

Manual of Travel Agency Practice

Third edition

Gwenda Syratt FInstTT, FInstCM

with

Jane Archer

ELSEVIER
BUTTERWORTH
HEINEMANN

AMSTERDAM BOSTON HEIDELBERG LONDON NEW YORK OXFORD
PARIS SAN DIEGO SAN FRANCISCO SINGAPORE SYDNEY TOKYO

CONTENTS

Foreword	ix
Preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction	1
2 Package and group tours	3
Introduction	4
Planning a group tour	6
3 Short breaks, special interest holidays, theme parks, holiday centres, accommodation and theatre reservations	21
Short breaks	22
Special interest holidays	23
Useful addresses	26
National parks	28
Skiing	30
Holiday centres/hotels	32
Accommodation	37
Theatre reservations	40
4 Coaching and incoming tourism	44
Coaching	45
European coach holidays	48
Making a reservation	48
Incoming tourism	51
5 Cruising	62
Introduction	63
Passengers and passenger density	64
Factors in cruise costs	65
Some nautical terms	66
International river cruise destinations	67
Ocean, river and canal cruising	68
Client information on cruising	71
Cruising areas	73
6 Car rental	78
Benefits of car rental	79
Growth of car rental	79

Tariffs	80
Car groups	81
Fuel consumption	81
Car rental insurance	82
Organising car rental	84
7 Ferry services and railways	90
Ferry services	91
Making the reservation	96
Railways	97
8 Airlines	105
Introduction	106
IATA traffic and conference areas	107
Most logical routings	110
Aircraft types	111
Fear of flying	112
Deep vein thrombosis	112
Seat pitch	114
Charter airlines	114
Organising an itinerary	119
Time differences and elapsed flying time	121
Passports, visas and health regulations	123
Special services for passengers	125
Airport information	127
Stopover holidays	128
9 Technology	135
Introduction	136
Understanding systems	136
Travel agency systems	136
Viewdata	139
Global distribution systems	142
GDSs and e-commerce	143
10 The Internet	145
Introduction	146
A brief history	146
How the Internet works	146
Getting on-line	147
Tour operators and the Internet	147
The Internet as a marketing tool	150
Travel portals	151
11 Insurance	154
Holiday insurance	155
What is included in a travel insurance policy	155
Exclusions	156

Specialist insurance – pre-existing illness, dangerous activities	157
E111 coverage	158
Association of British Travel Agents (ABTA) code of conduct	158
Terminology explained	159
Making a claim	161
Information required before issuing a policy	164
Insurance tips for travel agents	165
12 Finance	167
Introduction	168
How travel agents earn their income	168
Operational costs of an independent travel agency	169
Security	170
Legal and regulatory requirements	170
Handling cheques and credit cards	172
Cheques	172
Foreign currency	175
Travellers' cheques	176
The euro	177
Disposable income	180
13 Skills	182
Skills required to work in a travel agency	183
Product benefits for the client	183
Using the telephone	185
Sales techniques in the office	186
Identifying the client's needs	187
Closing the sale	188
After-sales service	188
Client relations	189
Time management	191
14 Handling complaints	193
Introduction	194
ABTA and arbitration	196
Solutions	203
Glossary of terms	219
Index	221