

DAVID MCDOWALL

BRITAIN IN CLOSE-UP

Contents

	Introduction	7
	The political background
1	Snapshots of Britain	10
	A sense of identity; the core and the periphery; the north–south divide; cities and towns; ‘sunset’ and ‘sunrise’ areas; town and country; rich and poor
2	The system of government	26
	The Crown; Whitehall – the seat of government; Westminster – the seat of Parliament; the electoral system; the party system; the House of Commons; the House of Lords; parliamentary procedure; parliamentary committees
3	Government and politics: debate and change	38
	The monarchy; the constitution; reform of the House of Lords; the Honours system; government: the record; the difficulties of reforming government; the Civil Service; quangos; Parliament – in need of reform?; electoral reform; changes in the electorate and political parties
4	The forces of law and order	55
	The legal system of England and Wales; dealing with crime; the treatment of offenders; young offenders; the legal profession and the courts; the legal system of Scotland; the police
5	Local government	66
	A changing system; the tension between central government and local democracy
6	Working Britain	74
	The economic problems; owners and managers; the financial sector; the trade unions; the workforce; the energy industries; the causes of industrial failure; the European Monetary Union
7	A social profile	90
	The family; social class; gender; young people; ethnic minorities
8	Culture and style: national self-expression	102
	The community and the individual; the fine distinctions of speech; the rural ideal; dress codes; nostalgia and modernity; urban sub-cultures; the culture of sport; the arts; culture for the community; the National Lottery

9	The importance of not being English Northern Ireland; Wales; Scotland	122
10	A view of Europe and the world Foreign policy dilemmas; Britain in Europe; the Commonwealth; the end of Empire?; the armed forces; the question of security	138
11	Educating the nation Primary and secondary education; the story of British schools; the educational reforms of the 1980s; education under Labour; the private sector; further and higher education	147
12	The media: the press, radio and television The press; radio and television; government and the media; privacy and self-regulation of the press	159
13	Religion in Britain The Church of England; the other Christian churches; other religions	170
14	Transport: the threat of paralysis Rail; roads; air; Greater London; the need for infrastructure	179
15	The environment The environment and pollution; country and town planning; housing	186
16	The nation's health and well-being The National Health Service; social security and social services	194
17	Time for a drink: the British pub	202
	Glossary	204
	Index	205