

Anton Shone and Bryn Parry

SUCCESSFUL EVENT MANAGEMENT

A PRACTICAL HANDBOOK: THIRD EDITION

Australia • Brazil • Japan • Korea • Mexico • Singapore • Spain • United Kingdom • United States

CONTENTS

List of figures vii
List of case studies ix
Forms for the new event manager xii
Preface xiii
Walk through tour xv
About the website xvii

PART ONE THE EVENTS BUSINESS 1

1 An introduction to events 3

Introduction 3
Definitions and frameworks 4
Categories and typologies 5
Historical contexts and precedents 7
Characteristics of events 15
Summary and references 20

2 The market demand for events 22

Introduction 22
Size and scope of the events market 23
Determinants and motivations 28
The structure of demand for events 34
Summary and references 37

3 The events business: supply and suppliers 39

Introduction 39
Governmental support infrastructure, industry associations and professional bodies 40
Commercial event and event support organizations 41
Voluntary bodies, committees and individuals 50
Summary and references 51

4 Social, economic, political and developmental implications 52

Introduction 52
Social and community implications 54
Economic implications 58
Political implications 61
Developmental implications 64
Summary and references 67

PART TWO MANAGING EVENTS 69

5 Making a start and planning the event 71

Introduction 71
Getting organized 72
Organizational issues in events of varying sizes 74
Event feasibility: finding and testing an idea 77
The screening process 79
Progressing the idea 86
The planning process 88
Objectives, environmental search and information-gathering 91
Operational planning and demand 94
Financial planning 96
Marketing planning 101
Getting it together 102
Summary and references 102

6 Financial management and the budget 104

Introduction 104
 Objectives and financial planning 105
 Creating a budget 108
 The detailed budget 113
 Who spends what 117
 Other sources of income 120
 Sponsorship and public funding 122
 Summary and references 127

7 Event logistics and supplies 128

Introduction 128
 Finding the venue 129
 Logistics 131
 Supplies, transport and distribution 136
 Catering 138
 Technical facilities 145
 Summary and references 150

8 Marketing and public relations for events 151

Introduction 151
 The target market 152
 How to influence the target market 156
 The marketing plan 160
 Marketing for a new event 161
 Marketing for repeat events and new editions 164
 Summary and references 170

9 Risk management and legalities 171

Introduction 171
 Risk management 172
 Plans and maps 178
 Legalities and insurance 179
 Summary and references 184

10 Event project management and set up issues 186

Introduction 186
 The event as a project 187
 Ticketing and pre-booking issues 191
 Operational activities 193
 Security: issues, personnel and a control point 198
 Media handling 200
 Rehearsal and briefings 201
 Layout of entrances and visitor reception 202
 The event experience 205
 Summary and references 210

11 The organization manager and the team: during the event 212

Introduction 212
 Organization 213
 Organizational effectiveness 215
 Staffing: professional or volunteer management? 220
 Factors influencing the number and type of staff 223
 Finding staff 226
 Running the event on the day 231
 Organization and briefing of staff, stewards and volunteers 235
 Summary and references 237

12 Close-down, evaluation and legacies 239

Introduction 239
 Close-down 240
 Evaluation 245
 Divestment and legacies 250
 The life expiry of events 251
 Summary and references 255

Glossary 257

Index 259

LIST OF FIGURES

CHAPTER 1

- 1.1 A suggested categorization of special events 5
- 1.2 A typology of events 6
- 1.3 Characteristics of special events as a service 16
- 1.4 Elements in the ambience and service of an event 18

CHAPTER 2

- 2.1 Assessing market scope and the economics impacts of events 29
- 2.2 A combination of motives for participating in an event, such as an opera gala 30
- 2.3 Possible motives for attending events (these may be primary or secondary) 31
- 2.4 Event component mix 34
- 2.5 Demand potentials 35

