponsorship	103
Timing	105
Sponsorship management plan	105
Investment	106
Measurement	106
Sales effectiveness	106
Media exposure	107
Communication effectiveness	107
Sponsorship evaluation services	108
Summary	111
Discussion questions	111
References	111

9	Alternatives to sponsorship	113
	Learning outcomes	113
	Introduction	114
	Revenue sources	114
	Merchandise	115
	Broadcast and content	116
	Corporate hospitality	116
	Government grants	117
	Advertising sales	118
	Fundraising	118
	Logan Youth Music Exchange	118
	'Walk on Water'	119
	Philanthropy	119
	Bequests and planned giving	120
	Cause-related marketing	121
	Philanthrocapitalism	122
	Finally sponsorship again	122
	Summary	124
	Discussion questions	124
	Bibliography	125
10	Trends in sponsorship	126
	Learning outcomes	126
	Introduction	127
	Accountability	127
	Blurring of lines	128
	Corporate television programming	128
	Brands that invent their own events	129
	The Creators Project	129
	How is this an emerging trend?	130
	Red Bull Air Race	130
	Cause-related marketing	131
	Ethical issues	132
	Crowd source funding	134
	Outraged supporters turn to online donating	136
	Bizzare sponsorship	137
	Summary	137
	Discussion questions	137
	Bibliography	138
	Index	139