

Finance of International Trade

Eric Bishop

ELSEVIER
BUTTERWORTH
HEINEMANN

AMSTERDAM BOSTON HEIDELBERG LONDON NEW YORK OXFORD
PARIS SAN DIEGO SAN FRANCISCO SINGAPORE SYDNEY TOKYO

Contents

Preface		9
Chapter 1	Principal players	1
	Exporters	1
	Importers	1
	Freight forwarders	2
	Warehousemen	3
	Carriers	3
	Insurers	4
	Banks	5
	Factors	6
	Government agencies and international financial institutions	8
Chapter 2	Cross-border trading	10
	The risks involved	10
	Contracts	13
	Methods of payment	17
Chapter 3	Bills for collection	22
	Parties to a collection	22
	D/P bill for collection (documents against payment)	22
	D/A bill for collection (documents against acceptance)	23
	Uniform Rules for Collections (Publication No. 522)	30

Chapter 4	The irrevocable documentary credit	33
	Parties to a documentary credit	34
	Constructing the credit	37
	Issuing the credit	40
	Documents required under documentary credits	43
	Transport documents	46
	Confirmation of a documentary credit	52
	Silent confirmation	55
	Amendments to the terms of an irrevocable credit	59
	Recourse	61
	Handling discrepant documents	63
	Relevant articles of UCP569	68
Chapter 5	Guarantees	76
	Types of guarantee	76
	Standby letters of credit	92
	International Standby Practices: ISP98	95
Chapter 6	Insurance	100
	Short-term export credit insurance	100
	Marine insurance	103
Chapter 7	Foreign exchange risk	107
	Forward premium and discount	108
	Fixed forward exchange contracts	108
	Option forward contracts	109
	Closing out forward contracts	110
	Borrowing in currency	111
	Buying currency and holding on deposit	111
	Foreign currency options	111
Chapter 8	Special types of credits	113
	The revolving credit	113
	The instalment credit	116
	The red clause credit	116
	The green clause credit	118
	The advance payment credit	118

	The transferable credit	119
	The back-to-back credit	123
	The part payment credit	130
Chapter 9	Financing	132
	Financing through bills for collection	136
	Negotiation of bills for collection	138
	Pre-shipment finance	138
	Post-shipment finance	140
	Assignment/purchase of trade receivables	142
Chapter 10	Forfaiting	144
	Countertrade	148
Chapter 11	Electronic commerce for international trade settlement	162
	Bolero	162
Chapter 12	Prevention of fraud in international trade	166
	What measures can be taken to minimize the risk of fraud?	166
Appendix 1	Trade finance quiz	174
Appendix 2	Guide to exporters and importers	177
Appendix 3	Suggested checklist for beneficiaries when preparing documents for presentation under a documentary credit	187
Appendix 4	Answers to Case Study 5.8	189
Appendix 5	Answers to Quiz	192
	Glossary	195
	Bibliography	198
	Index	199