CHAPTER 3

- 3.1 Infrastructure of the events business 41
- 3.2 Events organizations (commercial and others) 43
- 3.3 Matrix of sample distribution channels and activities 44

CHAPTER 4

- 4.1 The implications of special events 53
- 4.2 Development of tourist destinations: some examples 57
- 4.3 Elements of tourism 58
- 4.4 Political stakeholders for events 64

CHAPTER 5

- 5.1 Example of an events management committee 73
- 5.2 Development of organizational structures in events 74
- 5.3 Generating ideas 79
- 5.4 Concept screening 80
- 5.5 Example pilot questionnaire for proposed events 81
- 5.6 Events screening form 85
- 5.7 Examples of possible events objects 87
- 5.8 Simple pre-event planner 89
- 5.9 Planning as a management activity for an event 90
- 5.10 The planning process for events management 92
- 5.11 Information gathering and environmental searching 95
- 5.12 Simple example of marketing lead times: Middleburg Sports Day 97

CHAPTER 6

- 6.1 Examples of various event objectives 106
- 6.2 Cashflow at events 107
- 6.3 Some common budgeting mistakes 108
- 6.4 Preliminary (outline) budget form 111
- 6.5 Example of comparative outline budgets for a proposed company party 112
- 6.6 Break-even chart 113
- 6.7 General budget form 114
- 6.8 Budget: Detailed income and costs – final outcome summary 118
- 6.9 Purchase order form 119
- 6.10 Petty cash voucher 120
- 6.11 Sources of additional revenue in addition to ticket or admission prices 121

- 6.12 Types of event funding 122
- 6.13 Sources of patronage, grant funding and other income for events 126

CHAPTER 7

- 7.1 Venue finding checklist 130
- 7.2 The events management process – organizational and logistical activities 132
- 7.3 Example of a logistics production schedule 135
- 7.4 Logistic sequence for events 137
- 7.5 Example equipment receipt form 138
- 7.6 Alternative cafeteria flow services 139
- 7.7 Examples of seated room layouts 140
- 7.8 Issues in determining menus and refreshments 143
- 7.9 Further considerations in food and drinks services 144
- 7.10 Example communications contact list 149

CHAPTER 8

- 8.1 Key questions to ask about the target market 153
- 8.2 Catchment and origin 154
- 8.3 Example of a catchment area – the Middleburg music festival 154
- 8.4 Influencing the market 157
- 8.5 Determinants for participation in an event ('Buying Process') 158
- 8.6 Individual's expectations of an event 158
- 8.7 Event decision making process for a university ball 159
- 8.8 Creating the marketing plan from the event objectives 160
- 8.9 Elements of the events marketing plan 162
- 8.10 Event components and target market matrix 163
- 8.11 Examples of marketing expenditure items 164
- 8.12 Event marketing budget form (adapt as required) 165
- 8.13 Example of a marketing schedule 166

CHAPTER 9

- 9.1 Various risk categories 173
- 9.2 Risk analysis quadrant 173

- 9.3 Example of a risk assessment form 175
- 9.4 Example of a risk control plan 176
- 9.5 Event site map coverage 179
- 9.6 Permits, licences and legalities 182

CHAPTER 10

- 10.1 Event and project management activities 187
- 10.2 Work breakdown structure for a wedding marquee 189
- 10.3 Example of a Gantt chart 190
- 10.4 Ticket design – information to include on a ticket 193
- 10.5 Pre-operations on the day 196
- 10.6 Pre-event briefing meeting for all staff 202
- 10.7 Example of the component elements at a quiz dinner 206
- 10.8 The event service experience 209

CHAPTER 11

- 11.1 Simplified events organization structure 214
- 11.2 Visitor services department at the Middleburg music festival 215
- 11.3 The culture of an event organization 218
- 11.4 Framework for an event organization's performance 219
- 11.5 Example job advert for an events co-ordinator 221
- 11.6 A committee of volunteers 222
- 11.7 Factors influencing the number of staff required 223
- 11.8 Concentration of core services and staff 225
- 11.9 Job description form 227
- 11.10 Staffing an event 228
- 11.11 Activities on the day 234

