

Guest Service in the Hospitality Industry

Paul Bagdan, Ph.D., C.H.E.

WILEY

Contents

Preface xiii

Acknowledgments xvii

Section I: Introduction, History, and Basics of Guest Service 1

Chapter 1:

The Basics of Guest Service 3

Introduction

- A Science and an Art 4
- Integration of Customer Service 4
- Meeting Guests' Expectations 4
- Overview of Hospitality—How It Relates to Customer Service 5
- Examples of Bad Service 5
- Excuses for Bad Service 6
- Reasons Why Customers Do Not Complain 7
- Good Service Can Make Up for Bad Food 7
- Competitive Advantage of Service 9
- Bad News Travels Fast 10
- The Value of a Returning Customer 11
- History of Service in the United States 12
- Background of Service 14
- Legends in Service Management 16
- Case Studies 19

Chapter 2:

Defining Guest Service 23

- Defining Quality Guest Service 24
 - Aspects of Guest Service 24
 - Perishability of Service 25
 - Media Reports of Customer Service 25
 - Types of Service 26
 - Tangibles and Intangibles 27

Meeting Guests' Expectations 28
 Levels of Expectations 29
 Order of Expectations 29
 Inputs That Set Expectations 30
 Scenario A: Fast-Food Restaurant 31
 Scenario B: Fine-Dining Restaurant 32
 Issues with Exceeding Expectations 34
Case Studies 36

Chapter 3:
Problem Solving for Guest Service 39

Considering Different Points of View 40
 What Do People Really Want? 40
Dealing with Guest Issues 40
 How to Handle Complaints 40
 G.U.E.S.T. 42
Types of Customers 44
 Level I—Require Least Work 44
 Level II—Require Moderate Work 46
 Level III—Require Substantial Work 47
 Handling Angry Customers 49
 Staff Expectations 53
 Is the Guest Always Right? 53
 Can You Say No? 54
 It's All the Little Things 55
 Watching for Red Flags 55
 "Miss" Versus "Ma'am" Titles 56
 Remembering Names 56
Psychological Theories 57
 Transactional Analysis 57
 Temperaments 58
 Keirsey Temperament Sorter 58
 Emotional Intelligence (EI) 58
Case Studies 59

Section II:
Relating Service to the Sectors of the Hospitality Industry 67

Chapter 4:
The Guest Service of Food 69

Introduction: About the Service of Food 70

Positions	71
Front of House	71
Back of House	72
BOH Staff Comparison	73
FOH Service Staff	74
Wares and Settings	75
Place Settings	75
Mise en place	78
Service Styles	80
American Dinner Service	80
Service Style Overview	84
Related Points	90
Volume	90
Technology	90
Case Studies	92
Chapter 5:
The Guest Service of Beverages	95
Introduction	96
Beverage Positions	96
Wares	98
Beverages and Their Service	101
Knowing Wines	101
Serving Wines	103
Knowing Cocktails	104
Cocktail-Ordering Terminology	106
Knowing Beer	107
Knowing Coffees, Teas, and Waters	108
Corkage Fee	110
Final Thought	110
Case Studies	111
Chapter 6:
The Guest Service of Lodging	115
Introduction	116
Service Positions	116
Porter	116
Front Desk	117
Rates	118
Checking-In a Guest	118
Checking Out	119
Podiums/Pods	121
Dealing with Front-Desk Issues	121
Back Office	123

Concierge	123
Housekeeping	123
Case Studies	128

Chapter 7: The Guest Service of Events 131

Introduction: Special Pressure from Events	132
Pre-Event Services: Setting up the Event	132
Assess the Environment	133
Managing Touch Points	135
Predict the Outcomes	137
Plan Success	139
Monitoring the Weaknesses	142
Assessing the Quality	144
Case Studies	147

Chapter 8: The Guest Service of Travel and Tourism 151

Introduction	152
Definition of Tourism: The World	152
Step 1: Know the Product	153
Step 2: Know the Client—Understanding the Guest	156
Step 3: Know Yourself—The Travel Professional	158
Step 4: Blend the Goals to Best Meet the Desired Goals of All	159
Case Studies	162

Chapter 9: The Guest Service of Casinos 165

Introduction	166
Types of Casinos	166
From Criminal to Respectable	166
Complex Entities	166
Floor Positions	167
Unique Environmental Characteristics	168
Main Goal	168
High-Tech	168
Free Drinks	168
Food and Beverage	169
Rooms	169
VIPs	169
Meetings and Events	170
Atmosphere	170
Other Activities	171

Security	171
Out-of-Town Gamblers Versus Local Gamblers	171
Case Studies	174

Section III: Assessments and Planning 179

Chapter 10: Research and Tools 181

Introduction	182
Setting Up for Research	182
Why: Collect Background Information	182
What: Determine What to Measure	183
Who: Choose the Population	183
How: Chose the Method and Measurement	183
Tools and Techniques	184
Affinity Diagram	185
Benchmarking	186
Brainstorming	187
Check Sheets	188
Control Chart	189
Cost-Benefit Analysis	190
Cost of Error	191
Delphi Method	192
Fishbone Diagram	193
Flow Chart	194
Focus Group	195
Force-Field Analysis	196
Gantt Chart	197
Multi-voting	198
Pareto Chart	199
Poka-Yoke	200
Process Reengineering	201
Pros-Cons Sheet	201
Root-Cause Analysis	202
Scatter Diagram	203
Secret Shoppers	204
SERVQUAL	206
Six Sigma	207
Surveys	207
External Awards, Certifications, and Recognitions	210
J.D. Power Award	210
Malcolm Baldrige Quality Award	210

International Standards Organization (ISO)	211
Forbes-Mobil Guide Ratings	211
AAA Ratings	212
Case Studies	214
Chapter 11:
Strategic Planning for Service	219
Introduction to Service Strategy	220
Strategy Defined	220
Strategy Is Natural	221
Importance of Strategy	221
Lack of Strategy	222
Strategy Applied to the Customer Mindset	222
Continuous Improvement	222
Analyzing Position and Market	224
SWOT Analysis	224
Identifying Your Competition	227
Integration: Implementing a Service Strategy	228
The Strategic Service System: Purpose, Product, Plan, People	229
Resource Viewpoint	233
Case Studies	234
Chapter 12:
Developing a Staff	239
Introduction	240
Hiring	240
What Do Hospitality Companies Look for?	240
Communication	242
Visual	243
Body Language	243
Vocal	244
Answering the Telephone	246
Training, Managing, and Developing	247
Demonstrate Personal and Procedural Expectations	248
Integrate and Initiate into the Culture	249
Internal Customers	249
Demonstrate Service Standards	251
Monitor, Assess, Support, and Reward	253
Team Management	255
Types of Teams	256
Team Stages	258
Types of Team Members	258
How to Make Teams Work	259
Conclusion	260
Case Studies	261

Chapter 13:
Marketing and Establishing an Image for Service 265

Introduction to Service Marketing 266
 Marketing and Customer Service 266
 Marketing Defined 266
 Changes in Marketing 267
 Everyone Has Customer Service 268
The Four Steps of Marketing for Quality Guest Service 268
 Step 1: Analysis and Identification of Wants and Needs 268
 Step 2: Establishment of a Marketing Plan 273
 Step 3: Implementation of Controls to Position—The 4 Ps 276
 Step 4: Follow-Up—Service After the Sale 281
Case Studies 282

Glossary 285

Index 293