

F EATURE &
M AGAZINE
W
WRITING

ACTION, ANGLE
AND ANECDOTES
THIRD EDITION

 WILEY-BLACKWELL

A John Wiley & Sons, Ltd., Publication

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
About the Authors	x
PART I: Reading, Writing and Relevance	1
1 What Makes a Story Interesting?	3
2 How to Find an Original Idea	14
3 Strong Angles and Focused Ideas	26
4 Digging Deep for Original Stories	39
5 Talking Pointers: How to Conduct Great Interviews	55
PART II: Taking Your Articles to the Freelance Market	73
6 To Market, To Market: Shopping Your Words Around	75
7 Pitch-Perfect Query Letters	91
PART III: Adding Action and Anecdotes	107
8 Where to Begin: The First 100 Words	109
9 Action, Brevity and Style	123
10 Anecdotes: Mining for Gold	138
PART IV: Different Formats, Different Results	151
11 Briefs: Shortcuts to Publication	153
12 Profiles: Slices of Life	167
13 Writing Nonfiction Narratives	186
14 Eliminating the Ho-Hum From the How-To	211
15 Making a Timely Calendar Connection	225
16 Writing About Trends and Issues	237

PART V: Exploring Digital Opportunities	253
17 Building a Story Blog	255
18 Long-Form Digital Storytelling	265
PART VI: Preparing the Final Draft	277
19 Advancing Beyond the Slush Pile	279
20 Before You Hit the “Send” Button: A Checklist	293
21 Careers in Magazine Publishing	299
Appendix: Shoptalk: A Glossary of Magazine Lingo	314
Index	325