CHAPTER 12

- 12.1 Final phase of event activities 240
- 12.2 Event history contact record form 244
- 12.3 Types of information for evaluation of events 246
- 12.4 Sources of information for evaluation 246
- 12.5 Visitor satisfaction at the Middleburg music festival 248
- 12.6 Mystery guest report (extract) 249

LIST OF CASE STUDIES

	CITY	COUNTRY	DATE	PAGE
CHAPTER 1
1	Olympic Games Leisure/sporting events	Olympia	Greece	776BC	8
2	Roman Wedding Personal events	Rome	Italy	AD100	10
3	Coronation of Elizabeth I Cultural events	London	England	1559	12
4	Paris Exposition Organizational events	Paris	France	1889	14
CHAPTER 2
5	Edinburgh Festivals Size and scope of events	Edinburgh	Scotland	2006	24
6	UK Wedding Market Estimating market size	—	UK	2005	26
7	Berlin Film Festival Motives for attending events	Berlin	Germany	2009	32
8	North Sea Jazz Festival The event 'umbrella'	Rotterdam	Netherlands	2009	36
CHAPTER 3
9	Netherlands Board of Tourism and Conventions (NBTC) Example of an infrastructure organization	Leidschendam	Netherlands	2009	42
10	Coeva Example of a commercial organization	Paris	France	2009	47
CHAPTER 4
11	Giant Mountain's Beer Festival Community implications of events	Vrchlabi	Czech Republic	2009	55
12	Liverpool European Capital of Culture Economic implications of events	Liverpool	England	2008	59

13	Salzburg Festival Political implications for events	Salzburg	Austria	1920	62
14	The Olympic Games in Context Developmental implications	London	England	2012	65
CHAPTER 5
15	Avignon Festival Changing organizations / professionalization of events	Avignon	France	2009	75
16	University College, Cork Hockey, Club Volunteer organizations and event screening	Cork	Ireland	2006	83
17	Reopening of the Scottish Parliament Environmental searching	Edinburgh	Scotland	1999	93
18	Opening Night of the Millennium Dome Demand planning	Greenwich	England	2000	98
CHAPTER 6
19	Annual Dinner of the Ecclesbourne Valley Railway Event break-even	Derby	England	2009	115
20	Sponsorship and the Tour de France Sponsorship	Paris	France	2009	123
CHAPTER 7
21	DB Schenker Event logistics	Berlin	Germany	2009	133
CHAPTER 8
22	Lake Vyrnwy Marathon Marketing catchment areas	Lake Vyrnwy	Wales	2009	155
23	Geneva International Motor Show Recording of visitor information	Geneva	Switzerland	2010	168
CHAPTER 9
24	The Moshpit at Roskilde Crowd safety	Roskilde	Denmark	2000	177
25	Clacton Air Show Emergency service arrangements	Clacton	England	2009	180
26	Regia Anglorum historical re-enactment Insurance and event contractual issues	Wychurst	England	2009	182

CHAPTER 10

27	ECOC Conference On-line Bookings Event on-line booking systems	Rimini	Italy	2003	194
28	Wirksworth Wapentake Site layout issues	Wirksworth	England	2008	203
29	Glastonbury Festival Atmosphere of events	Glastonbury	England	2009	207

CHAPTER 11

30	Mainz Carnival Volunteer staffing	Mainz	Germany	2009	216
31	Deventer Book Market Professional co-ordination	Deventer	Netherlands	2009	232

CHAPTER 12

32	World Golf Championships Clearing up	Valderrama	Spain	2000	242
33	Commonwealth Games Event legacies	Manchester	England	2002	252
34	Royal Agricultural Show The decline and termination of an event	Stoneleigh	England	2009	254